PSC CONFIDENT, OTHERS IN DARK

Wilson Denounces Salisbury Action; Details Reprisals

SALISBURY, Rhodesia (AP)—Prime Minister Ian Smith declared Rhodesia independent today, the first such declaration against Britain since the American colonies broke away in 1776.

Two Back Down on Aluminum Alcoa, Reynolds Rescind Boosts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's top two aluminum producers have backed down in a dispute with the Johnson administration and canceled price increases the government had labeled "inflationary."

The Aluminum Co. of America—No. 1 producer in the country—ended a week-long battle with the government Wednesday night and rescinded a price hike it made Monday. Two hours later, Reynolds Metals followed suit.

Two Others to Decide
Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp., third largest manufacturer which also raised prices this week, said it would consider its next step today. (In New York, the Times reported that "officials of the Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp. and the Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. also indicated that they would follow Alcoa's lead.")

Alcoa's decision to cancel the price increase was announced at a hastily called night press conference by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara. He hailed it as "a patriotic act."

The defense secretary also said the government agreed to an immediate resumption of negotiations for the orderly disposal of a surplus of 1.4 million tons of aluminum now held in national stockpiles.

To Avoid Price Disruption
McNamara said he believed the government would be able to limit the amount of aluminum disposed of from the stockpile to less than 200,000 tons and thus "avoid disruption" of prices.

Last Saturday when federal officials denounced the price increase, they also announced that the government was considering releasing 200,000 tons from the stockpile in 1966.

On Monday, officials of the Office of Emergency Planning announced they had begun making preparations for the immediate release of 100,000 tons of stockpile aluminum, raising to 300,000 tons the amount of aluminum the government planned to make available.

Some of the surplus aluminum, McNamara said Saturday, would not be sold but transferred directly to needed defense producers. If effected, the transfer would have cost the aluminum industry a huge sales market.

But government officials have maintained during the week that the decision to open the (Continued on Page 14, Col. 5) declared in the House of Commons that Smith and his ministers had been fired—an action which will be ignored in Rhodesia. Wilson asserted his government will have no dealings with the Rhodesian regime.

Wilson expelled Rhodesia from the sterling area banned exports, including British purchases of Rhodesia's $112 million a year tobacco crop, ended all British aid, suspended trading preferences.

Britain embargoed the shipment of all arms to this central African country, and asked for an urgent meeting of the U.N. Security Council.

Britain's allies, including the United States, and Commonwealth members are expected to join in ignoring the declaration and in imposing economic sanctions.

While Smith still was speaking on the radio, British Governor Sir Humphrey Gibbs announced that Smith and all his ministers had been dismissed on orders of Queen Elizabeth for "an unconstitutional act of independence."

Won't Use Force
With his proclamation of independence, however, Smith had ceased to recognize the powers of the British governor and London had said it will not use force.

Smith and his Cabinet determined to go it alone after months of fruitless negotiations in which the British government demanded guarantees of eventual political power for the colony's 4 million Africans, Smith and his colleagues are determined to preserve rule by Rhodesia's 225,000 white settlers.

In proclaiming independence, Smith rejected last-minute appeals from both Wilson and Queen Elizabeth II. Wilson had telephoned Smith at 6 a.m. today in a final attempt to dissuade him.

Smith and his Cabinet sent a message to Queen Elizabeth II Wednesday pledging loyalty to the crown "whatever happens." Some British officials in London considered this a prelude to seizure of independence. Others considered it political brinkmanship designed to impress public opinion in Rhodesia and Britain.

Sen. Byrd Calls It Quits, Son May Be Successor

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Sen. Harry F. Byrd, a strong voice for economy in Washington, for the past 30 years and head of Virginia's dominant Democratic state organization, announced his retirement today.

Effective Immediately
Gov. Albertis S. Harrison Jr. made the disclosure at a hastily called news conference. He said the resignation was effective immediately and that he planned to name an interim successor until the next general election in November 1966.

Harrison gave no intimation of anyone he had in mind to succeed the 78-year-old Democratic chief, but speculation was that the senator's son, Harry F. Byrd Jr., or Rep. William M. Tucker might be on the list.

This one day in the year is set aside to pay tribute to America's citizen-soldiers of the past and present who made personal sacrifices large and small to serve their country. It is observed on the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice which terminated World War I, the 47th anniversary this year.

'We're Behind You' Is Theme War Veterans Honored In City, County Rites

Visual support of President Johnson's policy in Viet Nam was in abundant evidence today as thousands of Ulster County veterans and other interested groups and individuals turned out for observance of the day named in honor of the nation's war veterans, to demonstrate their support of the administration.

While the traditional 11 a. m. "moment of silence" in commemoration of the World War I Armistice, and special programs in the city and its suburbs marked early observance of Veterans Day, area residents planned to climax the observance tonight with a special program centered in Saugerties—home of a national hero—Capt. Roger H. C. Donlon, first and only winner of the Congressional Medal of Honor for bravery in fighting in the war in Viet Nam.

A bronze plaque honoring the Medal of Honor winner installed on the inside wall of Saugerties Town Hall was dedicated during the 11 a. m. ceremonies in the village today.

Veterans and citizens from throughout the county are expected to converge in that northern Ulster County community, where plans call for an old flag-burning ceremony and a special documentary film on Communism.

Held, Rain or Snow
Donal E. Rothrock, commander of Lamouree Hackett Post 72, American Legion, said that the Saugerties program will be held regardless of weather conditions.

The program will start at 7:30 with burning of spoiled and old American flags at the Legion Home grounds, 30 John Street.

Units from veterans organizations, fraternal groups, the schools and colleges, and Boy Scouts, will participate in a parade and motorcade to demonstrate their support of the U. S. policy in Viet Nam.

DONLON PLAQUE UNVEILING—A solid bronze embossed plaque honoring Capt. Roger H. C. Donlon, Saugerties' only Congressional Medal of Honor winner was scheduled for unveiling at Veterans Day ceremonies 11 o'clock this morning. The 18 by 24 inch plaque is on the inside wall of the Saugerties Town Hall reception room. Capt. Donlon, son of Mrs. Marion Donlon, Main Street, Saugerties was awarded the highest U.S. military order at the White House on Dec. 5, 1964 for his heroic action in Viet Nam as a member of the U.S. Army Special Forces. The local war hero was not expected to be present for the dedication. However, his mother and members of his family were expected. Viewing the plaque are (l-r) Joseph Cusack, commander, Saugerties Memorial Post 5034, VFW; Supervisor Peter M. Williams, past Ulster County Legion commander; and Saugerties Village Clerk James V. ### Cong Attack Backfires—Lose 130 Men SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A Viet Cong force ambushed a South Vietnamese unit on a main highway west of Saigon today, but 130 of the Communists were killed by combined ground and air action, a U.S. spokesman reported.

Planes Hammer Attackers
The spokesman said American and Vietnamese planes hammered the attacking Viet Cong and killed 100 of them. He had no information on government casualties or other details of the action 5 miles west of Baria.

A large force of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese troops pressed an offensive in sandy, rolling coastal terrain 350 miles northeast of Saigon, but results were meager.

Two Viet Cong were reported killed and 18 suspects were detained in the search-and-destroy mission 18 miles northwest of Chu Lai on the coast of the South China Sea. No Allied casualties were reported, a U.S. military spokesman said.

Central Hudson president Lelan F. Sillin Jr. is in Washington, D.C. to take part in the Federal Power Commission's investigation of Tuesday night's power blackout in the Northeast.

Today's meeting at the Federal Power Commission offices in Washington began at 9 a. m. It is not known how long Sillin will remain in Washington.

200-Name Petition Opposes $3 Million Apartment Plan

One of four petitions for zoning changes drew firm opposition at public hearing Wednesday night in the city court room, City Hall, conducted by the Common Council's laws and rules committee.

It was that of Income Fund Enterprises Inc., which seeks an apartment house development, estimated to cost some $3,000,000, on a 15.7-acre tract in the Linderman Avenue area. It was the only one opposed.

Opposition filed in writing bore some 200 signatures and several persons spoke against the proposal at the hearing.

Augustus S. Brinnier, consulting engineer, indicated that both water and sewage facilities were adequate enough to permit the development, and it was noted that the petitioner would bear the expense of correcting a sewer (Continued on Page 36, Col. 4)

'Full Blown Attack' Is Hinted by Ike Doctors

FT. GORDON, Ga. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was reported in generally satisfactory condition today after a second attack of heart pains but his doctors raised at least a possible specter of "a full blown heart attack."

A medical bulletin from the team of doctors attending the 75-year-old five-star general said:

"It is not uncommon for patients with known coronary disease to experience repeated episodes of chest pains which may or may not progress to a full blown heart attack."

Eisenhower has a record of coronary disease—his major heart attack of 1955.

In their mention of a full blown heart attack the doctors defined the phrase as meaning "coronary thrombosis and myocardial infarction," which means heart muscle damage.

Capt. Wallace Hitchcock, public information officer here who read the doctors' statement to newsmen, was asked if the recurrence of pains means further hospitalization.

Hitchcock replied that doctors said the stay is based on the evaluation of the individual patient and the doctors will give a combined statement when (Continued on Page 12, Col. 5)

Gotham Still Conserves Power
Northeast Struggles, FPC Readying Report

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's populous Northeast struggled today to return to normal as government agencies sought an answer to the paralyzing power failure.

Businesses and transportation facilities, crippled by the 10-hour blackout that spread across seven states and into Canada Tuesday night, hopefully looked to near normal operations today.

Holiday Will Help
Power conservation is being observed in New York City, hardest hit by the massive technological breakdown. Full power is not expected to be restored for several days.

The Veterans Day holiday is contributing to the return to normal. Schools, government facilities, banks and some businesses are closed today—granting a day's grace to New York's heavily taxed transit operations.

The closed facilities also will require far less power.

Cause of the historic breakdown remains as dark as the blackout itself, but state and federal agencies are making intensive investigations.

Upstream in the minds of government and industry leaders is the prevention of a recurrence. Some warned that it could happen again unless the cause is tracked down and eliminated.

Mayor-elect John V. Lindsay

Cites Many Forms
There are many forms of addiction in present day society—such as tobacco and alcohol—which, although the public is aware of the serious consequences, nevertheless, persons addicted to these are not treated as criminals. In fact, persons who wish to seek medical and psychiatric treatment to overcome these addictions, are generally encouraged by public opinion to do so, even though existing treatment facilities are insufficient in most parts of the nation. With the drug addict, the reverse is the case.

Federal Bureau of Investigation and state regulations concerning narcotic drug addicts have led to an impossible situation for both physicians and addicts.

In Dr. Berger's opinion, physicians have not voiced their convictions sufficiently on this subject. He maintains that in legal circles there is a better understanding of the need for drastic changes in procedures in dealing with narcotic addicts. However, he considers that what is most needed at present is an interpretation by the Attorney General of the United States, of existing laws.

19 Contend No Trouble In Systems

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The chairman of the State Public Service Commission says he is confident his agency will unravel the cause of Tuesday's massive electric-power blackout.

James A. Lundy signaled his optimism Wednesday, even though officials of the state's seven electric companies told the commission they still were mystified by the failure.

Orders Full Inquiry
A solemn-faced Lundy and the other four commission members conferred informally here with 19 company representatives behind closed doors, then ordered a full, formal investigation into the blackout.

Lundy emerged from the 90-minute meeting and told reporters that each of the officials called on the carpet contended there was no trouble within his company's system.

"But it's obvious," the chairman declared, "that it took place, and the general assumption is that the incident began upstream."

Against a background of mounting official and public concern, the commission:—Ordered each of the seven electric companies to submit by next Monday records covering the period of the blackout.

Directed to Study Causes
—Directed each company to study causes of service-interruption and to outline plans for barring future interruptions.

—Scheduled a public hearing on the blackout for Nov. 19 at PSC headquarters in Albany.

The State Power Authority, which sent its chairman, James Fitzpatrick, and other officials to Wednesday's meeting, volunteered to submit similar information.

Lauman Martin, vice president and general counsel of Niagara Mohawk Power Corp., told reporters that "we still don't know precisely what, where, when or how" the power-failure began.

William A. Lyons, executive vice president of the New York State Electric & Gas, said "no body knows."

Robert E. Ginna, board chairman of Rochester Gas Electric Corp., said, "We are hoping to find out."

250 Hear Expert Talk on Forms of Drug Addiction

More than 250 persons heard Dr. Herbert Berger of Staten Island speak on narcotic addiction Wednesday night at George Washington School. The program was sponsored by Ulster County Association for Mental Health.

Dr. Berger's thesis is that the tendency to treat the narcotic drug addict in the United States over the past 40 years exclusively as a criminal, has resulted in the most disastrous increase in the huge profits reaped from the smuggling and illegal distribution of narcotics such as morphine and marijuana.

4 Counties Get That Dark Side Again—No Lights

ATTICA, N.Y. (AP)—Residents in parts of four Western New York counties were hit with a second power failure in 24 hours.

A spokesman for the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. said power was disrupted Wednesday at 5:17 p.m. for about 1,000 customers in the Genesee County community of Alexander and in Attica, Bennington and Middlebury in Wyoming County.

Crews restored power shortly after 6 p.m., but the spokesman said he was unable to tell the cause of the failure.

The lights went out for 19 minutes in the Town of Henrietta, Merdon and a section of Pittsford in Monroe County, and in Victor and a section of Canandaigua in Ontario County. Power was restored at 5:02 p.m. p.m.

A representative of the Rochester Gas & Electric Corp. said a crew performing a normal switching operation in Pittsford, a suburb of Rochester, overloaded a line, causing the blackout in the five communities.

The power failure had nothing to do with Tuesday's blackout, which engulfed those communities and others in the Northeast.

Three Injured in Thruway Crash of Trailer Trucks

Three persons were injured at 1:30 a. m. today in a spectacular collision between a tractor-tandem-trailer and a tractor-trailer on the State Thruway about 12 miles south of Kingston.

Thruway Trooper Joseph Stinton said Robert Ballard, 40, of RD 1, Marcy, was operating the tandem unit south on the Thruway about three miles north of New Paltz near Mile Post 79, when the rear trailer was hit by a southbound tractor-trailer operated by James Ryder, 26, of 200 Main Street, Rotterdam Junction.

The vehicle driven by Ballard veered off the superhighway and rolled down a 20-foot embankment, where the rear trailer overturned. The two trailers attached to the tractor driven by Ballard were loaded with cast iron boilers, according to Trooper Stinton, who investigated the mishap.

Taken to Benedictine Hospital by Doctors ambulance and admitted after treatment were, Ryder, who suffered contusions of the ribs and possible fractured ribs; Ballard, who sustained lacerations of the scalp and abrasions of the right leg and thigh, and Ryder's son, James, Jr., 8, who received facial lacerations. The boy was riding in the cab of the truck with his father at the time of the accident.

Trooper Stinton reported the vehicle operated by Ballard was owned by the Red Star Express Co., of Auburn, and the tractor-trailer driven by Ryder was owned by Hart's Express.

The trooper said it probably will take most of the day to unload the cargo of cast iron boilers and load them on other trailers that were dispatched to the scene after the collision.

Scout Pack 9 Has Initiation For 5 Bobcats

Five new Bobcats were inducted at the October meeting of Pack 9, sponsored by the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. Opening was by Webelos Cubscout Winfred Ortiz, holding the American Flag and Webelos leader Harold Burger leading all in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Cubmaster Ted Bankschan got the pack meeting off to a bang up start by having each Cub sit on a balloon.

Cubs participated in a grand march with each cub dressed in a costume of a country wearing a magic word around his neck in the language of the nation they represented.

An opening ceremony was presented by Den 5. Participating were Daniel Bittner III, Edward ox, James and Timothy Matthes, Stuart Ericson, Ira Bell, Edwin Sauers, Thomas McCarthy and William Wrixon.

The cubmaster introduced new families and friends, Mr. Dimartino and sons Carmelo and Gino; Mr. and Mrs. McGarrity and son Thomas; Mrs. Sabatino, Anthony Turk and his sister, Sally, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoonmaker and son, Alfred.

The following announcements were made: Next pack meeting will be held December 13. Mrs. Janice Lenza is the new treasurer. There will be a dad and son achievement project in connection with next month's theme at December pack meeting. Committeeman Chester Fox led all in a Halloween song. Other songs were also sung.

Cubmaster Bankschan stumped cubs with Halloween riddles.

Den 2 presented a skit on fire safety as October was Fire Prevention month. Taking part were Alan Lenza, Stephan Krause, Gregory Roland, Monty Kramor, Ronald Zimmerman and Frederick Roland.

A Bobcat induction was held for five new Bobcats. Committeeman Chester Fox roped Bobcats and brought them into Pack 9 Corral. They were branded Boy Scouts of America by Assistant Cubmaster Harold Burger and welcomed into Pack 9 circle by the cubmaster. New bobcats Daniel Schleede, Carmelo and Gino Di Martino, Alfred Schoonmaker and a transfer, Frederick Roland.

The following awards were presented: Den 1, Denmother Mrs. Lillian Cameron has Martin Schleede and Jeffrey Berryann receiving one-year pins with James Cameron and Robert Burhans receiving two-year pins.

Den 2, Den Mother Mrs. Marion Blankshan, has Monty Kramor and Gregory Roland receiving a Wolf Badge, gold and one silver arrow under Wolf.

Den 3, Den Mother Mrs. Marilyn Garrity has Douglas Hoskin receiving a Lion Badge, gold and silver arrows under Lion also a two-year pin and a two-year pin to David Barger.

Den 5, Den Mother Mrs. Jeanne Bittner has Edward Fox awarded a silver arrow under Wolf.

Webelos Den Leader Harold Burger presented to Winfred Ortiz a Webelos den patch.

Den 1 presented the closing, taking part were James Cameron, Robert Burhans, Kurt and Kevin Glaser, Douglas Rockwell, Jeffrey Berryann, Martin and David Schleede.

Refreshments were served by Dens 2 and 3 with Den Dads on clean-up detail.

Gave Police Candles

Information released on Tuesday night's blackout mistakenly credited the Rev. William J. McVey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church with having aided local police in supplying candles for light at headquarters in City Hall.

It should have named the Rev. Robert T. Shellenberger, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church.

REFUSING NEIGHBOR'S INVITATION

Q: Neighbors of ours are giving a large party at their house in two weeks to celebrate their wedding anniversary. My husband and I received an invitation to it. While we have known these people a long time we have never considered them intimate friends and we really have nothing in common with them. Neither my husband nor I care to go to this party. I would like to know if it would be rude to decline their invitation.

A: Unless you can truthfully say that you will be away on that date, I'm afraid your neighbor's feelings will be deeply hurt if you don't go to their party for at least a little while.

A: Even though the one entertaining her boy friend would, in a way, be chaperoned by the fact that her sister might return at any moment, there is always the danger of gossip when a woman, especially a young one, spends the evening in an apartment alone with a man.

Sitting at Table With Strangers

Q: When eating in a cafeteria where one is obliged to sit at a table with strangers, does courtesy exact that permission be asked of the person or persons already seated before taking the empty place?

A: You don't have to ask permission to sit down, but you should ask, "Is this place taken," before taking the empty seat.

Details concerning the announcement of an engagement are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Announcing the Engagement." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Emily Post Institute, in care of this newspaper.

Weekly Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Housewives may have to cope with mounting grocery bills this winter.

It is the old law of supply and demand. Bad weather, the war in Viet Nam and labor shortages have cut the food supplies available for civilians.

This has been a bad growing year, with tropical storms in the South, rain in the Midwest and an abnormal freeze in the Pacific Northwest.

The military has embarked on a virtual crash program to purchase food for forces overseas, primarily in Viet Nam.

Supplies of most canned foods already are tighter than last year, and canners say the government is paying above market prices that come close to a requisition of supplies.

David V. Whitley of Chicago, newly elected president of the National Association of Frozen Food Packers, said corn, lima beans, green beans and mixed vegetables will be in short supply because of bad crops this year.

Strawberries also are in short supply.

But there is a big crop of peas, and citrus fruits are plentiful.

Meat, poultry and fish have been running 5.3 per cent higher than last year, which is no news to shoppers. Cereals and baked goods have been up 1 per cent.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture says there may be a small decline in meat prices this winter.

Potatoes, a costly addition to meat-and-potatoes menus earlier this year, should be more economical in the month to come.

2nd Tragedy Now Claims Dad of 3

FAIRFAX, Va. (AP)—Three children who lost their mother seven weeks ago in an auto accident were orphaned Wednesday when their father was killed by electric shock while working atop a power pole.

The father, Oscar Y. Fields, 30, died instantly when he touched a live wire carrying 7,000 volts. His wife, Ruby, was killed Sept. 16 when her car collided with a tractor-trailer truck south of Manassas, Va.

Their three children are Eugene, 12, Theresa, 5, and Cecil, 4.

In Nigeria, life expectancy is about 40 years, as compared with 71 in the United States.

FARM POLICY HOPE

It would be naive to suppose that the National Commission on Food and Fiber will come up 18 months hence with a farm policy acceptable to all concerned. But it is not naive to hope that, having made the "penetrating and long-range appraisal" of policy which President Johnson wants, the commission can set us on a new path toward dealing more effectively with the two dominant aspects of our farm problem.

One of these is to handle our rising farm productivity so that the best interests of all Americans will be served. Mr. Johnson drew attention to this when he declared that the inquiry would be aimed at consideration of the "total national interest," and to this end would be undertaken "in terms of the welfare of our rural Americans, the well-being of our farmers, the needs of our workers and the interests of our consumers."

The other major facet of America's farm problem is the need to make better use of our abundance of food and fiber to help the world's less fortunate peoples, and thus to advance both our national interest and the related causes of peace and freedom. This will be a central concern of the new commission. Its chairman, Dr. Sherwood O. Berg, emphasized this when he asserted that his group would "almost certainly give primary consideration to the question of how our excess productive capacity can more effectively meet the world food gap."

Much depends on the commission's success at avoiding political partisanship and at not yielding to the pressures of this or that farm group. If it can skirt these pitfalls, hewing to the line of national interest and our world responsibility, a sound new approach to farm policy may emerge from its inquiry. Such an outcome would be a major contribution to this nation's domestic stability.

The Indonesian revolt brought many odd results, not least of which is the spectacle of the indomitable, volatile, irascible Sukarno pleading for calm.

VALUE OF CONTROVERSY

Those who closely follow the day-to-day news of the world might conclude that the way to bring about global calm would be to declare a holiday on all this controversy-run-wild which hammers at us on all sides. But now comes a savant to cry not so, and to label controversy as one of the great constructive forces.

"No society," Dr. Albert Burke said in a lecture at the University of Arizona, "can be great if it honors harmony and quiet more than the creative mind." To assume that today's world "is still a very normal and stable place," he told his audience, is to ignore reality. In his view, "we're paying a price for our refusal to face change."

Between 1917 and 1960, Dr. Burke noted, there was a 46 per cent decline in the number of patents issued for creative ideas. Many of the theories taught for generations in physics, he said, have been disproved in the last few years yet are still being taught in high schools "because to recognize that these laws do not exist would mean changing their (the teachers') lecture notes."

That is a harsh judgment, and there are many exceptions to it. Yet all in all the speaker did make a strong case for the value of creative change and dissent and controversy. This is something worth bearing in mind at those moments when one thinks how pleasant life would be if only there weren't so much fuss and argument.

Boston has its 25th gangland killing in 19 months. Seems like kind of a round-about way of eliminating organized crime.

PUT TORCH TO FAD

As was probably inevitable, the form of protest against something or other that started out with the burning of draft cards is now being adopted by all kinds of nuts for all kinds of reasons.

Somebody in St. Louis burned his library card in protest of an increase in the overdue book fine from three cents to five cents. He saved the ashes and mailed them to the mayor.

THE RED CHINESE, PRISONERS OF A THEORY

The Republicans have gone along with the Lyndon Johnson policy of fighting the war in Southeast Asia without eliminating the enemy's industrial sanctuary around Hanoi in North Viet Nam and his port facilities at Haiphong. But many of them are getting restive.

It isn't only Barry Goldwater who is recommending that we bomb the North Vietnam factory complex and stationary missile sites. The other night I heard Gordon Reed, an oil and mining man who was a big Republican money-raiser in 1964, tell about his trip to Saigon on an economic mission for the Air Force. Reed said he knew 50 important military people who say that the war could be ended in a month's time if the North Vietnamese oil storage tanks and power installations were to be put out of business and the port of Haiphong were to be blocked. In saying this, Reed echoes former Air Force Chief of Staff General Curtis LeMay, who thinks that many U. S. soldiers are being uselessly killed by our present strategy of avoiding a direct attack on the enemy's jugular.

The Goldwater-LeMay-Reed theory assumes, of course, that neither Soviet Russia nor Red China would send their own planes and soldiers into South Viet Nam to fight us directly. The possibility that the two Big Brother Communist nations might choose to escalate the struggle, with the danger that nuclear weapons might ultimately be involved is obviously what holds Lyndon Johnson back. But Soviet Russia is a long way from Viet Nam, and if the Red Chinese were openly to enter the war they might have to reckon with those B-52s drawn up on Guam, capable of devastating Red China with or without nuclear warheads in their bombs.

The main reason for thinking that Red China would dare come directly to the attempted rescue of North Viet Nam is that it would force Mao Tse-tung to give up all his cherished convictions of at least 40 years. Recently the Chinese Minister of Defense, Lin Biao, has outlined the substance of what Mao has been preaching ever since the Chinese Communists undertook their "long march" to the wilderness of Northwest China after Chiang Kai-shek turned against them. The Mao theory is that Communism will triumph everywhere after a series of "people's wars." A "people's war" does not need big bombers or atomic weapons; it is fought by stealthy guerrillas who win by capturing the countryside and isolating their enemies in cities that cannot feed themselves.

This is the type of war that the Viet Cong, assisted by the North Vietnamese, has been fighting in South Viet Nam. It counts on holding rural areas and wearing the Americans down to the point where they will be glad to negotiate a "peace" that will leave the Viet Cong in possession of key jobs in a "coalition" government.

Now, it must be almost infinitely surprising to Mao Tse-tung and Lin Biao to see such massive American power pouring into South Viet Nam. This is no paper tiger manifestation. If the U. S. can't be worn down by guerrilla attrition, and if it can't be hornswoggled into negotiating a peace that would leave the Viet Cong in a position to take over South Viet Nam by subversion, what will be the effect on Red Chinese political and military strategists who have invested 40 years of their lives in refining a single theory?

Many people know from personal experience just what is involved in being suddenly bereft of all the precepts that they have lived by. The wrenching and disorientation that follow the loss of faith are usually sufficient to induce a long period of paralysis. If the U. S. were to bomb the factory complex around Hanoi and wipe out oil tanks and power stations and docks, how would Mao and Lin Biao adjust to it? They have no plan for departing from their 40-year reliance on such things as guerrilla tactics and "human wave" assaults. They haven't enough atomic power to take us on in that area. They would see their old convictions in ruins, and in all likelihood it would take years before they could develop a new theory of how to defeat capitalism, to say nothing of building a defense capable of negating those B-52s on Guam.

Surgery Is Only Answer To Gall Stone Problems

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—I am a 60-year-old man. A recent X-ray revealed a large stone in my gall bladder. By avoiding greasy foods I have been fairly comfortable except for a continuous nagging pain at the base of my right shoulder blade. Is surgery the only cure for this? If I don't have an operation will it get worse?

A—There is no way to dissolve the stone. Some persons with proved stones in the gall bladder survive without operation but this is an unjustifiable gamble. With modern surgical techniques and antibiotics the operation is safe but postponing it greatly increases the danger of infection in the gall bladder spreading to the liver or pancreas. It also increases the danger of agonizing gallstone colic and of cancer of the gall bladder. Living without a gall bladder is no handicap but may eliminate one source of worry for you.

Q—Does X-ray always show whether there are stones in the gall bladder and whether the X-ray shows whether you have an ulcer?

A—X-rays made after you have taken the opaque dye that concentrates in the gall bladder will reveal stones if any are present. In addition to this, X-rays may show that your gall bladder does not empty after a fatty meal (one type of gall bladder disease or malfunction). Other types of gall bladder disease must be found by other methods. A gall bladder X-ray will not reveal ulcers in the stomach or the duodenum, which lies just beyond the stomach.

Q—What is acute cholecystitis? Is it curable? What medication should be taken for it?

A—Cholecystitis refers to stones in the gall bladder. I presume the "acute" refers to the gall stone colic that occurs when a stone passes through the bile duct into the intestine. The only cure is surgical removal. The only drugs of any value would be pain killers to tide you over the worst of the attack.

Q—What diet do you recommend for gall bladder disease?

A—Most persons with gall bladder disease are overweight and should reduce. The most important consideration, both for the gall bladder disease and the weight problem, is the avoidance of fats—no chocolate, nuts, pie crust, avocados or whole milk. In almost everyone with this disease the gall bladder must eventually come out, after which a return to a liberal diet is possible. There are many advantages to not delaying this operation.

Washington News

BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The difficulty of snapping back from really disastrous defeat is well illustrated for the Republicans by the relatively unhappy outcome of their 1965 quest for more seats in state legislatures. Their tremendous numerical disadvantage in legislative seats — they hold only a third of the national total — has now been trimmed ever so slightly. The net GOP pickup in the four states which voted on such seats, New York, New Jersey, Virginia and Kentucky, was a modest eight. Final figures might lift it to 10.

If earlier special legislative elections in Georgia and Mississippi be included, the GOP gain rises by another 18 seats, for a total advance of 26 or 28. Yet this is a small slice off the 493 state legislative seats the Republicans lost across the nation in the Goldwater debacle of 1964. It seems tenuous still when set against the net Republican deficit of more than 1,300 seats piled up since their 1946 postwar high.

MOREOVER, THE MODEST 1965 pickup was not gained without damaging offset. The Republicans lost control of both legislative houses in New Jersey, one of only seven states where they had enjoyed such double control. To compound this loss, New Jersey—under control since 1952—will now proceed to reapportion its legislature with Democrats firmly in the saddle and calling the tune. No wonder a gloomy GOP worker, moaned that "this is the end of the party in this state for years to come." It should be noted that the peril at this level is not over for the Republicans this year. On Nov. 23, Vermont—one of the remaining six states with double GOP control—holds a special state legislative election under court reapportionment order. The Republican margin, while comfortable in the lower house, is a mere four seats in the Vermont Senate.

IN THE 1965 ELECTIONS, New York State and Georgia brought the GOP its only substantial seat gains. But even in these states the blessing was mixed.

New York Republicans, having lost both houses to the Democrats last fall, strove desperately to retake them. Voters, acting under a temporary reapportionment plan which increased the size of each house, chose to give the Senate back to the GOP but not the Assembly. Thus the net GOP pickup in New York of 27 or more seats may prove of very limited value. It leaves Democrats powerfully placed to impede further necessary reapportionment as initiated by Republican Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

SEPTEMBER VOTING boosted Republican totals in the Georgia House to 23 seats from a previous seven—accounting for much of the general GOP advance. But the 23 are still insignificant alongside the Democrats' 182. Furthermore, a number of the winners appear to have a distinctly "Old South" flavor in a state moving ahead fast.

Changes in Mississippi, Virginia and Kentucky were so minor as to have no impact one way or another. The same might be said, indeed, in fair summary of the whole 1965 state legislative result to date.

Off that result (not to mention others); it is clear that the Republicans generally have not found the means of upward momentum. They are still mired in a kind of political Appalachia, stuck with an unsatisfactory one-third of nearly all political rewards the nation has to offer.

Kennedy, following former

When the Dominican revolt began Johnson sent 22,000 troops into the republic to prevent a Communist takeover, he said — and, although this manpower may have been more than was needed, the revolt subsided.

When Kennedy journeyed to Europe in his first year, he met De Gaulle, among others. It would not be surprising if Johnson next year, particularly if Congress finishes its work early, made one or more trips abroad.

Sooner or later he will have to get deeper into foreign affairs, if only to give the Western world a far more vital leadership than it has now. Without such leadership the Western alliance, under De Gaulle's heckling, may crumble.

Years ago, when Kingston was large, we had large circus parades which even went down the Broadway hill to the Strand and up Hasbrouck Avenue, one as I remember had 40 elephants. I remember when my father watched the parade he always judged the size and importance of a circus in town by the number of elephants.

In one article in this magazine by Eugene Whitmore of Lockhart, Texas he writes in part: "As everybody in circus business knew Zach Terrell was a great believer in elephants as a drawing card and he never tired of showing the herd. . . . In describing this one show which had about 18 elephants a "Mrs. McFarland had to design and supervise the production of spectacular blankets for every one of the big elephants. . . ."

I remember some years ago one of the radio announcers I worked with at a local station covered a circus which came to town. They allowed him to dress as a clown and be part of the show for the one day showing. He fell in love with circus life and got a job with them, as I remember, advance man. I think it is called. The last part of it was, he arrived in towns some three weeks before the circus for advance publicity work, and never got to see the circus or be part of it, so in the end he gave up. Many youngsters used to "run away with him circus" even from Kingston, and no doubt never forgot the exciting experience.

In our time some of the circus groups used to come to the Athletic Field at Cornell Street and Smith Avenue. There is a railroad siding there, and the circus used to unload there. Early in the morning the day of the circus many used to go up there. My father loved a circus, and

See Foreign Affairs Luck, Timing of LBJ to Run Out

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under the law of averages President Johnson's luck in foreign affairs won't last.

In the first year of his full term foreign crises have been relatively few at a time when he was anxious to concentrate on domestic problems and getting his programs through Congress.

States Review

Today he arranged a full-scale review of foreign policy with top level Cabinet officers at his Texas ranch, the first of its kind since his gall bladder operation Oct. 8. He had held such meetings regularly before that.

Nothing indicated this one would be unusual, which is a reminder that except for the Dominican Republic revolt and the continuing war in Viet Nam Johnson has been fairly free of overseas dilemmas, at least critical ones.

There has been a basic difference between the way Johnson and President John F. Kennedy tackled foreign policy. From the very first Kennedy plunged head-first into it, and personally.

In less than three years he made an excellent impression abroad. But Johnson has played foreign policy in a much lower key. One example: In his first year Kennedy made a trip abroad; Johnson has stayed home.

More Forceful

But in the two biggest and most critical problems that confronted them in their first five months Johnson took far more forceful and positive action than Kennedy.

The latter supported the invasion of Fidel Castro's Cuba by Cuban exiles but he failed to back them with U.S. forces and many of them perished on the beaches. It was a disaster. Kennedy took the blame. But he suffered for it.

When the Dominican revolt began Johnson sent 22,000 troops into the republic to prevent a Communist takeover, he said — and, although this manpower may have been more than was needed, the revolt subsided.

Kennedy, following former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's policy of helping South Viet Nam resist the Viet Cong attempt to conquer it, began a gradual American military build-up. But the Viet Cong continued to progress.

Dwindling Into Chaos

By the time Johnson began his own first full term in South Viet Nam was dwindling into chaos. He poured in American troops, began bombing North Viet Nam and stopped the Viet Cong tide.

But elsewhere for Johnson the world has been relatively quiet. Another lucky point for him is that he hasn't had to cope with anyone so unpredictable or pushy as Kennedy encountered: Russian Premier Khrushchev.

He was an endless problem to Kennedy. Johnson has had none of that, or almost none of it. By the time he took office Khrushchev had quieted down, and was finally thrown out. His successors play low key, like Johnson.

As Russia muted its hostility Red China became communism's loud mouth and Johnson's most constant problem. But, luckily for him, China began to suffer rebuffs and setbacks without any apparent direct American action.

Since Johnson's predecessors all the way back to President Franklin D. Roosevelt got enfrankled in one crisis after another, this year for Johnson is apt to look like no more than a coffee break before he moves out of the White House.

Another Irritant

At the moment — besides the Viet Cong, the North Vietnamese, and the Red Chinese — Johnson's greatest irritant seems to be French President Charles de Gaulle who has just asked his people to give him another seven-year term.

When Kennedy journeyed to Europe in his first year, he met De Gaulle, among others. It would not be surprising if Johnson next year, particularly if Congress finishes its work early, made one or more trips abroad.

Sooner or later he will have to get deeper into foreign affairs, if only to give the Western world a far more vital leadership than it has now. Without such leadership the Western alliance, under De Gaulle's heckling, may crumble.

Policeman Gives Blood

BUFFALO, Wyo. (AP)—Buffalo Policeman Bill Hepp started to give a speeding ticket recently—and wound up giving a pint of blood. Hepp chased a speeder through Buffalo and caught him near the Johnson County Memorial Hospital. The offender didn't wait for Hepp to write the ticket, but interrupted and asked what type of blood he policeman had. Hepp had stopped a laboratory technician making an emergency call for blood. The policeman had the right type, gave a pint of blood and forgot about the ticket.

Local Educators Attend Three-Day Parley at Liberty

Teacher and educational administration levels were represented locally at the three-day conference sponsored by New York University, which concluded Wednesday at Grossinger's in Liberty.

Arthur Withall, president of the Kingston Consolidated Schools Board of Education; Board members Sam Pepper and Harold Keator; Louis Salzmann, president of the Kingston Teachers Federation, and Howard Rust, president of the Kingston Teachers Association, were among those attending. Approximately 130 school board members, superintendents, teachers and other interested citizens from the New York City area participated in the conference sponsored by NYU on the theme of "Teacher-School Board Relations," as part of NYU's 75-year jubilee of its School of Education.

Rust, commenting on the conference, said he was pleased to note "the degree of awareness that teachers today are no longer willing to accept meekly the role in the schools which they have played in the past. It is refreshing to hear school board members and superintendents from New York, New Jersey and Connecticut," he said, "take note of the fact that teacher militancy will continue to grow as teachers pursue their demands for a greater voice in the educational process."

First day speakers at the conference included Mrs. Ruth Page, executive secretary of the New Jersey State Federation of School District Boards; David Selden of the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO; Howard Gould of the New York State Teachers Association; Michael Santopolo, superintendent of school of Hewlett-Woodmen; Oswald Hall, professor of Sociology of the University of Toronto and Raymond Callahan of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo.

"Most speakers," Rust said, "commented that school boards must be willing to face up to the increased demands of teachers for a greater role in education. The individual speakers all felt that teacher activity will continue to grow."

"Such teacher actions must be met by boards of education with plans suitable to all parties for increased staff participation. Rust concluded that a general

Move Takes Shape To Strip Ingalls Of Assembly Post

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A move is taking shape in the Assembly to strip George L. Ingalls of his Republican minority leader's post.

Indications are that, if the move succeeds, the coveted job will go to one of two fast-rising, young assemblymen—Perry B. Duryea Jr. of Montauk Point, Long Island, or Richard J. Bartlett of Glens Falls.

Duryea Has Edge

Duryea appears to have an edge over Bartlett in early maneuvering behind the scenes. Ingalls, a 51-year-old lawyer from Binghamton, took the GOP leadership reins last January when Democrats assumed majority control of the Assembly.

He had served as majority leader for four years, by appointment of Speaker Joseph F. Carino, who was defeated for re-election in the Johnson landslide of 1964.

Ingalls had served satisfactorily as second-fiddle to Carino and was elected unanimously as minority leader—the top-ranking Republican post in the politically realigned Assembly.

His performance during the 1965 legislative session, however, displeased numerous rank-and-file Republicans.

The chief complaint against Ingalls was that he was inde-cise in moments of political crisis and, when he did take a firm position, frequently was at odds with the viewpoint of most of his colleagues.

The "dump Ingalls" drive is idling quietly at the moment in deference to Ingalls' illness. He was hospitalized last week for treatment of an ulcer condition.

It is expected to move into high gear, however, the moment Ingalls returns to the political firing line.

Contenders Quiet

The two principal contenders for the job decline to discuss the situation.

Besides political prestige, the job pays $15,500 a year in addition to the $10,000 salary of rank-and-file lawmakers, and the minority leader is assigned a chauffeur-driven limousine.

Bartlett, 39, a lawyer, is among the most popular members of the Legislature and, in seven years of service, has won a reputation as an intelligent, highly persuasive lawmaker. He heads the study commission that produced a much-discussed overhaul of the state's criminal laws.

Duryea, 44, who runs a wholesale seafood business, was tabbed as a political "comer" from the moment he entered the Assembly five years ago. His father had been conservation commissioner in Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's administration, and the younger Duryea was considered for the Republican state chairman's job in 1963.

TODAY IN HISTORY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Thursday, Nov. 11, the 315th day of 1965. There are 50 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1918, an armistice was signed and World War I came to an end.

On this date in 1918, the independence of Poland was proclaimed.

In 1921, the Washington disarmament conference convened.

In 1942, Allied forces won control of Algeria and French Morocco.

In 1942, the Nazis took possession of unoccupied France.

In 1954, in the first observance of Veterans Day, 16,000 persons in New York City became citizens of the United States.

Ten years ago—A Navy bomber crashed into a destroyer during a simulated attack off Southern California, killing five men.

Five years ago—Troops loyal to President Nge Dinh Diem of South Viet Nam put down a revolt a little more than 24 hours after it began.

One year ago—The new Labor government of Britain presented an emergency budget, calling for increased taxes and broadened welfare benefits.

Musk oxen, hairy mammoths and woolly rhinoceros once roamed in the Arctic of North America and Greenland and the tundras of Europe and Asia.

Hope Comedy Just Right Tonic for Blackout Patients

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — An amusing — and mighty familiar — little comedy idea on NBC's Bob Hope Theatre Wednesday night was just the right prescription for some of the tired 30 million people recovering and getting back to normal after Tuesday night's power blackout.

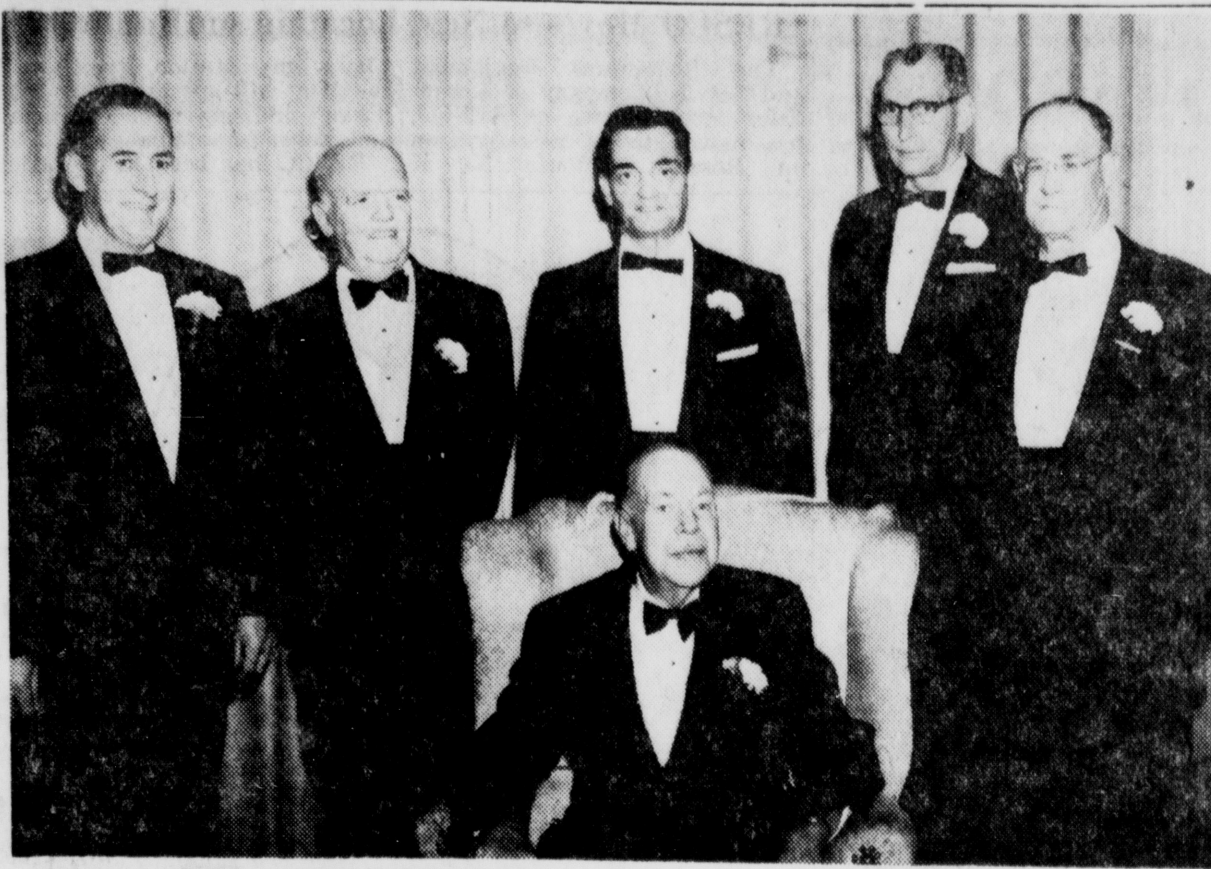

And so was the problem of "The Virginian's" hard luck neighbor and the derring-do of the "I Spy" agents chasing an escaped spy. NBC, in fact, was a comfortable channel on Wednesday night for a smooth sail away from stern reality.

"Mr. Governor," the Hope show comedy, was busy building laughs on the old device of having an especially tall, husky, pipe-smoking man forced to disguise himself as a woman. It worked with Jack Lemmon and Tony Curtis in a hit movie and it worked again Wednesday night with Tom Tryon. It was very, very broad comedy, of course, plus a mixed pair of romances and the anticipated windup — Tom lost his wig.

Throughout the day — particularly in news shows and in a pair of news specials — the TV networks busily tried to clean up the big story of the previous night's big blackout. It covered most of the essential picture and word bases, but came no closer than any other medium to solving the big mystery — the cause of the trouble.

Producers of CBS' "What My Line?" after considering the matter for two days went back to their original idea of putting a close friend of Dorothy Kilgallen's into the late columnist's spot on the show panel next Sunday night. They chose Kitty Carlisle. The other guest on the panel will be Steve Allen, once regular on the show.

Starting next Monday, NBC's Huntley Brinkley news summary will be in color. Just what the addition will bring to its coverage is an interesting question. Both the "Today" and "Tonight" shows are using color and in both cases, it seems to this viewer, it adds little to our appreciation or enjoyment. One just hopes that the news show's editors will not henceforth pick stories on the basis of the quality of color film available.

GRAND MASTER VISITS HERE—Most Worshipful Clarence J. Henry, grand master of Masons in the State of New York, seated, is shown with area Masons who welcomed him to Kingston Saturday night at Masonic Temple. ## Banquet, Dance Held in Honor Of Henry Visit

Most Worshipful Clarence J. Henry, grand master of Masons in the State of New York, delivered an interesting and enlightening message to area Masons and their friends during the annual fall banquet and dance of Rondout Lodge, 343, Saturday night at Gov. Clinton Hotel.

Among Henry's comments were: "We of this fraternity today, by virtue of our magnificent heritage, moral awareness, ecumenical vigor and influence and I hope fervency by virtue of our deliberate choice, are uniquely positioned to advance understanding and resultant brotherly outlook among all the world's peoples."

"May we prove worthy of our power and responsibility. May we exercise our strength and quality with effective wisdom to the end of securing, in our day, and for those who shall follow us, the great goal of peace throughout the earth and good will among men."

Attending with the grand master was Howard W. Niven, grand marshal of the Grand Lodge, Masons from surrounding areas on hand were Martin V. B. Morgan, district deputy of Dutchess District; Master Garrie Lynn of Catskill Lodge 468; Master Leslie H. Johnson, Adonai Lodge, 718, Highland and Master Thomas Olsen, Mountain Lodge, 529, Windham.

Other visiting masons included Sidney E. Friar, grand standard bearer of the Grand Commandery Knights of Templar, State of New York, Fred L. Stutz, commander, Poughkeepsie Knights Templar, 43, Royal Arch Masons; Glen Cook, master of James Ten Eyck Lodge, 831, Albany, who was accompanied by Mr. Brown, senior warden; Mr. Lund, junior warden and Mr. Lynsard, marshal; Mr. Cason and Mr. Murray, past masters of 831; Ruth and John Polluto, Catskill Chapter, 293, OES; Marian and George Radcliffe, Kingston Chapter 155, OES; Julia Kellerhouse, matron, Emanuel Chapter 517, Saugerties and Herman E. Story, patron, Maranatha Chapter 764, Greenville.

Preceding the banquet, Worshipful Master J. Wesley Drake and officers held a special communication of Rondout Lodge. Taking part were H. E. Story, senior warden; James L. Radcliffe, junior warden; Jack H. Schoonmaker, senior deacon; Willard I. Goodheim, junior deacon and Myron E. Rowe, junior master of ceremony, acting as chaplain and secretary.

Robert B. Greene, past master and chaplain of Rondout Lodge, gave the invocation before the banquet. Drake welcomed the assemblage and introduced members of the banquet and dance committee including Arthur F. Aldridge, David Falk, W. I. Goodheim, Leon Milkofski, James L. Radcliffe, Myron E. Rowe, Jack H. Schoonmaker, Paul Trataros and Fred L. Van Deusen.

Red Cross Will Send Packages to Field Directors

G. Alan Johnson, chapter chairman of the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross, has announced that the Red Cross has been receiving many inquiries relative to sending Christmas cards, gifts, cookies, and candies through Red Cross to American military personnel in Viet Nam. As a result, the American Red Cross, after thorough review of the subject with Pentagon and U. S. Military Command officials in Viet Nam has decided that the local chapters will not solicit such items for bulk shipment in Viet Nam but packages can be mailed by the local chapters directly to American Red Cross field directors for distribution to servicemen.

Military authorities recommend paperback books, toilet articles, razor blades, pre-sweetened powdered drinks, Redi-pop, popcorn (which can be popped in the container in which it is sent), etc. Perishables should not be included.

In addition to articles listed above, certain items are needed for use in Red Cross recreation programs in behalf of hospital patients and able-bodied servicemen. Welcome items include: portable, sturdy tape recorders; 4 inch magnetic, 150 foot length recording tapes; still picture, self-processing cameras; films for self-processing; still picture cameras; portable, sturdy AC 60-cycle current or battery operated record players; 45-RPM, current, popular records; small pocket sets of checkers, chess and cribbage; harmonicas, banjos, guitars, and ukuleles; and level jigsaw puzzles. All items should be new.

Persons desiring to send any of the above to military personnel in Viet Nam may do by delivering it to the Ulster County Chapter, American Red Cross, 308 Clinton Avenue, Kingston. Costs of shipment will be met by the Red Cross as one of the services financed by voluntary contributions to the Community Chest and Red Cross Fund Drives.

The danger of being struck by lightning can be minimized by staying indoors, avoiding contact with the telephone and other electrical equipment, water systems and not sitting near a fireplace. Outdoors it can be lessened by staying away from isolated trees, staying out of the water, avoiding contact with metallic conductors, wire fences and railroad tracks.

Report Couple 'Very Good' After Heart Surgery

CHICAGO (AP) — A Wisconsin couple, married for 37 years, had heart surgery together and are reported in "very good condition" today.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alvin Druvor of Prairie du Chien, Wis., underwent open-heart surgery Wednesday by Dr. M. S. Mazel. The operation, called a cardiopexy, was to unblock arteries leading to the heart.

Dr. Mazel said the Druvors probably will be up and walking today and will be back at work in two or three weeks.

Mrs. Inez Druvor, 60, was tabbed for the operation after accompanying her husband, Alvin, 62, to Chicago for a physical examination two weeks ago. Tests disclosed that she had a heart condition, similar to the one her husband had for seven years, only worse.

Hospital officials said the couple decided to have their surgery the same day to eliminate concern for each other that might possibly cause damage to their hearts.

Druvor is president of Travel Mat, Inc., a national paper mat printer.

Oswego Will Get Youth Corps Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department says it has approved five new Neighborhood Youth Corps projects in three states, including one in Oswego, N.Y.

The projects as announced Wednesday, will help 950 youths earn money to remain in school or get on-the-job training for future employment.

The federal government pays 90 per cent of the cost of the projects.

The Labor Department said 217 youths would be involved in the Oswego project. The cost of the project will be $106,770.

EXTRA PUNCH — Crew members examine the "Masurca," an anti-aircraft rocket, positioned between the masts of the French warship Jean Bart.

Qualify Three Categories in WIBC National Hall of Fame

A national Hall of Fame for women bowlers honoring bowlers in three categories has been opened by the Woman's International Bowling Congress.

Bowlers will be chosen in the following categories: Star of Yesteryear, Meritorious Service Award and Superior Performance Award.

Cora Porter of Franklin, Tenn., chairman of the WIBC's Hall of Fame Committee, indicated that a plaque listing Hall of Famers would eventually be displayed in the WIBC office in Columbus.

Members selected will receive a lifetime pass to the WIBC championship tournament, among other awards.

Names of worthy candidates for the Star of Yesteryear and Meritorious Service, along with a statement of their qualifications, may be submitted by the secretary or president of any WIBC affiliate, no later than Oct. 1 each year to the WIBC executive secretary-treasurer. Members of the Hall of Fame Committee and the WIBC executive board may also make nominations.

21 Already Honored WIBC's three-divisional Hall of Fame has already honored 21 members. The Star of Yesteryear award was initiated in 1953, the Meritorious Service Award in 1963, and the only Superior Performance Award was given to Marion Ladewig of Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1964.

The 17 Stars of Yesteryear are Emma Jaeger* of Toledo, Ohio; Grace Hatch* and Goldie Greenwald* of Cleveland, Ohio; Louise Stockdale of Buena Vista, Calif.; Marie Warmbier* of Chicago, Ill. (all 1953); Dorothy Miller of Chicago, Ill. (1954); Philena Bohlen* of Los Angeles, Calif. (1955); Floretta McCutcheon of Pasadena, Calif. (1956); Emily Chapman of Long Island, N. Y. (1957); Catherine Burling of Cincinnati, Ohio (1958); Jo Mraz of Cleveland, Ohio (1959); Violet (Billy) Simon of San Antonio, Tex. (1960); Addie Ruschmeyer of White Plains, N. Y. (1961); Anita Rump of Ft. Wayne, Ind. (1962); Esther Ryan of Milwaukee, Wis. (1963); Sally Twyford of Indianapolis, Ind. (1964); and Myrtle Schulte of St. Louis, Mo. (1965).

The Meritorious Service Award has gone to only three women, Jeannette Kneppath of Milwaukee, Wis. (1963), WIBC past president; Nora Kay of Toledo, Ohio (1964), former WIBC sergeant-at-arms; and Emma Phaler of Columbus, Ohio (1965), WIBC past executive secretary.

Gotham's Money Plight Critical, Lindsay Declares

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor-elect John V. Lindsay says "I'll be acting as a receiver in bankruptcy when I take over at City Hall."

The city's financial situation is "more critical, much more, than anyone knows," adds the Republican congressman who will become mayor Jan. 1 after 20 years of Democratic control. Lindsay did not mention any figures in comments to newsmen Wednesday about the city's financial future.

He made the statement after emerging from a 90-minute conference with Gov. Rockefeller.

Lindsay said he believes the financial situation is the "first and foremost" problem facing the city "and I think the governor will agree with me."

Rockefeller told newsmen that Lindsay can count on his support at Albany if special legislation is needed to help the city solve its financial problems.

In a recent experiment, five men lived in isolation for a month, breathing the same air over and over with the aid of a chemical purifier and drinking water recovered from their own wastes.

The guillotine was used in England, Scotland and various other parts of Europe before it was introduced into France at the time of the revolution. It was in use in Edinburgh as the "Scottish maiden" as early as 1581. The French version of this form of capital punishment was introduced by Joseph Ignace Guillotin, a French physician, who suggested its use as a means of making execution as painless as possible.

RESCO Moves to New Location on Route 32

The Restaurant Equipment and Service Company of Rosendale, better known as RESCO, has moved to its new location on Rosendale Route 32 at Clay's gas station, which the company will operate along with its sales and service of restaurant and domestic appliances. RESCO has been in operation four years and is owned and operated by Albert G. Boyle of Lucas Avenue. It represents nearly 50 different equipment manufacturers, maintaining service for these and many other brands.

Highland Falls GI Is Killed in Viet

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Highland Falls, N.Y. soldier was among the 85 U.S. fighting men killed in action in Viet Nam during the week ended Monday night, the Defense Department reports. The department said Wednesday the man was Army Cpl. Rudolph Rodriguez.

From the time we open until we close, from one end of the week to the other, we devote ourselves to one task: pleasing customers. We do it with service. The friendly, courteous and efficient kind. We do it by offering you good values for your money. We also do it by offering you gift-giving Plaid Stamps. If you haven't already experienced shopping at your friendly A&P — try it this week. You'll be pleased.

Power Break, Return Like Woman's Washer Troubles

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—The cause of the massive power blackout in the northeast remained a mystery today, and to many it appeared equally mystifying that power was restored without officials knowing the cause of the breakdown.

Yet analogies occur frequently in the home.

One example is the housewife who, midway through a washing cycle, finds that her automatic washer has suddenly stopped. By pressing the circuit breaker on the appliance the machine is returned to duty.

Think System Unbalanced

It is working, but she does not know why it stopped in the first place. She assumes an overloaded circuit or momentary power interruption.

Some power officials have theorized that a massive surge of power unbalanced the complex interconnecting system that is the Northeastern power grid.

The grid, a huge power pool formed by interconnecting lines of different utilities extends from Quebec through Ontario to Canada to power companies in New York State and from there south to the Gulf of Mexico and west to Montana.

Whatever the cause, its effects were felt in the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. system at 5:22 p.m. Tuesday, when most of the sprawling utility's more than one million customers lost power.

A spokesman for Niagara Mohawk said the failure was "instantaneous," with no advance warning registering on the giant panel at the firm's power control center here.

Safety devices, designed to protect generating units, were automatically activated and most of the company's 81 generating stations were shut off.

The spokesman said Niagara Mohawk immediately disconnected itself from the grid and began the job of restarting the generators to generate solely within its own system. This is like the housewife pushing the circuit breaker.

Theoretically, barring physical damage somewhere in the system, as soon as generating capacity was restored so was power to consumers.

No Physical Damage

And this is what happened. Niagara Mohawk said it found no physical damage in the system and full power was restored by 8:45 p.m.

Other systems operated similarly.

Restoration within the Niagara Mohawk system was begun from the western end of the state, where only about one-sixth of the firm's customers were affected.

First stations to return were the huge steam generator plants at Dunkirk and Hurler, in Western New York.

One generating capacity was restored at individual stations, personnel mending the power control board performed the switching operations necessary to channel the power to a certain area. This operation continued until, section by section, along the 115,000 miles of lines, restoration was completed in 31 cities and 622 towns and villages.

Sen. Byrd Calls

ter from Byrd announcing his resignation was delivered to him at the executive mansion at 10 p.m. Wednesday.

Byrd said in the letter that the rigors of the last Congress had borne heavily on him and that he found himself tiring easily.

Reluctant Decision

"In looking toward the forthcoming session that starts in January and after consultations with my physicians concerning the pain I have been suffering as a result of arthritis I have reluctantly reached the conclusion that I must give up the heavy responsibilities entrusted to me by the people of Virginia," Byrd's letter said.

"I hereby submit my resignation as a member of the United States Senate to become effective upon receipt of this letter."

The governor praised Byrd for his contribution to the state and the nation, and called him one of our greatest Americans.

Byrd sought to step down from the Senate in 1958 but in the face of a projected Democratic organization split between backers of Tuck and John S. Battle, both former governors, Byrd agreed to run again.

The senior Virginia senator, whose previous rugged health had been exemplified by mountain climbing, had been less active in recent years and had been badly troubled with an arthritic knee.

Governor 1926-30

He was elected to the Virginia Senate 50 years ago this month. He served as Virginia's governor 1926-30, and in that position was responsible for the pay-as-you-go doctrine which has become a by-word in Virginia's financing and relatively debt-free status.

Byrd was named to the U.S. Senate when Claude Swanson was appointed secretary of the Navy in President Franklin D. Roosevelt's first Cabinet in 1932. He won subsequent elections and last year won overwhelmingly in a five-man field for his sixth full term.

Frequent Thorn

Politically, Byrd was frequently a thorn in the side of the national administration but the differences were political and he had a close personal friendship for some whose programs he opposed intensely.

Byrd had a fondness for saying he was an original New Dealer but that the New Deal left him when Roosevelt reversed his economy stand and launched a program of deficit financing.

Byrd adopted a pose of what he called "golden silence" in presidential elections starting with that in which Harry S. Truman was elected in 1948. He didn't endorse the Republican nominee, but his silence was regarded as a big factor when President Dwight D. Eisenhower carried Virginia in 1952 and 1956 and when Richard M. Nixon took the state in 1960.

Last year, although he enjoyed a long personal friendship with Lyndon B. Johnson, he remained silent. Johnson carried the state for the Democrats for the first time since the Truman election of 1948.

PHOENICIA — The eighth annual dinner dance held Nov. 6 for the benefit of the Phoenicia Library was reported to be a financial and social success.

A total of $555 was realized from the dinner event which was held at Al's Restaurant. Music for dancing was supplied by the Troubadours.

Harry Allen was master of ceremonies and Mrs. Etta Hanigan and Mrs. Charlotte Kiernan served as chairman of the dinner dance.

Area merchants and individuals donated goods and services to the success event which was attended by 115 persons.

2,000 at Rites For Columnist Who Died Monday

NEW YORK (AP)—A solemn high requiem Mass was held today for Dorothy Kilgallen, the newspaper columnist and television personality who died in her sleep Monday.

About 2,000 mourners attended the service at St. Vincent Ferrer Roman Catholic Church in midtown Manhattan.

Miss Kilgallen, 52, was a columnist for Hearst newspapers and appeared on the CBS television program "What's My Line."

The New York County medical examiner's office said today it still had not determined the cause of Miss Kilgallen's death. An autopsy proved inconclusive and further tests, which still are in progress, were ordered.

Step Up Attack On Soviet-built Missile Sites

By RONALD I. DEUTSCH

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air attacks on Soviet-built missile sites in North Viet Nam have been sharply stepped up, but the Red's conventional anti-aircraft guns have taken the heaviest toll of attacking American planes.

Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers have destroyed or damaged seven surface-to-air installations in the past week and 10 since the beginning of the month. Only three SAM sites were hit between the end of July and November.

Seven Planes Lost

Seven planes, including rescue aircraft, were lost in attacks on missile installations last weekend, but only one was downed by a missile. The others were hit by conventional ground fire.

"It's a risky business," said a U.S. military spokesman. "The concentration of flak aimed at our planes is as heavy as, if not heavier than, any in World War II."

Missiles are one of the Communists' most potentially dangerous weapons, but their success seems to have been relatively limited. Of the more than 140 planes lost since U.S. bombing of North Viet Nam began, only seven are known to have been shot down by missiles.

Much of the credit is due the American pilots who have coped with the beginning with the missile threat. They have developed tactics to minimize the danger from the SAMs.

Fired Upon

Pilots returning from raids against missile installations have reported being fired on by the SAMs. But some of the assaults have been carried out with great speed — one took only 90 seconds. Pilots said the Communists may not have had time to launch the complex projectiles with any degree of accuracy.

On the other hand, all the SAM installations are heavily protected by automatic weapons and anti-aircraft guns which can produce withering fire in seconds.

Informal sources have said that as many as 30 fixed SAM installations ring the cities of Hanoi and Haiphong. There are indications that the number of portable facilities is much higher and that these are spread throughout much of the country.

Despite dangers involved in strikes against missile facilities, the United States has begun a concerted campaign to destroy as many of the sites as its pilots can find.

"There are plenty up there, so we expect to be busy for some time," said one military source.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police has a uniform personnel of 4,700, a Marine division and an Air division.

available.

The doctors said that in the meantime they will continue the accepted therapy and prevention "which is to treat the patient with threatening attacks as if he had suffered a heart attack."

At a conference Wednesday doctors had said Eisenhower would be confined for at least two weeks. He had planned to fly to Walter Reed Hospital Friday to convalesce.

The physicians said in a bulletin:

Has Good Night

"General Eisenhower spent a good night without further pain or discomfort. He is comfortable this morning and his general condition is satisfactory."

In effect the physicians were renewing what they said Wednesday night after recurring heart pains forced his return to an oxygen tent.

The pains Wednesday were more prolonged and of longer duration than the mild attack of angina pectoris, or heart pains, which occurred just after midnight Monday night, doctors said.

Sudden Reversal

Announcement of the sudden reversal in the condition of the 75-year-old five-star general came about an hour after the doctors had said he was making a good recovery and might be playing golf again in two weeks.

Late Wednesday night, Capt. Wallace Hitchcock, Ft. Gordon press officer, said Eisenhower had been "comfortable since 6 p.m."

But he wouldn't say whether this meant that Eisenhower was completely out of pain or there had been any solid improvement in his condition.

Earlier Wednesday, it was announced that the former president would be flown to Washington Friday to enter Walter Reed Army Hospital for the remainder of his two weeks convalescence.

However, slightly over an hour later, Hitchcock told reporters:

"While the general had a fine morning, this afternoon he had a return of his chest discomfort. Plans for his departure for Walter Reed have been held in abeyance."

Seeking some idea of the significance of the new pains, reporters asked questions of Dr. Thomas W. Mattingly, who treated Eisenhower in his 1955 heart attack. Mattingly didn't come to the press center but responded through Hitchcock.

Longer Duration

Asked if they were more serious than the first attack, Mattingly replied, "It is more prolonged and of longer duration."

And Mattingly said Eisenhower was back in the oxygen tent he had left earlier in the day.

Wednesday night, President and Mrs. Johnson telephoned Mrs. Eisenhower from their Johnson City, Tex., ranch.

Joseph Laitin, assistant press secretary at the Texas White House, said the Johnsons told Mrs. Eisenhower they wanted her to know they were thinking about her during her husband's illness.

Cancer Society Will Present Film, Lecture

A program of vital interest to women will be presented by the American Cancer Society, sponsored by the Woman's Guild of the Old Dutch Church, to be held in Bethany Hall on Friday, November 12 at 12 noon. All interested women in the area are cordially invited to attend this worthwhile program.

The program, "Breast Self-Examination" will be shown, with Dr. Roberto Benitez, pathologist, as guest speaker who will also show slides and conduct a question and answer period following the film.

Breast cancer is the leading cause of cancer deaths in women today, and physicians declare that earlier detection will save more lives. For this reason, the Society encourages regular breast self-examination. The film demonstrates how this is done.

Radio-Telephone Service Approved For Four Counties

ALBANY—The Public Service Commission today granted a certificate of public convenience and necessity to Poughkeepsie Radio, Inc., to operate as a telephone corporation providing a mobile radio telephone service in Orange, Ulster, Dutchess and Columbia counties in conjunction with the facilities of New York Telephone Company.

Poughkeepsie Radio holds a common carrier radio station license granted by the Federal Communication Commission authorizing domestic public land mobile radio service for a maximum of 50 mobile units. The company presently provides a radio message service on a 24-hour daily basis for customers with 11 units.

Poughkeepsie proposed to expand its operation by interconnecting its radio dispatching system with the lines of New York Telephone to provide two-way communication between subscribers to the radio service and customers of the telephone company and its connecting carriers.

Poughkeepsie's transmitting facilities are controlled by Academy Message Bureau, a telephone answering service, whose operators receive and relay messages between the public and the radio service subscribers.

Between January and August, 1965, the number of mobile units served by Poughkeepsie increased from 2 to 11 and the number of one-minute messages handled in a single month rose from 73 to 1,373. The company anticipates further growth.

The new radio-telephone service will be provided 24-hours daily for all communications regardless of their points of origin, with Academy making the connections between the mobile radio circuits and New York Telephone Company's line.

Poughkeepsie proposed a rate of 10 cents per minute for local telephone calls with no charge for toll calls other than the amount billed by New York Telephone. The rates would apply only to calls originating from Poughkeepsie's subscribers and transient mobile unit operators.

For its services, Academy would be paid one-third of the amount Poughkeepsie charges its customers.

In his report to the Commission recommending approval of Poughkeepsie's proposal, Examiner Edward L. Block says the record indicated that "the proposed operation would be a useful and desirable service for existing and future customers" of the company.

"Direct communication," Block adds, "could be had between mobile units and local and long-distance customers of New York Telephone Company and inter-connected telephone companies."

New York Telephone has indicated its willingness to enter into a traffic agreement covering the interchange arrangements and to furnish a connecting circuit, certain necessary equipment and a listing in the local directory.

Swiss Bull Stolen

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If you see a Brown Swiss bull with four horns and three eyes, don't call a psychiatrist or an ontonetrist. It might be Elmer.

Elmer was reported stolen Wednesday from a carnival. His owner, Harvey Williams, 60, told officers the animal was on display earlier Wednesday but that his van and Elmer later disappeared.

Williams said he valued the bull at $25,000.

Ted Back From Viet

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D. Mass., who returned Wednesday night from a tour of Viet Nam, said he was asked by some servicemen if the anti-war demonstrations reflect the feelings of "most young people in the United States."

He said he had assured them that "the majority of Americans are in support" of Viet Nam's right to self determination.

Rondout Valley Voters Are Advised on Alternatives

Rondout Valley Central School District voters will decide on a $3,190,000 proposed school bond issue Nov. 17.

Previous news releases from the school have dealt with the proposed bond issue, its need and financing. Many persons ask, "What are alternatives?" There are two such alternatives to the construction of permanent facilities. These are: double—or some form of curtailed—sessions and temporary facilities. At best, these procedures are merely temporary expedients and do not solve the problem.

Usually, the question is asked as to what is wrong with double sessions. At a time when it is important that as much time as possible be devoted to educating our youth, double sessions require a curtailment of time and the educational program. The high school schedule is cut from eight to six—or even five—periods per day. Each of these is reduced to the bare minimum of time for instruction. In general, the school day is cut by one-fourth to one-third its normal time. Akin to the loss of instructional time—which is the paramount issue—is the increased costs of double sessions. These increases are due to two main reasons—transportation and staff.

Family Inconvenience Cited
While the major defects of double sessions have been mentioned, there are other disruptions which occur in family life. Chief among these disruptions is the meal schedule which would have to be varied sufficiently to accommodate youngsters who depart and arrive at many different times.

Since finances are important, computations of relative costs show the double or curtailed session to be more costly than the erection and operation of permanent facilities. Such costs are estimated to be from six to ten per cent higher for the double or curtailed session than for the proposed building program.

Temporary Facilities Scored
The second alternative is to provide additional temporary facilities. Again, these provide only temporary relief. Monies expended for renting or leasing these facilities do not buy any equity. While this alternative is preferable to double session, it provides no permanent solution.

To those who ask if the proposed bond issue will solve the classroom shortage problem once and for all, the answer must be a qualified no. If the population of the area continues to grow, in the same proportion as in the past, there will be a need for additional facilities in the future. By planning for these so that an orderly program is adopted, much of the shock of additional facilities can be averted.

The vote on the building proposition will be in the High School Gymnasium on Wednesday, Nov. 17, between the hours of 2 and 9 p. m.

Oldest Priest Dies

LUCCA, Italy (AP)—Msgr. Paolo Chelini, Italy's oldest Roman Catholic priest, died Wednesday night at his home here. He was 105 and had said Mass daily until a few months ago.

The priest was a close friend of composer Giacomo Puccini and helped him in the initial staging of the first act of "Tosca," which takes place in a church and ends with the singing of the "Te Deum."

Johnson Summons Aides to Ranch

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson called his top military and diplomatic advisers to the LBJ Ranch today for his first major foreign affairs review since his Oct. 8 surgery.

Summoned for the day-long conference were Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Undersecretary of State George W. Ball and McGeorge Bundy, Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs.

Officials said topics would include operations in Viet Nam, the Nov. 17 conference of hemisphere foreign ministers in Rio de Janeiro and the Dec. 6-8 American visit of West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

Johnson spent a quiet, recuperative day Wednesday after staying up late Tuesday to get reports on the Northeast power failure.

Joseph Laitin, acting press secretary, announced that Chairman Joseph C. Swidler of the Federal Power Commission, director of the Johnson-ordered inquiry into the cause of the power blackout, has agreed to remain in his post until Dec. 31. Swidler, whose term on the FPC expired last June 22, had planned to enter private law practice in Washington next week.

Laitin said Swidler's extended tenure had nothing to do with the power failure—that Johnson had asked him to stay before the blackout hit the Northeast.

Two recess appointments of ambassadors also were announced: Marshall P. Jones to Malawi and Cecil Lyon to the Maldives Islands. Both are career diplomats.

Heart Announces Nurse Program For Next Monday

A program on cardiopulmonary resuscitation, rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease for county school-nurse teachers, other school personnel and public health nurses of the Ulster County Department of Health will be held Monday, Nov. 15 at 7:45 p. m. at Kingston Hospital's conference room. This program is sponsored by the Ulster County Heart Association with the cooperation of the Kingston Hospital, announced Dewees W. DeWitt, president of the local Heart Chapter, "and will be presented by Dr. Harold L. Rakov, director of Medical Education at Kingston Hospital."

Dr. Rakov also is a Fellow of the American Heart Association's Council on Clinical Cardiology and vice-president of the Ulster County Heart Association. Two films will be shown. One on Rheumatic Heart Disease and the other, titled Pulse of Life, on the techniques involved in applying resuscitation. Also, active application of these techniques will be performed by those present on the mannequin Resusc-A-Ne.

Factfinding Tour Points Up LBJ, Fulbright Freeze

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's approval of a European-Asian factfinding tour by Sen. Mike Mansfield has raised new speculation over White House relations with Sen. J.W. Fulbright.

While Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, and four colleagues are assessing relations with European allies and probing conditions in Asia, Fulbright, the Arkansas Democrat who heads the Foreign Relations Committee, is scheduled to attend a minor conference in New Zealand.

Cites Domingo Action

Fulbright has contended that the Johnson administration over-reacted when it intervened militarily in the Dominican Republic. He has suggested a new and longer pause in North Viet Nam bombings to encourage the Communists there to negotiate. The White House has said this would do no good.

Fulbright heads a group scheduled to attend a meeting of parliamentarians in Wellington, New Zealand, the first week of December. While this may furnish valuable contacts it seems unlikely to produce any world-stirring pronouncements.

The freeze that seems to have developed in relations between the President and Fulbright after the latter's Sept. 15 criticism of the Dominican course shows no signs of breaking. Senatorial colleagues said Fulbright wrote Johnson a note while the President was in the hospital for his gall bladder operation and got back an acknowledgment from a staff member.

It was not exactly clear how the Mansfield trip materialized. But it was known that it was not authorized through the Foreign Relations Committee and that Fulbright was surprised by the announcement.

Has Been Critical

Mansfield has been critical of some aspects of Johnson's Viet Nam policy. But he has supported the President's course despite his original opposition to escalation of the war.

He said Wednesday in a statement: "To the extent that we speak abroad, it will be solely to stress the essential unity of this government in the search for an equitable and lasting peace in Viet Nam and for stable and mutually satisfying and useful relations with all nations similarly inclined."

Mansfield's group will include one other Foreign Relations Committee member beside himself, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt. Others going along are Sens. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii; J. Caleb Boggs, R-Del.; and Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine.

The extent of White House interest in the trip was indicated by the fact that the Mansfield group will travel by Air Force jet while Fulbright's delegation and another headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., were told they would have to get slower planes or commercial accommodations.

So far as we can tell, all the stars, including the sun, are made up of about the same elements that we find in the earth.

Wilson Denounces

white leaders of the central African colony to avoid illegal acts and demonstrate their loyalty by "continuing to act in a constitutional manner."

Smith's broadcast was monitored in London at No. 10 Downing Street while the British Cabinet was in session considering the crisis.

As soon as Smith made his declaration, the British governor of Rhodesia, Sir Humphrey Gibbs, announced that on instructions from the queen he had suspended Smith and all his ministers from office.

It was not immediately clear how the governor would implement the queen's instructions, however. Wilson previously had ruled out the use of British troops to nullify a declaration of independence.

Wilson, in a statement to the British House of Commons this afternoon, was to outline the steps his government would take. Although force has been ruled out, a series of political, financial and economic actions has been prepared to isolate and quarantine Smith's all-white government.

Wilson also arranged to make a nationwide television and radio address to the British people tonight.

Smith, in his broadcast in Salisbury, said Rhodesians had demonstrated their loyalty to the crown and to others in the United Kingdom and elsewhere throughout two world wars. Rhodesians, he said, had been prepared to shed their blood and give of their substance to defend their beliefs.

The Rhodesian people, he continued, had given their support in what they believed to be the mutual interests of a freedom-loving people.

He contended that the people of Rhodesia fully supported the request of their government for sovereign independence.

In Washington, a State Department spokesman said that to his knowledge the United States received no advance word on the Rhodesian action.

Rhodesia is the first British colony to declare its independence unilaterally since the American Declaration of Independence in 1776.

Smith said in his broadcast that the British government had consistently refused to accede to Rhodesia's request for sovereign independence.

Smith added that the British government had persisted in what he termed its unwarrantable control over Rhodesia—to the detriment of the future peace, prosperity and good government of Rhodesia.

It had become obvious, he continued, that the end of the road had been reached and that it was the policy of the British government "to play us along" with no real intention of arriving at a solution the Rhodesian government could possibly accept.

"We have not arrived at this decision without the deepest heart searching," he declared. The playing of "God Save the Queen" followed Smith's reading of the proclamation of independence.

Britain's Labor government had refused to grant independence to the self-governing colony until its ruling white minority agrees to guarantees assuring ultimate rule by the 4 million Africans. Rhodesia's white population numbers 225,000.

Financial and Commercial

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was irregularly lower early this afternoon in slack Veterans Day trading.

Aluminum shares showed some sharp losses following the rescinding of the aluminum price boost as a result of a government plan to release stockpiled aluminum on the market.

Brokers also cited the Rhodesian declaration of independence as a caution-breaking piece of news.

Losses of a profit or more were also taken during the morning by some of the recent big gainers among color television makers, aerospace stocks and airlines, but a number of these declines were tripped as the session wore on.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 1.39 at 949.83.

Negro Appointed To Malverne Board

MALVERNE, N. Y. (AP) — The Malverne School Board, center of an integration controversy that went to the U. S. Supreme Court, has its first Negro board member.

Appointment of an NAACP official, William H. Moody, to fill one of two vacancies on the board was announced Wednesday by Luis E. Bejarano, president of the board.

Both Moody and the other new appointee, white attorney Paul A. Stone, are pledged to back the Supreme Court ruling which upheld an integration plan ordered by State Education Commissioner James E. Allen.

The two vacancies occurred with the resignations of two board members who had criticized what they called the "dictatorial power" the court ruling gave to Allen.

War Veterans

The national headquarters of the American Legion distributed 10 million lapel pin flags for "Operation Show Your Colors."

Each pin comes with a card saying "Americans are serving the cause of freedom in Viet Nam. I wear my country's flag to show that I support their efforts."

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey laid a wreath for President Johnson on the Tomb of the Unknowns in Arlington National Cemetery across the Potomac River from the nation's capital.

In prepared remarks, the vice president said: "We are in Viet Nam to keep a commitment established by international treaty. We are there because, once again in history, it must be proved to aggressors that the price of their aggression comes far too high."

"We will remain in Viet Nam until a just and lasting peace can be established there."

Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze, speaking at a Veterans Day ceremony in Welch, W. Va., said in a prepared address that veterans "keenly understand why we will not now abandon the Republic of Viet Nam. Our veterans...entertain no doubt that we will prevail in the cause of freedom."

Nitze said American veterans have "learned in the hardest of all schools that weakness is only an invitation to attack, and that retreat can bring in its wake even more deadly dangers."

Women Lead Parade

The Anchorettes, Wichita State University's Navy women's drill team, who spent the week collecting signatures in support of U. S. servicemen, lead off a Veterans Day parade in Wichita, Kan.

Wichita Mayor William Tarrant has issued a proclamation dubbed "Operation Boost," calling for a moment of silent prayer at 11 a. m. for the success and safety of U. S. military forces everywhere.

Gov. Edward T. Breathitt leads the Veterans Day parade at Frankfort, Ky., then receives a petition in support of U. S. Viet Nam policy. The names were collected at the polls on election day last Tuesday.

Two Back . . .

stockpiles had nothing to do with the price increases.

However, at one time last week, it was reported that President Johnson was "sputtering mad" about the boosts. Johnson, who has not commented publicly on the dispute, was described by McNamara Wednesday night as being "very pleased."

"He considered it an act of industrial statesmanship — as do I," the defense secretary said.

McNamara said he and Alcoa President John D. Harper and Leon E. Hickman, executive vice president, had discussed the price boosts for three days before the company decided to rescind its increase, which went into effect Monday. The talks were initiated by the company, the defense chief said.

Roughly 2 PC Hike

The price increases were roughly 2 per cent, raising the ingot cost one-half cent to 25 cents a pound and the cost for fabricated products by an average of one cent a pound. At its recent high, the price was 26 cents a pound in 1960.

It was the second time in three years a Democratic administration battled with a metals industry.

In June 1962, President John F. Kennedy was met by a steel industry boost at a time when he, like Johnson, was trying to stabilize prices and avoid inflation. He clashed with the industry calling most of the shots himself.

In the present case, Johnson stayed in the background while top aides led the fight.

Approves Treaty

TOKYO (AP)—Japan's lower house of Parliament approved ratification early today of the treaty formally establishing diplomatic relations with South Korea.

Prime Minister Eisaku Sato's ruling Liberal-Democrats, with a majority in the 467-seat lower house, pushed the ratification bill through just after midnight. The lower house has been practically paralyzed for three days by delaying tactics of the opposition parties.

Northeast . . .

day with an industry-government group which Swidler said included some of the country's outstanding experts on electric power system operation and design to plan procedures to be followed in the investigation.

A list of 19 technical questions was sent to 21 companies providing electrical service in and adjacent to the area which was blacked out.

Asked to Provide Data

The companies were asked to provide data which could be discussed at today's meeting.

Swidler said there was no evidence that the failure might have been caused deliberately or through sabotage.

The state of Maine was virtually untouched by the Northeast power failure. An official of the Central Maine Power Co. said the system has only one tie line to a power grid linking power companies in various states and "perhaps something broke," stopping an insatiable demand from outside the state, thus saving Maine by accident.

200,000 Quit Early

In New York City Wednesday nearly 200,000 city employees were dismissed early from their jobs. Many business firms also closed early.

The result was a premature rush on subways still suffering from the power failure. Commuter trains also felt the brunt of the rush, but near normal operations were reported.

Lights in the city Wednesday night were somewhat subdued. Many familiar electric signs remained dark and some theaters did not turn on marquee lights until 7 p. m., after the peak power demand.

In Conway, N.H., it took some reassuring to convince 11-year-old Jay Hounsell that he was not to blame for the blackout.

As he walked home he idly batted hydrants and trees with a stick. At precisely 5:28 p. m. he whacked a street light pole — and all the lights went out.

Kaiser Backs Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three of the nation's four big aluminum producers backed down today in the face of stern Johnson administration opposition and canceled price increases the government had called inflationary.

The Aluminum Co. of America, No. 1 in the industry — called it quits Wednesday night by rescinding the increases announced Monday. Reynolds Metals followed two hours later.

Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp., third biggest, joined the procession midmorning today. That firm called the price rises "restorations" and said its action followed "similar cancellations by other major producers."

Long Is Elevated By Byrd Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The retirement today of Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., elevates Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to chairmanship of the Senate Finance Committee, which handles tax legislation.

Long, who also is Senate Democratic whip, took over much of the committee chairman's work in the past year or so as Byrd's health failed.

Now 47, Long has been in the Senate since Nov. 2, 1948, when he was elected to fill an unexpired term. He was re-elected to full six year terms in 1950, 1956 and 1962.

Life originated in the ocean and was about 500 million years old before moving into fresh waters and onto land, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

by ROGER E. SPEAR Investment Advisor & Analyst

Two With Fixed Assets
Is Advised on Growth

Q "We are a married couple in our late forties with two children, 3 1/2- and 5 1/2-years-old. Our assets are $16,000 in savings and $75,000 in life insurance. I make $10,000 a year. Since our money cannot grow and we know little about investments, would you advise us as to suitable growth stocks and how much we should invest?" D.M.

A I am very much pleased to read that you are well-fixed financially and particularly like your strong insurance position. This should not be disturbed. On the assumption that you can borrow on policies in the event of an emergency, I believe you should invest $12,000 of your savings in strong growth stocks which appear capable of enhancing your capital over the years ahead."

I suggest Corn Products, which should show record share earnings this year of around $2.50, and which could possibly increase its dividend. I like Honeywell—strong in instrumentation and controls for consumer as well as guided missile markets—and expanding rapidly in the computer field. As third choice, I advise Sears, Roebuck, our greatest merchandiser. Q "We have adequate insurance, an emergency cash fund, and several thousand dollars a year to invest. We have no blue chips but are interested in the purchase of some. Right now I'd like to invest in Litton Industries and American Hospital Supply. My husband is interested in Insurance Company of North America. What do you advise?" L.P.

A You have both picked excellent stocks to begin a high-grade portfolio. Why not buy some of each? Litton has had a remarkable record which seems likely to continue. American Hospital Supply leads its field, which could benefit importantly when Medicare goes into operation.

Insurance Company of North America is one of our oldest business enterprises. It underwrites almost all kinds of insurance, including life. The shares—like others of its type—have come down in price and look relatively cheap.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column. (T-M, WRR Gen. Fea. Corp.)

PSC Confident

Tuesday, but he could not say exactly where it occurred.

The Power Authority generates electricity at two plants on the Niagara and St. Lawrence rivers and sells it to manufacturing industries and utilities. Niagara Mohawk buys about 50 per cent of its output. Another major customer is Rochester Gas & Electric.

Fitzpatrick said the authority's system continued to operate throughout the black and provided full power on its lines from both major projects. Communities served directly by the authority lost no power.

Lundy reported that it was the consensus of the company representatives that there were no signs of sabotage or any other deliberate act.

Doubtful of Repeat

He said that "off-hand, with some degree of certainty, I would say that it would be doubtful that it—the blackout—could happen again." But, he added, "it could."

Pressed for comment on the location of the trouble, Lundy stuck to his general reply, "Upstate."

He noted that power companies in New York City and Long Island functioned normally in the early part of the blackout but went out of operation "because their power was being drained upwards"—that is, toward the Upstate area.

Lundy said he did not discount the possibility of human failure—such as a mistake in switching-operations along the power network.

No Switching Operations

But, Lundy reported, company officials said there were no scheduled switching — operation that might have caused the disruption.

Asked whether the commission would consider changing the grid system of power-supply and transmission, Lundy said that possibility would be explored. The grid links all seven companies and the Power Authority.

Others at the meeting included Lelan F. Sillin, president of Central Hudson Gas & Electric

State Darkened

On Black Tuesday

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The power failure that affected wide areas of the Northeastern United States Tuesday night spread across New York State in about 11 minutes, a check with the seven electric power companies showed today.

Spokesmen for the New York State Electric & Gas Corp. and the Rochester Gas & Electric Co. said their systems first experienced the blackout at 5:17 p. m. Orange and Rockland Utilities set their time at 5:19 p. m., Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. at 5:22 p. m., and Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. at 5:25 p. m.

In the New York metropolitan area, Consolidated Edison Co. reported the start of its blackout at 5:27 p. m. and the Long Island Lighting Co. set its time a minute later, at 5:28 p. m.

Demonstrator On Coast Claims She's Communist

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Bettina Aptheker, a leader of the Free Speech Movement that disrupted the University of California Berkeley campus last December, declares she is a Communist.

In a letter to the Daily Californian, a student newspaper, she said: "I have been for a number of years, I am now, and I propose to remain a member of the Communist party of the United States."

The FSM last December staged a massive campus sit-down as a demand for increased political freedom on the campus. The night of Dec. 2-3 more than 700 persons were arrested and hauled away to jail from the administration building, Sproul Hall.

Mario Savio, then leader of the FSM, demanded the right to recruit members and collect funds anywhere on the campus for off-campus political action. Savio, from New York City, has since left the campus.

Miss Aptheker, who recently married a fellow student, said in her letter Tuesday she had kept her Communist party membership secret until now because acknowledgment would have meant "cooperation with a Red-baiting attack on the FSM by helping to focus attention away from the issues raised by FSM."

Council Rebuffs Curia Again on Missionary Work

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council beat down opposition today from the Vatican Curia and voted to put missionaries in the Curia office that controls their worldwide activities.

It was the second time this week that the council rebuffed moves by members of the conservative-dominated Curia.

Various national bishops' conferences, asked to give their opinions on a document on indulgences drawn up outside the council by a group of Curia theologians, assailed it earlier this week as badly timed and unnecessary.

The council vote today dealt with a key section in the council's document on missionary activity. The passage proposes an expanded directorate for the Curia agency that runs the Church's missionary program, the office for the propagation of the faith.

Council spokesmen said the exact vote on the issue would be announced Friday, but that there had been overwhelming approval for the missionary-backed text, without the changes sought by Curia members.

Family of 4 Die In Delaware Co. Dwelling Blaze

HANCOCK, N.Y. (AP) — A family of four perished early today in a fire that destroyed their home here, southeast of Binghamton.

State Police identified the dead as James Gage, 23, a construction worker, his wife, Susan, 20, and their two daughters, Kathryn, 2, and Dianne, 1.

The bodies were in the children's upstairs bedroom. Police said the parents apparently tried to get the children out of the two-story, wooden building.

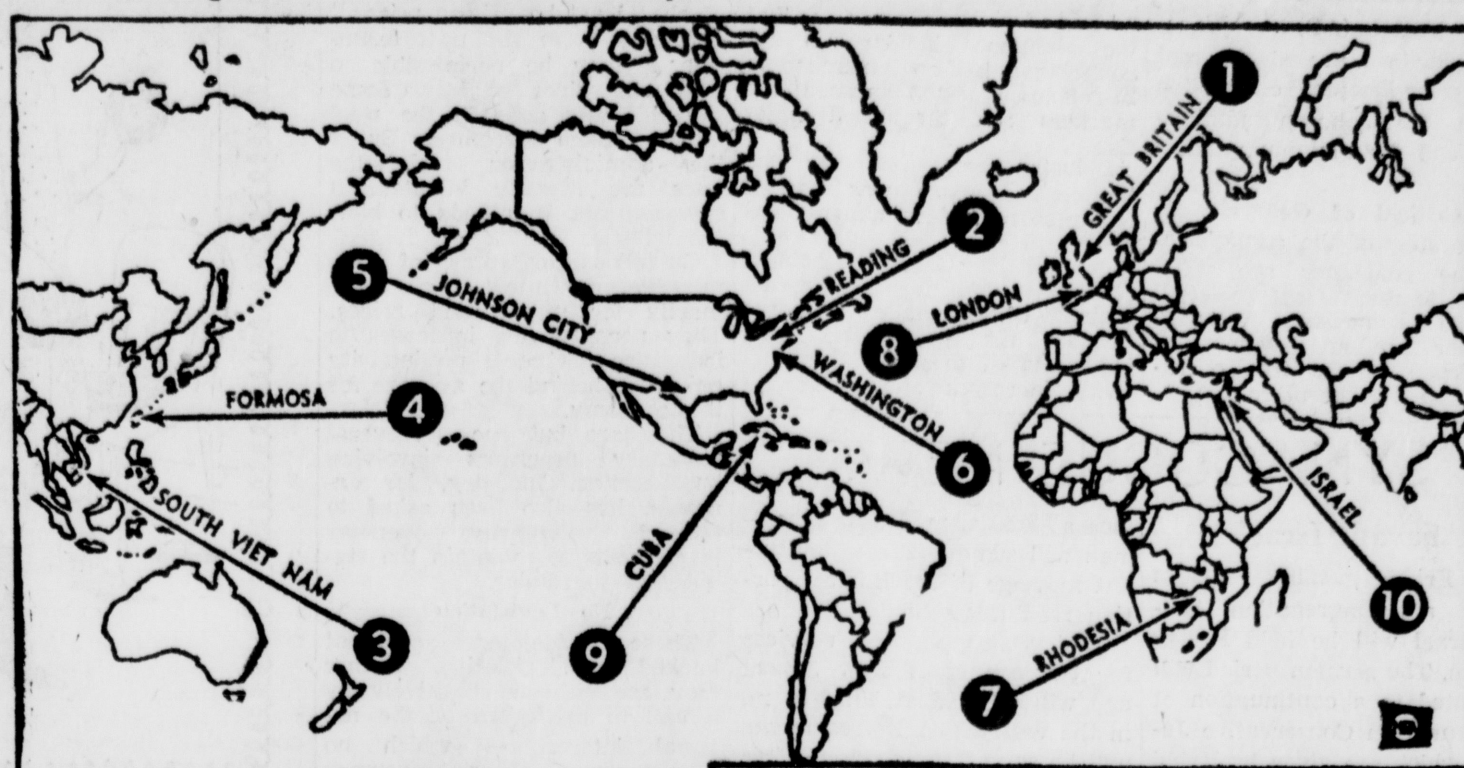

Coroner Dr. Harry Wilber said all were asphyxiated. Police linked the cause of the fire to a kerosene space heater in the living room, under the bedroom. They said the device either exploded or backed up.

Spies Throw Book at Each Other for Literary Cold War

By TOM A. CULLEN
European Staff Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LONDON (NEA) — Gordon Lonsdale, alias Konon Molody, was a Russian spy with a difference.

For one thing, he was more successful than most Soviet secret agents, managing to fool both the American and British intelligence services for 11 years before he was caught in 1961.

For another, Lonsdale was no Marxist in a hair shirt. He loved good living as much as the next man. In Britain, where he posed as a Canadian, he drove a sports Hillman Husky, was frequently seen in night clubs, belonged to the Royal Overseas League, whose patron is Queen Elizabeth.

Chunky George Raft
The dark, swarthy Russian, who looks like a chunkier version of George Raft, also fancied himself as something of a ladies' man. In his little black book, he kept the names and addresses of 23 women ranging from Daisy Wong, a Chinese nurse, to Ulla Nilsson, a beautiful blonde Swede, and including Carla Panizzi from Italy. "I particularly liked her omelettes," Lonsdale recalls.

Finally run to ground, Lonsdale was sentenced here to 25 years in 1961, was later swapped for a British businessman whom the Russians were holding. But Britons had not heard the last of Lonsdale.

Currently, Lonsdale has made a return appearance with the publication here of his memoirs titled "Spy: Twenty Years of Secret Service." After reading "Spy," one understands why the Soviets allowed it to be published abroad, for it is loaded with propaganda, some of it skillful, some of it crude. It shows every evidence of having been ghost-written by a committee.

Wedge Is Aim
Not surprisingly, the book's aim is to drive a wedge between the British and the Americans as allies. In particular, Lonsdale seeks to damage Anglo-American security arrangements by claiming he obtained American secrets that were passed to the British under defense agreements.

The memoirs, however, are being studied closely by krenologists here for indications of trends in Soviet thinking. The experts are wondering, for example, whether the Lonsdale book will touch off a war of words, with spies boasting of their exploits in order to discredit rival intelligence services.

Announced for publication in November are "The Penkovsky Papers," supposedly culled from the personal diary and espionage reports of Oleg Penkovsky, America's man in Moscow, for the Central Intelligence Agency until his arrest in 1963. Penkovsky, who was executed for espionage, was a Red army colonel with access to Russian military secrets which he shared equally with the Americans and the British.

Britons are marvelling at the ease with which Lonsdale passed himself off as a Canadian during his six years of spying in Britain. He came here in 1955 ostensibly as a student, but later developed a lucrative side line in renting jukeboxes and in selling an electronic locking device.

Meanwhile, Lonsdale set up a spy ring at the Admiralty under water weapons establishment at Portland, England. By means of this ring he was able to pass on to Russia classified information regarding the American nuclear submarine base at Holy Loch, the Decca aircraft tracking system, and the British atomic submarine Dreadnought.

Not All Work
But all was not work with Lonsdale. In relaxed moods he entertained at intimate dinners in his London flat Carla Panizzi, the pretty Italian omelette specialist, who boasted that she could cook veal 50 different ways.

When not sampling Carla's scallopini, Lonsdale was busy learning about wines, his favorite being Chateau Neuf du Pape. Once when depressed, he went out and bought himself a pair of pajamas "in a Paisley pattern of particularly revolting purple," he recalls.

Of his London flirtations, Lonsdale, a husband and a father, writes, "I take the view that a person in my job is freed from the normal ties that bind a married man."

Lonsdale's autobiography raises more questions than it answers. In fact, his whole past is surrounded by murkiness which will probably never be penetrated.

There is the matter of his nationality, for example. Lonsdale swears that he is Canadian by origin, being born in Cobalt, Ontario, in August 1924. But among the few things that are known about him for certain is that he is Russian and that his real name is Konon Molody. Also, he was born in 1922 and not in 1924, as he claims.

Then there is the question of the identity which he used during the five years he spied for the Russians in the United States. But Lonsdale is giving nothing away. "I hope that many FBI man-hours will be wasted in search of this identity," he writes.

Lastly, there is the question of his effectiveness as a spy. Again, the answer to this riddle is known only to a few, but Lonsdale's boast of having had access to the British Admiralty's top secrets has a hollow ring. Meanwhile, to most Britons, Konon Molody is the closest thing to a James Bond that has yet come out of Russia.

Fire Damages Office
A fire which started in a waste basket damaged the office of Brinnier & Larios, engineers at 79 St. James Street Wednesday afternoon. A telephone call at 2:01 p. m. was followed by an alarm from Box 3321, Clinton Avenue and St. James Street.

The fire had been doused with pails of water before firemen arrived. It damaged a chair, window frame, diplomas on a wall, a ceiling area and a rug.

December Bus Trip
A bus trip to New York and Patricia Murphy's will be held Thursday, Dec. 9 by the Wiltwyck Unit of the Home Extension Service. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Eugene Cornwell of 19 Pine Street. The bus will leave the Park Diner at 7 a. m.

Today's Business Mirror

By JOHN T. CUNIFF

AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Wage-price guidelines are at the root of the price-increase commotion between the Johnson administration and the aluminum industry.

Critical of Guides

In the view of the administration, the guidelines are route markers to the "Great Society." As some businessmen view it, guidelines are an unwarranted interference in the free operation of the market place.

The administration feels that the aluminum industry in announcing a half-cent increase to 25 cents a pound crossed the markers and threatened inflation.

Industry spokesmen say the half-cent increase was needed for research, development and profits.

But, said Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers: "Under the guidelines, such industries — those with productivity increases above average — should not be raising prices." Judging from the past examples it may be permissible to cross the lines slightly. Some say this was done in the steel industry wage agreement. But if the administration feels the lines are literally violated, it now appears it intends to blow the whistle.

Guidelines, or areas of permissible movement, exist primarily for wages and prices. They permit price increases to industries whose productivity gains lag behind the average for the economy.

They are but one of several voluntary programs involving businessmen. Industry, for example, has also been asked to restrict voluntarily overseas investments to maintain the stability of the dollar.

No Legislation

These guidelines are not backed by legislation. Rather they are enforced positively by a call to patriotism or the national interest — which no manufacturer of a consumer product can ignore — and negatively by the ominous threat of hard legislation.

In the case of aluminum industry, enforcement of the guidelines was given added impact by the fact that the federal government is the industry's biggest customer and potentially its biggest competitor.

Some labor leaders as well as businessmen have criticized the guidelines as unworkable and inequitable. But most criticism comes from businessmen and bankers, such as David Rockefeller, president of the Chase Manhattan Bank in New York.

"I fear we are in danger," he said. "Of backing inadvertently into a managed economy and I am convinced this is not the high road to the good life. The forces of the market place can be blunted by over-regulation."

SYNAGOGUE NEWS

Ahavath Israel

Late Friday evening religious services at Congregation Ahavath Israel will be held Friday at 8 p.m. The sermon period will be devoted to a continuation of the lectures on Conservative Judaism, which are given by Rabbi Harry Z. Schechtman. This Friday he will continue with an important background factor in American Jewry, and begin a discussion on the ideology of the movement. An Oneg Shabbat will follow in the vestry hall at which time an open forum will be held on the lecture. All may attend to learn about this important phase of the development of this great religious movement in American Jewish life.

Saturday religious services begin with the preliminary service at 9 a.m., and the regular service at 10 a.m.

He now teaches speech and philosophy at Wichita State University.

Princess to Get Wild West Look

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Britain's Princess Margaret gets a look at the stark beauty of the old West today — and probably a kitchen refrigerator where an invitation to her wedding once was stored.

The princess and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon, arrived Wednesday from Los Angeles for a 4½-day rest to break up their three-week tour of the United States.

No trace of the laryngitis that plagued her in smoggy Los Angeles was present when she made a planeside speech at Davis-Monthan Air Force Base.

Waiting at the base along with Gov. Sam Goddard were her host, Lewis Douglas, and his wife. Their daughter, Sharmen, and Princess Margaret became close friends when Douglas was ambassador to Great Britain in 1948-50.

Douglas invited 200 neighbors, business acquaintances and old friends to a cocktail party Wednesday night at the picturesque Arizona Inn to meet the royal pair.

"She's a darling," said a guest as the princess made the shortest social stop of her trip so far — 45 minutes.

As Princess Margaret circulated among the guests, someone splashed a drink on her beige, chiffon dress.

"I got wet, did you?" she said with a smile.

After the party, the Snowdons returned to the Douglas home for a quiet dinner.

For most of her trip, the princess has been nearly the last to leave a party, saying once of Sharmen, who was encouraging her to get a little more rest: "She's a bit anxious, isn't she?"

"Tucson is the place the princess really planned her trip around," said an acquaintance. "She's really wanted to come here for years, ever since Sharmen first told her about it."

So close are the princess and the Douglases that when they did not reply to her wedding proved this anew. The metropolis wasn't left in total darkness. It was lit by a warm glow.

On ordinary days this titan of cities is made up of eight million crowded individual human islands, most of whom are indifferent to each other and dwell in a protective, shell-like isolation.

If they have private woes, they generally bear them alone. Each has his own ambition or goal, and sometimes each feels like all the other 7,999,999 people are getting in his way. So they step on each other's toes, and race against each other for taxis, parking spaces, department store bargains, theater tickets, and subway, bus or train seats.

The unofficial policy is "devil take the hindmost." If a stranger starts to speak to them on the sidewalk, their first reaction is one of suspicion: "What is this guy trying to get from me?"

It is this attitude that gave rise to the oldest cliché about New York City: "It's a great place to visit, but I sure would hate to live there."

But when general trouble comes, a truce is called here in the routine strife. The prisoners of the concrete and high glass canyons realize how much dependent on each other they really are.

The herd then becomes a real herd. Instead of seeking petty disadvantages, people help each other. Sharing a new discomfort brings them together in a new camaraderie. Grumpiness is replaced by a feeling of genial good will. The complainer is laughed out of face.

Cite 1888 Blizzard

It was that way during the famous blizzard of 1888. It was that way during the record two-foot-plus snowfall of 1947. And it was that way during the great blackout of 1965, when most of the lights went out, subways stalled, and even the television sets went blank.

When a power breakdown spread a deepening pall across the metropolis, the commonplace became an unknown. The city turned into one vast friendly neighborhood, lit only by car lights, matches, candles, flashlights that roved like fireflies, and a big full mellow harvest that shone like a blob of butter.

Everybody had an eerie or comic adventure. They climbed up and down inky stairwells.

Stranded employees in lofty skyscrapers joked and told stories, played cards by candlelight, bunched down on office couches.

Heaven only knows how many stenographers got kissed in darkened corridors by junior executives who never even knew their first names before.

For days people will be telling each other their experiences, feeling a kindling warmth that all feel who have met trouble together.

But gradually the warm human glow will evaporate and they will become private islands again as the routine frictions of the commonplace wear them apart.

In a way, it's a shame that only in common danger do we appreciate our mutual need for one another.

Hints From Heloise

by Heloise Cruse

Dear Heloise:

What in the world is a plumber's friend, and why should I buy one?

A plumber's friend (I am guessing where it got its name) is really everybody's friend, and ordinarily what is used to unstop clogged drains. It has a wooden handle attached to a rubber suction cup.

I suggest that housewives buy one (they cost very little) at your supermarket, hardware or dime store.

The short-handed ones are best for us because, besides being cheaper, they have many household uses other than those for which they were intended.

We all have a few things (like our husbands' or children's socks) to wash out during the week, and don't like to "fire" up the washing machine and waste all that water for just a few items.

Here's where our plumber's friend comes in:

Just put the sock (or whatever) in the sink, wash basin, or waste basket, add water and detergent, and squish them up and down with the plunger. Rinse them the same way.

Socks should be washed in water heated to at least 140 degrees, and wives (or bachelors, for that matter) don't want to stick their hands in water that hot.

So . . . let the plunger do the work.

Fantabulous!

I also recommend that, after buying one of these gadgets, that you take a paring knife and make three or four V-shaped cuts on the top of it. This will let the soiled water (which you are plunging) escape as you push down on it. Then, clean water will come into the clothing as you pull up on it.

In addition to washing the socks, this gadget is excellent for washing curtains, underwear and baby clothes that cannot be put into the washing machine, or anything else that must be handwashed.

Never put your hands into hot water and detergent suds if you can avoid it. We can't buy those "hands-men-love-to-touch" at any price — but everybody can afford one of those little "friends."

Why not run (don't walk) to your nearest store and buy one? You'll find it to be one of the most valuable friends you have. I sure do.

Dear Heloise:

This is in answer to the "Homemaker's" inquiry about getting things done without the help of the man of the house.

She is not alone in her plight! Our coffee klatch hasn't found a way to get hubby "off the couch," but we have found a way to "get things done":

Over coffee one morning, as we were discussing the problem, we came up with a very bright idea—we formed a club which we call WWDIY (Why wait, do it yourself!).

We collect no dues, hold no regular meetings, and the recipient of our services foots the bill.

If one member of the club wants her kitchen painted, she throws a party, buys the paint, etc., and the club goes to work.

The same procedure is followed when another member has a job she wants done.

Need I say—the membership of the club grows by leaps and bounds!

Katrine Juniors Receive Badges

Junior Girl Scout Troop 35, sponsored by the Lake Katrine Parents-Teacher Club, held its first achievement night of the year recently.

The following badges were given in recognition of the girls' achievements:

Art in the Round, Pat Sande; Health Aid, June Woltersteig; Backyard Fun and Troop Camp, JoEllen Dufresne; Gypsy, Kathy Tatarzewski; Book, Kathi Castle.

The Cyclist badge which was earned by the Troop Activity in October was received by Jeanne Brooks, Cindy Downes, Robin Elsworth, JoEllen Dufresne, Donna Jameson, Loretta LaRocca, Janet More, Lisa Pugliese, Marie Sande, Pat Sande, Lavon Smith and Kathy Tatarzewski.

On November 11, because it is Veterans Day, the girls will meet and bake cookies for the soldiers in Viet Nam. Mrs. Hoffman, leader, will have a group at their home. The girls will bring a clipping of interest on the boys in Viet Nam and a discussion period will be held.

The girls during the next few months will be helping the librarians at the Lake Katrine School as a service to help the sponsor and also to enable them to understand the Book badge requirements.

Citizenship Is Cadettes Theme

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 60, of J. W. Bailey School, leader, Mrs. John Schlegel, had as a guest speaker Mrs. Robert Opdahl of the League of Women Voters.

The scouts are working on the "My Country" badge, one of the requirements of which is to learn about their duties as citizens. Mrs. Opdahl spoke at length on the qualifications for voters, absentee ballots, what is meant by a well informed citizenry, how citizens can keep informed and why it is important that they do so. How Girl Scouts can help in extending information to the public was also discussed at length. Mrs. Opdahl also spoke about water pollution, its causes and possible cures.

The Scouts have volunteered their services to the League of Women Voters in distributing pamphlets and other materials used to inform the public about current problems of interest to the public in general. The girls showed a great deal of interest in the talk and asked many pertinent questions.

The Ulster County Council of Girl Scouts is a participating agency of Ulster County Community Chest.

Voters were made and given to the pediatric ward at the Kingston Hospital as one of the services for the community.

Coast Guard Lieutenant (junior grade) George A. Casimir, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Casimir of Big Indian, participated in search and rescue operations for the Liberian freighter Tradeways II, while serving aboard the U. S. Coast Guard Cutter Escanaba, operating out of New Bedford, Mass.

The high endurance cutter was on Ocean Station "Charlie," approximately 1,800 miles north of New York when she received word to assist the stricken vessel, which was breaking up in the Atlantic, 650 miles north of the Azores. Merchant vessels in the area of the Tradeways II arrived on scene and began picking up survivors.

The Escanaba searched the area for seamen still missing from the freighter until the arrival of a commercial salvage tug.

Power Failure Termed Greatest Technical Breakdown in History

TORONTO (AP) — The electricity that browns your toast, cooks your dinner or sends you home on subways or streetcars went the wrong way Tuesday night. The result affected 30 million people in Canada and the United States.

Officials of the publicly-owned Ontario Hydroelectrical Power Commission, at a candle-lit interview during three successive blackouts in Toronto, told this version of how it happened:

Cites Disturbance
At around 5:15 p.m., when wives were getting supper and commuters in southeastern Ontario and along the U.S. Atlantic seaboard were starting home—there was what Consolidated Edison in New York called "an electrical disturbance" somewhere in northern New York.

A complex of interlocking power lines extends from Quebec through Ontario to power companies of New York State, and from there south to the Gulf of Mexico and west to Montana.

This interconnection complex, called a grid, carries electric power from the rivers of northern Quebec and Ontario, from steam-operated power plants in Ontario and hydroelectric plants nesting on both sides of the Niagara River and in New York State. Power is traded back and forth among the companies, and regions as demand rises and falls.

The system is called CANUSE, or Canada-United States-Eastern interconnection. When one link in the system needs power, it draws it from another.

Blame Niagara?
Tuesday evening power was moving into Ontario through Niagara Falls from Upstate New York when something happened in a high-voltage line south of Niagara Falls, N.Y.

Then, Ontario hydro officials said, "a surge of electricity" sent power flowing into the system at Cornwall, Ont.—in the opposite direction to the normal flow at that hour. Unchecked, this could have caused enormous damage to distribution equipment.

Technicians at the Richview control center in suburban Toronto spotted the reversal and pulled switches that isolated southern and eastern Ontario from the interlocking grid.

That's when the power was cut off from various centers in Ontario. The blackout lasted from five minutes to two hours in some places because it takes time for generating units that are in reserve to build up to the power demand.

Surged Back
The surge of power from New York entered the Canadian system at Cornwall through an interconnection, flashed across the southern Ontario network and back into New York through an interconnection at Niagara Falls, officials said.

When Ontario was disconnected from the grid, steam-powered generating systems near Toronto and Windsor, Ont., were put into operation to produce needed power.

Ironically, the interlocking power grid designed to assure a supply of electricity in an emergency helped spread the blackout over a huge area, including all of New York City. About one-fifth of the U.S. population was affected.

The blackout spread could not have occurred 20 years ago when power lines were not so united. The lines today are joined as tightly as telephone lines.

Cut Off Necessary
In New York a spokesman for Consolidated Edison Corp., said New York City might have been spared if that utility could voluntarily have released itself immediately from the interconnection.

The blackout result was, by many standards, the greatest technological breakdown of modern times.

The interconnected system is the epitome of sophisticated technology. It operates almost automatically. Because its parts were so united, they dropped all together. Like a tree felled by an ax.

This system is part of a nationwide power grid in which 97 per cent of the electric industry's generating capacity is joined in five large networks.

The U.S. government, mindful that the nation's electricity needs have doubled every 10 years for the past 80 years, has encouraged and prodded utilities to intertie in this manner.

Today government and utility engineers in Canada and the United States are trying to find out how to keep the system from failing again and spreading chaos.

No-Trump Call Has Advantage

By JACOBY & SON
1965 Vanderbilt Cup Winners
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

The greatest advantage of the artificial two no-trump response to show the equivalent of a forcing raise of partner's major suit opening is that it gives an extra round of bidding to explore slam possibilities.

The opener rebids three of his suit with a good hand and no singleton, and to four of his suit with a bad hand and no singleton. When he has a singleton he shows it irrespective of the strength of his hand by bidding three of the singleton suit.

South's three spade rebid was right up North's alley. North had a very sound hand and the one weakness was three little spades. When South showed a singleton in that suit, North was ready for the Blackwood routine. Then after South showed two aces and two kings, North was able to bid the grand slam with complete confidence.

How did North know that his partner held the right two kings? Because South had shown a singleton in spades by his three spade bid and the ace of spades when he showed two aces. Hence, South's singleton spade was the ace and he could not

Woman Is Hurt, Driver Cited for Crash in Lloyd

A 69-year-old woman was injured and a motorist was cited for a motor vehicle violation as the result of a three-car collision on Route 9W at the intersection of Route 299, Town of Lloyd, shortly before 5:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Trooper J. F. Czaplinski of the Highland substation said William Daniels, 76, of Youngsville, was making a left turn from Route 9W when his car collided with a vehicle driven by Lester Hoffman, 31, of Rhobela Drive, Toughkeese. Daniels' car continued on and reportedly collided with a sedan operated by Kenneth Geary, 55, of 66 Hoffman Street, city, which was stopped.

Trooper S. T. Roberts summoned Daniels to appear at a later date before Justice of the Peace Linn Baker, Town of Lloyd, on a charge of failure to yield the right of way.

Rose Poley, 69, of Youngsville, a passenger in Daniels car, was treated at Vassar Hospital for

WALK SAFELY

More than 8,000 pedestrians die each year in traffic.

Cross only at crosswalks after looking both ways.

At corners, walk with the light, be alert for cars.

Walk facing traffic in rural areas. Give approaching cars plenty of room.

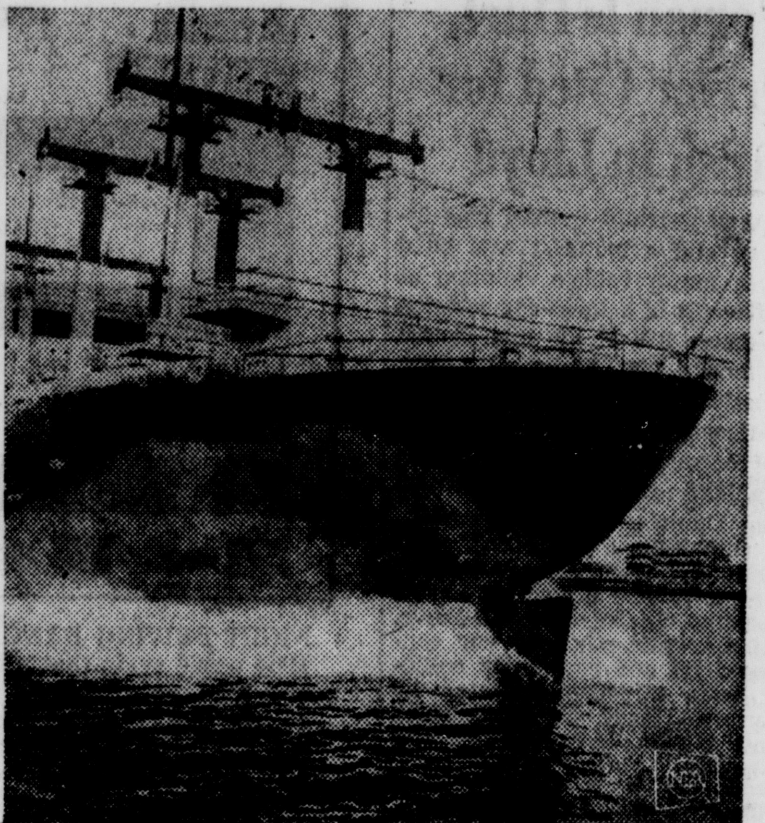

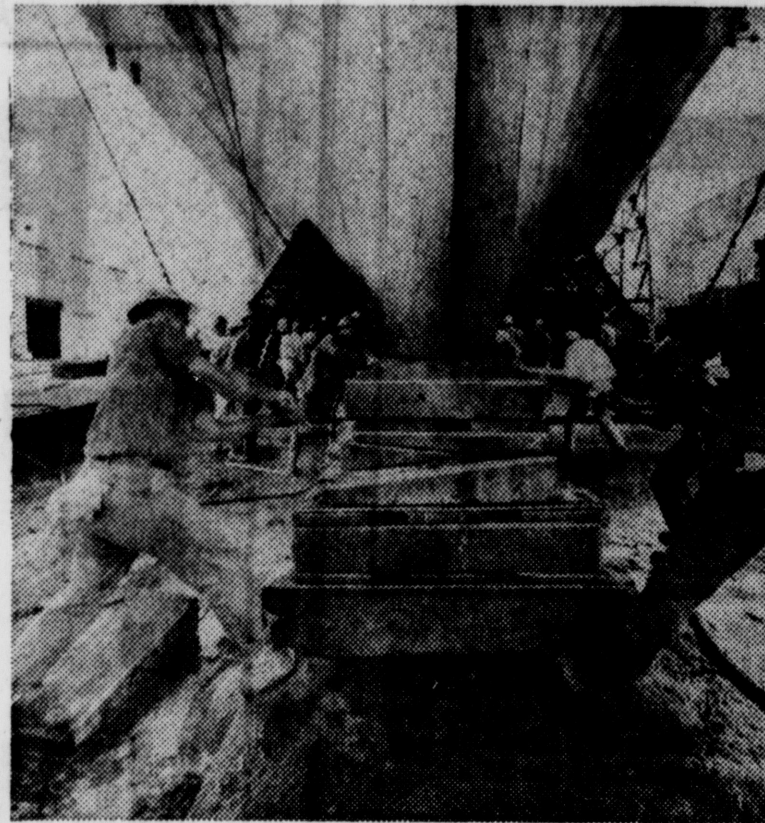

Be careful at night. Wear light-colored clothing, stay in lighted areas.

Independence Has Instant Death in Nuclear War Heads

BY TOM TIEDE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
CRUISING IN THE CHINA SEA (AP)—The USS Independence, largest aircraft carrier committed to the Viet Nam war, is floating with enough nuclear war heads in her hull to blow Hanoi to hell.
The officers know it. Their men know it. Probably, a lot of wives and sweethearts know it. Nonetheless, proving it is a bomb of a different megaton. This is one of those closed-mouth and openface military secrets about which, with an elbow jab and a wink, the brass will say nothing.
A jittery ensign, looking faint, refers inquires to a lieutenant. The lieutenant to a commander and the commander to the captain.
And the captain? "I neither confirm nor deny the rumor of nuclear weapons," says Independence skipper John Kennedy. "But, of course, everyone is free to draw his own conclusions."
And everyone does, from cooks to coxswains.
Common Knowledge
"I think it's pretty much common knowledge," says one 18-year-old. "It's impossible to keep a thing like that secret among 4,200 men who live in close contact for six or seven months at a stretch."

Another enlisted man adds: "I walk by the guards every day and never pay them no mind. Sometimes I've thought about the things down there . . . naturally. But it don't worry me none."
And a third man: "Have I seen them? Are you kidding? In the first place, from what I heard, they look just like any other bomb and so you could trip over one in the mess hall and not know it."
"And, anyway, they don't let nobody but a few special people down there into the arms room. The captain himself, I hear, has to get permission to enter that part of the ship."
That the big bangs are here is indisputable. What kind and how many, however, is conjecture.
The probability is they are low-yield, lightweight bombs, the type most jet craft aboard would be capable of carrying, like conventionals, under their wings.
Deadly Dozen
There are a dozen Phantom F-4s in one of the ship's squadrons, for example, and each is capable of hauling up to 12,000 pounds of nuclear explosives. Simple addition indicates that this deadly dozen alone could load up with 72 tons of atomic energy.
Phantoms fly at least twice, and probably nearly thrice, the speed of sound.
Hanoi, then 500 miles distant, is only minutes away.
But, having nukes and using nukes are separate considerations. Some feel they are for show and some for blow.
"I say use them if we got them," a 10-year Navy salt mumbled over a pair of hose he was washing in a sink. "This thing could drag on for years the way it's going. What are we going to do, drag on for years with it?"
A sock-scrubbing companion, took exception:
"That would be stepping over the line. That's aggression. We wouldn't have a friend left in the world even if we were successful."
"So, what's new? How many friends we got now?"
"Well, at least we can hold our heads up high."
"Ha! No wonder we're always getting them shot at."
"Look, do you know what the bomb can do? I read someplace that in a full atomic war, 90 million Americans would die the first day. 90 million! You want that?"
"No, I don't want that — my wife's mother maybe, but nobody else."
Hanoi Knows It
The argument raged, most likely to end in a soap suds fight. Men at war, like men at peace, cannot be serious for long. Chow call puts a new light on dark thoughts. One worries more about the quality of the evening movie. Politics inevitably give way to poker.
But deep in the intestines of this massive ship is hell's fire. And everybody know it. Including, to be sure, Hanoi.

THE BIG SLIDE—Don't think it's easy to launch a ship. The delicately planned engineering feat was again successful as the SS President Harrison hit the water for the American President Lines at a San Diego, Calif., shipyard. At the left, workmen hammer out the keel blocks. At right, D-O-W-N she goes. The President Harrison will be in trans-Pacific service in 1966.

Speaker Named For Panel on Discrimination

Theme of a public meeting to be held by the Kingston Commission on Human Relations on Thursday night, Nov. 18, at St. Mary's School Hall will be set by Milton L. Reynolds, speaking on Discrimination: What Is and What Isn't.
Reynolds, a staff planner in the IBM Development Laboratory at Kingston, holds degrees from North Carolina College and has taught mathematics at the University of Maryland. He has also served as a visiting instructor at the State University College at New Paltz. A communicant of Kingston's First Presbyterian Church, he is also a member of Troop 19 Boy Scout Committee and a former president of the Meagher School Parent-Teacher Association.
In addition to Reynolds, qualified authorities will speak briefly on education, jobs and job opportunities and housing, followed by short workshop sessions for audience participation on each of the subjects. The entire free public meeting, designed to assess any minor problems in Kingston's human relations pattern, is part of the educational program of the commission which reaches for an objective of abolishing, in fact and in public opinion, the belief that there are any "minority" groups as such within the community.

A motion picture, The Road Ahead, produced by the Urban League in cooperation with the New York Telephone Company, will be followed by refreshments.

The famous order, "You may fire when you are ready, Gridley," was given by Commodore George Dewey to Charles V. Gridley, captain of the United States Navy flagship Olympia, at Manila Bay during the Spanish-American War.

"No, I don't want that — my wife's mother maybe, but nobody else."

Woodstock Rotary Club to Observe Foundation Week

The Rotary Club of Woodstock will join more than 12,000 other Rotary clubs in 128 countries and geographical regions in participating in the world-wide observance of "The Rotary Foundation Week," Nov. 14-20, according to club president, Matthew E. Fuzo.

The idea of this special week is to focus attention on the objective of the Foundation, which is to promote understanding and friendly relations between peoples of different nations through tangible and effective projects, he said. This year the Foundation has provided nearly $1 million dollars for support of its program, including the recent expansion of activities.

These new activities, to be carried on in addition to the already well-established Rotary Foundation Fellowship program, include grants for study teams of young business and professional men to be exchanged between Rotary districts in different countries, awards to young men to enable them to take technical training in other countries, and consideration of financial support for new experimental projects to further international understanding.

First awards have already been made for 34 Rotary districts to exchange study teams over a two-year period. The initial grants under the technical training program are scheduled for 1966. The Rotary Foundation's Fellowship program provides for one year of graduate study at a university in another country. Since 1947, the program's inaugural year, nearly 2,000 awards have been made to young people from 70 countries who have studied in 58 countries. Fellowship awards have amounted to over $4.5 million during this time.

Woodstock Rotarians will celebrate the "Week" at their meeting Monday, Nov. 15, at 7 p.m. at Deanie's Restaurant. A Rotary Foundation student has been requested from the district to be a guest of the club.

Rotron Officers, Directors Named

At the annual meeting of stockholders of Rotron Manufacturing Company, Inc. held at the general offices of the company, Constant van Rijn, Christine van Rijn, G. Edward Kattel, Houston E. Landis Jr., and William C. Miller as directors of the company. Mr. Kattel is the executive vice-president of Marine Midland Grace Trust Company of New York and Mr. Miller is a partner of W. E. Hutton & Co., investment bankers, in New York City.

In addressing the stockholders on the company operations Mr. van Rijn stated, "The figures are good and begin to reflect the results of a concentrated effort to improve our position. This effort has been and continues to be directed toward a stronger market position by broadening our product line and by improving the value of our products. Hand in hand we have improved our manufacturing efficiency. We have also strengthened our marketing organization." Mr. van Rijn also announced that sales for the first quarter ended September 30, 1965 were $2,815,000 compared with $2,107,000 a year ago. For the second quarter he estimated sales of $3,200,000 compared to $2,470,000 in the prior year.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors following the stockholders meeting, officers of the company were re-elected as follows:

J. Constant van Rijn, president; Houston E. Landis Jr., executive vice president and treasurer; Paul M. Beard, vice president, sales; Alexander Hossack, vice president, engineering; Charles E. Raible, vice president, manufacturing; William J. McGuire, vice president, Rotron Controls Division; O. A. Van Dooren, secretary and assistant treasurer; Christine van Rijn, assistant secretary; Edwin Ward, assistant treasurer.

In recognition of the earnings and the continued growth of the company the board of directors also declared a stock dividend of 4 per cent on the outstanding common stock of the company payable to stockholders of record at the close of business on November 12, 1965. The dividend is payable on December 3, 1965.

New Laws Explained

By Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick

Elementary and Secondary Education Law

Ulster County, like the rest of the country, is being hurt by its serious school dropout problem.

Looking at the statistics on our national educational problems is like looking at the dark side of the moon. Of the seven million young people between the ages of 16 and 21 who are out of school, three million dropped out before finishing high school.

Four out of every 10 dropouts still living at home are from families with less than $3,000 annual income. Unemployment among young people with an eighth grade education or less is four times the national average. Aside from the lives that are wasted, an inadequately educated population is a costly drain on the economy.

The Elementary and Secondary Education Law takes aim at this problem. It will aid approximately five million educationally deprived children from low income families, and authorizes grants to school districts in approximately 95 per cent of the nation's counties. The bill provides the following:

Provisions Listed

1. Aid to school districts — Ulster County has received a tentative allocation of $610,253 under this title. The bill establishes a three-year program of federal grants to states, to aid school districts with a minimum enrollment of 100 children (or 3 per cent of school enrollment) from families with annual incomes of under $2,000. Grants during the first year will total $75 million. Funds will be allocated on the basis of each state's average expenditure per school child.

2. School libraries and textbooks — A five-year program ($100 million in the first year) of grants to states to purchase library and textbooks for public and private schools.

3. Supplementary Education — A five-year program to establish model school program and community - wide educational centers to provide services which schools are unable to provide. The first year allocation is $75 million.

4. Regional Education Laboratories — A five-year program of grants to strengthen state departments of education. The first year allocation is $17 million.

Carefully Written

This law was carefully written to prevent the Federal Government from exercising any control over education itself. The law establishes the basic programs outlined above, and provides the money. But the initiative for these programs, and the responsibility for their execution, comes from the local school districts and the individual states.

Therefore, let me emphasize the importance of local initiative on the part of school ad-

Capitol News in Brief

New in Brief

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dent appears in the aluminum controversy between industry and government.

For one group of senators, an Air Force jet supplies the transportation. Two other delegations travel by propeller aircraft.

Change of Mind

ALUMINUM: Two of the nation's top aluminum producers—Alcoa and Reynolds Metals Co.—have had a change of mind. They're rescinding their week-old price increases.

The Alcoa decision was the first, and it came via a news conference called by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

Just last Saturday, McNamara announced that the federal government planned to release 200,000 tons of its surplus aluminum stockpile next year.

ministrators, school boards, P.T.A.'s, and citizens groups. So far, very little has yet been done nationally in establishing the community educational centers, regional laboratories, and other aspects of the program. The field is wide open.

Local communities who wish to get into these programs should get detailed information by immediately contacting the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (Commissioner of Education) or my office.

(Next week—What the New Social Security Amendments Mean to Ulster County.)

At the same time, Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors, called the industry price boosts inflationary.

At his latest meeting with the press, McNamara, hailed the Alcoa decision as patriotic and said he thought the government might be able to cut its planned aluminum reduction.

Solons Heading Out

SENATORIAL TRIPS: Three groups of senators are headed overseas on special missions—but their mode of transportation will be different.

A team of five headed by Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield will travel by Air Force jet as it visits trouble spots in Europe and Southeast Asia.

Delegations led by Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D - Ark., and Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., will fly in C-119 propeller - driven transports.

Both Fulbright and Morse have been at odds with the administration over U.S. policies in Viet Nam. And Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, also has been critical of U.S. action in the Dominican Republic.

Capital Footnotes

The United Auto Workers Union (AFL - CIO) is sending a fully equipped pediatric clinic to South Viet Nam. Secretary of State Dean Rusk leaves Saturday for the inter-American ministerial meeting in Rio de Janeiro.

Pacifist Dead, Was Torch in Protest to War

NEW YORK (AP)—A young pacifist has died of burns 33 hours after he doused himself with gasoline and set himself afire in front of the United Nations in a protest against war.

Roger LaPorte, 20, who was burned on 95 per cent of his body, was the third American to die of self-inflicted burns this year in pacifist demonstrations. LaPorte died Wednesday.

Bellevue Hospital's Roman Catholic chaplain, the Rev. Alexander Busuttill, said LaPorte was "clear and expressive as he received the last rites of the Church in which he once sought priesthood."

Goodell Praises Jamestown Power, Only Brief Dip

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., said today this week's power failure proved that Jamestown, N. Y., has the most reliable power supply in the northeast. He invited industry to look into the advantages of locating there.

Jamestown had only a momentary dip in power when the northeast was blacked out Tuesday night, Goodell said. The city switched to local power provided by the Municipal Board of Public Utilities.

"We welcome to Jamestown anybody who'd like to come in out of the dark," Goodell commented.

Wayne Newton Big Boy Now—Hecklers Cinch

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Wayne Newton's first job in show business was a Christmas show for a labor union in his native Roanoke, Va. He was 10, and the fee amounted to $10, which he split with his brother.

He's a big boy now, all of 23, and he estimates his earnings so far this year amount to three-quarters of a million dollars. That doesn't include November and December.

How did the young Virginian come so far? By learning his trade, which is singing and playing everything from banjo to violin. He acquired his education in the toughest school for an entertainer: the Las Vegas lounge.

The lounges of that gold-rush town are people-packed boxes where performers must compete with the rattle of dice and ice cubes. "Hecklers? I've seen every kind," says Wayne. "When I get them in clubs nowadays, it's a cinch for me to handle the situation."

Newton recently completed a two-week run at the Cocoanut

THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME Registered U. S. Patent Office by JIMMY HATLO

Grove, a booking he had avoided for three years because "I wasn't ready." On opening night there could be no doubt that he was ready. Many leading figures in the entertainment world gave him a standing ovation at the close of his power-charged act.

I talked to Newton before he left town and found him to be respectful and earnest. Like Elvis Presley, he addresses reporters as "sir." Like other multitalented stars who become big enterprises — Newton has two corporations, is forming a third — he refers to his performing self as "we."

"We got our first big break when Jackie Gleason saw us in Phoenix and put us on his television show," he will say. "He put us on his show 12 times."

Reports Surfer Shipped Self in Box From Sydney

SAN FRANCISCO AP — The FBI says a Berkeley, Calif., surfer shipped himself in a box from Australia to California.

Assistant U.S. Atty. David Urdan authorized issuance Tuesday of a summons calling Richard Earl Fox, whose last known address was in Berkeley, to appear on stowaway charges Nov. 24.

FBI agents said Peter and Philip Jackson told authorities in Sydney, Australia, they put Fox in a box and shipped him air freight to the United States.

San Francisco Airport employees noticed that the crate, shipped via Qantas Airways, was considerably lighter than its original weight and inside was scribbled a note: "Thanks for the ride, Dick the Fox."

The box had been shipped collect to a non-existent address in San Francisco. Charges on the shipment—$447.54.

Law Has Teeth: Deputy Bites Man In Escape Attempt

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The law has teeth in it, a Los Angeles youth has learned. What's more, they bite.

Sheriff's Deputy William Saunders said he was escorting William Maddox, 19, to Superior Court, where he was to be tried Wednesday on five counts of kidnapping for the purpose of robbery.

En route, Saunders said Maddox tried to grab the handcuff key. Saunders yelled for help. Saunders yelled for help. Maddox put his hand over the officer's mouth to prevent him from talking.

In the process, Maddox's fingers inadvertently landed between Saunders' teeth.

The deputy clamped down. Maddox screamed. Reinforcements arrived and Maddox was subdued.

Actor Under Knife

BOSTON (AP)—Actor Claude Rains spent his 76th birthday Wednesday recuperating from surgery at New England Baptist Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said Rains underwent an abdominal operation Monday to prevent internal bleeding. He was reported in satisfactory condition.

Ruling Reserved On Buckley Move For Trial Shift

NEW YORK (AP)—State Supreme Court Justice Edward R. Dudley has reserved decision on a motion to shift outside of New York City the trial of two libel suits pending against William F. Buckley Jr.

Buckley, Conservative Party candidate for mayor in the Nov. 2 election, contended through counsel Wednesday that he could not get a fair trial in the city because of the "current temper of opinion."

Buckley's lawyer, G. Dickerman Williams, said the temper of opinion arose from comments by newspapers, radio and Buckley's opponents in the recent campaign.

Williams suggested that the trial, scheduled for Nov. 15, be moved to Dutchess County, of which Poughkeepsie is the county seat.

Ready With Hearings

HARRISBURG (AP) — The chairman of a special House committee created to investigate the morale and administration of the Pennsylvania State Police indicated today he is ready to start public hearings within the next two weeks.

Rep. Rowland G. Leach, D-Beaver, named chairman of the committee over a month ago, called a meeting for next Tuesday to organize hearing procedures.

Escapes Injury

Charles Salisbury, 23, RD 1, Woodstock, escaped injury at 1:10 a. m. today when a deer ran into the side of his car as he drove west on the Sawkill Road, according to State Trooper Norman Norman Killfoyle of the Kingston substation.

Dear Abby . . . Too Rewarding!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Do you think parents should PAY their children for getting good grades? Somehow I can't seem to convince myself that it's right, but other parents do it and get results, so maybe I'm wrong. Our son needs some sort of motivation to do better in school. Richard has as much intelligence as any of his classmates who make the honor roll, yet he barely gets by and it doesn't seem to bother him. My husband thinks we should offer him money as an incentive. Richard is only 14, but he's saving for a car. Do you think $50 for every "A" he gets and $25 for every "B" is too much?

RICHARD'S MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I think the whole idea of PAYING a child for the privilege of getting an education is "too much." First, Richard needs to learn the value of KNOWING things, not HAVING things. It's all right to "reward" a child for a job well done — but "bribing" him for doing what he should do for nothing makes no sense at all. Mediocrity, when one can do better, calls for discipline.

DEAR ABBY: I work, and live alone. I get very tired of eating out all the time, so I frequently invite a friend or two over to enjoy a home-cooked dinner with me. I appreciate having someone else to help me with the dishes afterwards, but how would you like it if your guest took the dish towel out of your hands and said, "Get out. I'm doing the work!"

There are two people who push me out of my own kitchen this way and it irritates me. Should I just go in the other room and sit down? Or should I say, "This is MY home, and if you want to HELP me, fine; otherwise YOU go in the other room. I'm staying."

IRRITATED

DEAR IRRITATED: Your "helpers" mean well. They're just a trifle heavy-handed. Tell them if they want to "help," they're welcome but YOU are in charge of K. P. in your own kitchen. And put some authority in your voice.

Marcos Maintains 434,780 Margin In Filipino Vote

MANILA (AP)—The vote total of Sen. Ferdinand Marcos reached near-commanding proportions today as counting in the Philippine presidential election passed the halfway mark.

Official totals, however, were lagging far behind the unofficial tallies, and there was no sign President Diosdado Macapagal, seeking a second term, was ready to concede.

Carrying Mate

With more than 4.5 million votes counted, Marcos' lead over Macapagal was 434,780.

The Philippines News Service's unofficial tabulation gave Marcos 2,333,031, Macapagal 1,899,245 and third party candidate Raul Manglapus 364,017.

Marcos, 48, the Nacionalista party candidate, also appeared to be crying his vice-presidential running mate, Sen. Fernando Lopez, with him.

Lopez had 2,121,654 votes to 2,085,694 for Liberal Sen. Gerardo Roxas. In the early counting, Lopez and Roxas had traded position several times.

Almost 48 hours after the polls closed Tuesday, the official Election Commission, totals were running more than 2 million votes behind the unofficial count.

Unofficial estimates said 8.5 million persons voted. The official figure has not been announced.

Many areas — particularly the province of Mindanao, where Macapagal was hopeful of large majorities — have not been heard from officially.

Engineer Denies Generator Key Failure Cause

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — An engineer has denied a published report that an "out-of-step" generator was the apparent cause of Tuesday night's power failure in the Northeast.

It was true that some generators went out of step with the system but "that was a secondary reaction," said Edward L. Hoffman, assistant to the chief system electrical engineer of the Niagara Mohawk Power Corp. Hoffman explained Wednesday that under normal conditions generators in a power system, the state, throb in unison.

An out-of-step generator produces out-of-phase current, said Hoffman, and this causes other generators on the circuit to go haywire and shut down.

"The generator around the system did get out of step," he admitted. "However, that was secondary to the main cause of the failure."

Hoffman said the initial cause still is being sought.

after the count, apparently were holding back delivery of the returns under pressure of politicians from both parties.

"There must be some monkey business," said Juan V. Borra, chairman of the election commission. "It couldn't have been a communications breakdown."

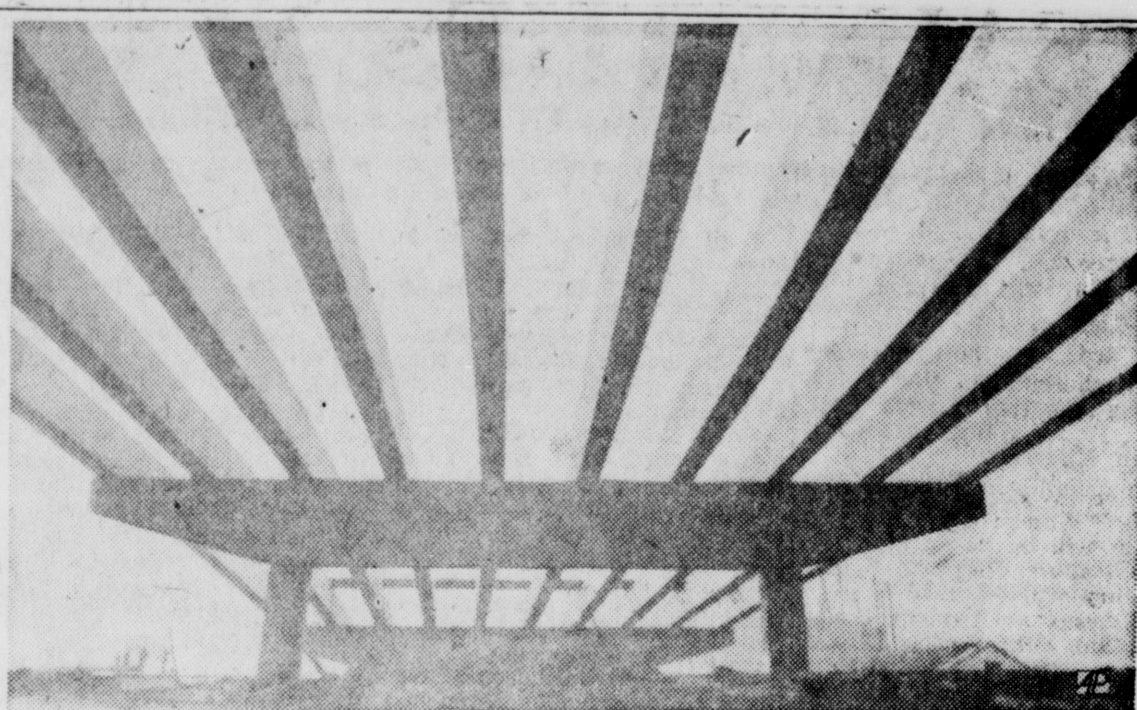

Borra ordered representatives in the provinces and local election registrars to investigate the causes behind the delay. Police were ordered to continue guarding the ballot boxes.

Bliss Leaves Today

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Republican National Chairman Ray Bliss, 57, hospitalized five days ago with chest pains and a muscle spasm, was to leave today for his home in Akron, Ohio.

His physician planned a last-minute physical examination as a precautionary measure. Bliss said he has had no further discomfort since leaving the hospital Tuesday.

Bliss became ill last Friday while attending the Western States Republican Conference. Doctors said they found no trace of any heart ailment.

LOOK OF THE FUTURE — Light plays on the beams that form the skeleton of the new flyover under construction on the Inner Ring Road in Coventry, England. Road systems are being modernized to keep pace with the tremendous increase in car usage.

The course sponsored by the ambulance service will include two-hour sessions for both men and women over 18 years old. Those wishing to take the course must register prior to Saturday, Nov. 13 by calling the ambulance service. Only those interested in taking all five lessons will be accepted.

If the present response is good, plans will be made to conduct an advanced course at a later date, according to Clifton Jones, ambulance service spokesman.

Donald McCaig Named to Head South Side Men

Donald McCaig, Saugerties fire commissioner was elected president of South Side Men's Club at the club's meeting early this week at South Side Hotel.

He succeeds Robert Reynolds who served during the past year. Others named were John Freilich, vice president; Thomas Martin, secretary; James V. Gage, who is village clerk, was named treasurer. Trustees include Vincent Ferraro, Joseph Martin and Frank Whitaker.

By a unanimous decision the club will take part in the Veterans' Day festivities as a group by joining the line of march in the parade through the Village.

It was announced the club has received a photo and a complete personal history of their adopted daughter, seven-year-old Lee Ji Ok of Korea. Lee Ji Ok's parents survived the dangers and privations of the Korean War to face many hardships in keeping their home going on the father's meagre income as a farmer.

Then misfortune struck when the father's health failed. His death left his dependents destitute. For though the mother struggled to stave off hunger she earned so little she had to watch her youngsters suffer. One day she lost heart entirely and disappeared. Outside help then had to be found for Ji Ok and her sister. Ji Ok was placed in the Taegu Foundling Home on Samduk-dong in the City of Taegu, South Korea, for care and schooling.

Ji Ok was born on August 20, 1958. She is now in the first grade and her favorite subject is singing. Her health is good and her chore is dusting. Her favorite play is with dolls. The Men's Club will see to it that Ji Ok receives a number of dolls this Christmas and a present will also be sent for Ji Ok's sister and all of the children in the Taegu foundling home.

Plans were formulated for this year's Christmas party at which time the Men's Club will again completely outfit two needy youngsters of the town. Arrangements are also being made for the third annual Old Timers Sports Award dinner to be held near the end of February. It was decided that four more "old timers" will be inducted into the local Sports Hall of Fame.

Local Lions Club Takes IBM Tour

A tour of the IBM plant at Kingston, arranged by first vice president of the Saugerties Lions Club, Stuart Buchanan, was the major feature of this week's Lions Club meeting held at the Flamingo Restaurant.

President, William D. Brinnier, presided at the meeting and headed the local Lions contingent which visited the IBM plant immediately following the dinner meeting. Buchanan and IBM representative, Sal Misasi conducted the tour through the various IBM facilities. Informative material and souvenirs of the visit were distributed. Detailed information on the workings of the IBM computers were given. Following the tour, all members joined in the IBM conference room for question and answer period headed by Buchanan.

In the absence of Lion-Tamer, Phil Cullen, Vernon Joe Benjamin fulfilled the usual duties.

In order to shorten the dinner meeting, the duties of the Tail-Twister were dispensed with, however, the Lions in attendance all made contributions to the Tail-Twister's fund, which is used for the Lions Club scholarship merit award and the Lions Club children's Christmas party, scheduled for Dec. 20.

President Brinnier reported that on Nov. 22, a program will be presented under the chairmanship of Robert Campbell in connection with the Lions sight conservation program.

On Nov. 29 a program will feature a visit from District Governor Curtis K. Snyder.

At the conclusion of the tour, on behalf of the Club, President Brinnier expressed his appreciation to Buchanan and Misasi.

Nuclear Expert Reported Missing; Delivered Data

HEIDELBERG, Germany (AP)—The U.S. Army reported today that a nuclear technician based in Germany disappeared on a trip to the United States after delivering classified material to an Army depot in New York State.

The man was identified as Chief Warrant Officer Spencer D. Harris Jr. His hometown was not immediately available nor was the site of the depot to which he delivered the material.

The widely circulated newspaper Bild Zeitung said Harris was fully informed on the location and plans for all U.S. nuclear weapons stored in Germany. It said he also had knowledge of nuclear tactics to be used in case of emergency. The Army said Harris left Germany Aug. 25 and went on leave after delivering his classified material. The Army said it could not say whether the material was papers or equipment.

Harris was last heard from Sept. 21 when he cabled for an extension of his leave. The Army said he was staying at that time at the Houston Hotel in Washington.

Harris was to return to his post at Pirmasens, Germany, Sept. 30. When he failed to return, he was listed as absent without leave.

Niagara Aquarium Gets S-A Dolphin

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—A sacred dolphin, one of a species that never has been kept alive in captivity, is at the Niagara Aquarium after an air trip from South America.

The dolphin was one of four to arrive Wednesday. The other three were pink dolphins. All were captured in the Amazon River by a five-man scientific expedition. A second sacred dolphin was caught but died of pneumonia a week ago in Vero Beach, Fla., during the first leg of the journey.

Aquarium officials were hopeful that the remaining sacred dolphin would survive the trip and adapt to the 90-degree water in the aquarium.

Both the sacred and pink dolphins are freshwater mammals accustomed to warm water. Sacred dolphins are held in awe by Amazon river natives, thus deriving their name.

international YWCA World Fellowship Week, November 14-20, Miss Louise Luther, World Fellowship Chairman announced.

Commemorated as an annual event for over 70 years in Associations around the world at this time each year, the week is a period set aside for prayers for peace and for better understanding among all peoples. In this country observances accent the work of the national Association's International Division as a means of highlighting the year-round foreign program of the YWCA of the U.S.A.

The opening local event of the World Fellowship Week's observance will be held on Sunday, November 14 at 3 p. m. at the YWCA, 209 Clinton Avenue Kingston. Guest speaker for the program include: the Rev. William Arthur Studwell, who has recently returned from India; Othman Abu Ghaida from Jordan, and Mrs. Helen Ling from Hong Kong. Mrs. Merle Unthank will be soloist for the occasion.

Other events celebrating the week will be an address given by Miss Ethel Montgomery to the YWCA Business and Professional Women's Club on Wednesday, Nov. 17. Miss Montgomery will speak about the Field Trip sponsored by the World Fellowship Committee to Clark Center and the UN.

Nationally the week will be launched with a special World Fellowship observance in the Washington, D. C. Cathedral on Sunday, Nov. 14, at 11 a. m. Speaker at that time will be the Rev. Dr. Elfan Rees of Geneva, Switzerland, permanent representative in Europe of the Commission of the Churches on International Affairs and adviser on refugee affairs to the World Council of Churches. His address will be based on this year's theme for World Fellowship, "Yes, Lord."

Attending the Washington Cathedral service will be more than 2,000 members from YWCAs in various sections of the United States and representatives of Associations from many countries overseas. Other guests will include members of the diplomatic corps, Congress, and other branches of the government and their families.

As in former years, outstanding choirs will present special music for the occasion. Highlight of the observance will be the procession of Y-Teens, teenage members of the YWCA, representing each state of the union, in a symbolic gift-bringing ceremony. The gifts will include contributions of YWCA members in the United States for strengthening World Fellowship and aiding the YWCA's work in countries overseas. At the close of the ceremony the Y-Teens, accompanied by Y-Teens of foreign YWCAs in national dress will present the gifts at the altar to be blessed.

National chairman for the 1965 observance is Mrs. R. Keith Kane, of New York City, member of the National Board of the YWCA of the U.S.A.

The work and activities of the YWCA is dependent upon contributions from the public through either the Ulster County Community Chest within the Chest area or direct to the YWCA.

Sorosis Hears Book Review

Sorosis of Kingston met Monday, Nov. 8 in the home of Mrs. H. W. Wiggins with Mrs. William Rylance presiding. The meeting opened with devotions led by Mrs. Raymond Johnson.

Members of Sorosis felt especially privileged in having Dag Hammarskjöld's "Markings," reviewed by the Rev. John Frensen. In this journal of Dag Hammarskjöld's spiritual struggle and messianic interpretation of happenings, he repeatedly wrote of the loneliness, feelings of unworthiness and frustrations that were part of his position as U. N. Secretary General.

Mrs. William McVey invited the members to hold the CARE tea in the church parlors of the Presbyterian Church. It is scheduled for Nov. 22 and members may bring guests. Mrs. Arthur Eymann announced that two foreign students attending New York State University will speak at the tea — one from Jamaica, B.W.I. and one from Malaysia.

Mrs. William Rylance read a letter about the Diamond Jubilee Year of General Federation of Women's Clubs and culminates in convention June 5-10 at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago.

The hostess served tea with Mrs. Walter Danford presiding at the tea table.

Young Adult Club

The Young Adult Club, for girls out of high school, will meet Monday, Nov. 15th at 7:30 p. m. The program for this evening will be Mrs. William J. Mathews Jr., of Woodstock. Mrs. Mathews spent some time in Japan and will show slides of her travels. This meeting is open to all young adults who are interested in fellowship and making friends. Refreshments will be served.

The YWCA is a member of the Ulster County Community Chest.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Philharmonic Will Open Its Series Here On Monday; Featured Soloist Is Named

The Hudson Valley Philharmonic Society opens its Kingston series Monday evening, Nov. 15, at 8:30 p. m. at the Community Theater. In the orchestra under direction of Claude Montoux, will play Berlioz' Roman Carnival Overture, Two Portraits by Bartok, and Brahms' First Symphony.

Composed of 80 professional musicians, almost all of whom are residents of Ulster, Dutchess and Orange Counties, the Hudson Valley Philharmonic this year is playing its 32nd season, and its 17th under the leadership of Claude Montoux. HVP was recently commended at a meeting of the American Orchestra Association at Lincoln Center, for its phenomenal development over the past six years.

The feature work of the evening will be a performance of Ravel's "Scheherazade" for soprano and orchestra. Karen Ranung will be the soloist in this colorful French work which is a favorite of hers. Miss Ranung, of Danish descent, is a native of Poughkeepsie. She first sang in public at the age of four, and continued her music studies, begun in Poughkeepsie, at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. Later she studied privately with Maggie Teyte, Conrad Bos, and Yves Tinayre in New York. It was Yves Tinayre who sang the premier performance of Ravel's "Scheherazade" which Miss Ranung will sing on Monday evening.

Following her New York debut at Carnegie Hall in 1963, Miss Ranung has been heard in concert oratorio and opera at the Rockefeller Institute and in Kaufman Hall in New York. She has performed at a number of eastern museums and colleges and has taken part in the Hudson Valley Philharmonic In-School concert series. Married and the mother of three children, Karen Ranung is also a member of the Music Department at Vassar College.

The Jan. 28th concert in the HVP series will feature Rudolf Serkin, pianist, and an all-Beethoven program.

KAREN RANUNG

Elizabeth Askue Is Named Speaker By Women's Club

Elizabeth Askue will be the guest speaker at the November 11 meeting of the Women's Club of the YWCA. The program, starting at 2:45, will feature Mrs. Askue in a series of play readings. The business meeting will start at 2:15 as usual.

Mrs. Askue was a professional actress until her children were born, starting her career on stage at the age of six. She has appeared on TV and radio as well as on stage in both Canada and New York.

Since coming to this community, Mrs. Askue has been active in Coach House Players. She was director of the Children's Theatre; is now chairman of the Play Reading Committee; and has played in many of the Coach House Productions including playing the lead in such plays as "Curious Savage," "Anastasia" and "Black Chiffon."

The Women's Club of the YWCA is open to all women in the community and meets on the 2nd Thursday afternoon of each month. Anyone interested in joining the Club is invited to attend this meeting.

St. Joseph's Altar-Rosary

The regular monthly meeting of St. Joseph's Altar-Rosary Society will be held on Monday, Nov. 15, at 8 p. m. in the new school.

After the business meeting, Lt. Lemuel Howard will talk about the problem of narcotic addiction and a film will be shown.

Refreshments will be served. All women of the parish are invited to attend.

Millbrook Lions Schedule Program By Catskill Museum

The Millbrook Lions Club will hold a dinner meeting on November 16th. It will be held at the Cottonwood Inn at 7 p. m. Speaker for the evening will be Richard Barnett, from the Department of Biology, Dutchess County Community College.

He will give both a talk and a slide presentation on "Mountain Flowers." Mr. Barnett has had wide experience in his field. He has read and taught in Minnesota, and did research this past summer with the National Atmospheric Science Research Council. His base of operations for this project was Whiteface Mountain, New York.

This program is sponsored by the Mid Hudson - Catskills Museum of Natural history, and is one of the services provided communities by this group. William Phillips, Professor of Geology at Dutchess County Community College, and a Trustee of the Mid Hudson - Catskills Museum will accompany Mr. Barnett.

Welcome Wagon Club

The next meeting of Welcome Wagon Club will be held Tuesday, Nov. 16, 8 p. m. at the YWCA on Clinton Avenue, Kingston.

A film about Juvenile Delinquency and School Dropouts will be shown by Detective Lemuel Howard of the City of Kingston Police Department.

Anyone who has received an invitation from a hostess may attend the meeting.

LEAGUE SPONSORED COFFEE PROGRAM

A festive Christmas theme was the setting at Williams Lake Hotel last week for the Holiday Decorators Coffee sponsored by the Thrift Shop Committee of the Junior League of Kingston. Approximately 150 Junior League members and their guests attended. The program was a benefit for the Junior League Thrift Shop at 45 Crown Street, this city, which is operated to help support the community and charity work of the League. Pictured at the coffee program are (l-r) Mrs. Lance Lasher, Mrs. Robert Murray, thrift shop chairman, Mrs. Charles Galyon, Mrs. Martin Tully, committee members. Others on the committee include Mrs. W. Henry Halterman, Mrs. Robert Numrich, Mrs. Ward Ingalsbe, Mrs. Elbert MacFadden, Mrs. Francis X. Tucker, and Mrs. Kurken V. Kirk.

20th Century Club Members Meet Here; Mrs. Porter Speaks

Twentieth Century Club met November 8 at the home of Mrs. Adam H. Porter on St. James Street, Mrs. W. Dale Swartzmiller presiding. A letter was read from the president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs calling attention to plans being undertaken for the celebration of the organization's jubilee in 1966.

Mrs. Swartzmiller appointed Mrs. Cloyd Elias and Mrs. Porter co-chairmen of the Christmas Cheer Committee. Members voted to continue interest in and support of the C.A.R.E. program. Mrs. Alexander Goercke gave a comprehensive report of the convention, Oct. 25 at Middleburg where Mrs. Cyrus Crounse was elected fourth vice-president of the Federated clubs.

Mrs. Porter gave the study paper for the day, "The Smithsonian Institute." Washington's venerable Smithsonian, long called the "Nation's Attic" is busily changing its image from dusty to modern, stated Mrs. Porter. "There is really no other creation quite like it, with its feet in the ice age and its head in the space age. A truly unique establishment, it actually administers 12 government bureaus; founded at Washington, D. C. for the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men, by legacy, from James Smithson, a brilliant, wealthy but unhappy British chemist. Among the many treasures and exhibits to be seen is the Freer Gallery of Art, gift of Charles Lang Freer. This famous collector was born in Kingston, N. Y., died Sept. 26, 1919 and is buried in Wiltwyck Cemetery. The Freer Gallery was opened to the public in 1923. It houses a fabulous collection of jade, bronze, lacquer, porcelain, paintings, manuscripts, pottery and sculpture. There are major groups of art objects from China, Japan, Korea, India, Iran and the Near East. The American collection includes the works of Thayer, Dewing, Tryon, and other American artists. Here is the largest collection in the world of the paintings by James McNeil Whistler."

Currently on exhibition at the Smithsonian and soon to become a part of the historical assemblage there is the outstanding Folk Art collection belonging to the late Mrs. Mabel VanAlstyne Marsh, who died at Kingston Hospital this past July 4th.

The next meeting will be with Miss Mary Ingall at Rolling Meadows, Nov. 22.

EmmaWygantSchool Honors Mrs. Gaines

The teachers, pupils and parents of Emma Wygant School met at the school Saturday evening, Nov. 6 to honor Mrs. Robert Gaines, head teacher until she resigned during the summer to move to Katonah, N. Y. More than 75 people attended.

A short program was given in which the youngest pupils acted out the story in a song sung by their teacher, Mrs. Mabelle Mix. The class Mrs. Gaines taught last year did a recitation on Thanksgiving with each pupil mentioning something for which he or she personally was thankful. They ended with thanks for the years of devotion Mrs. Gaines had given to the children as a teacher and a volunteer worker in the Association for Retarded Children.

Mrs. Helen Gardeski, past president of the Emma Wygant

Parents Club presented Mrs. Gaines with a gift and an expression of appreciation from the parents.

Movies were then shown of the Halloween party held in the school on October 29 when 35 children from the special classes in Ellenville were guests. Members of the Senior Girl Scout Troop of St. James Methodist Church provided refreshments and entertainment.

The new officers of Emma Wygant Parents Club are: President, Harry Needham; vice president, Mrs. William Carter; treasurer, Herman Arlensky; secretary, Mrs. Raymond Johnson.

Mrs. Joel Vedder, program chairman, announced the next regular meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 17. Murray Weiss, executive director of the Association for Retarded Children in Ulster County, representatives of Gateways, and a school psychologist will be present to discuss ways and means of providing a workshop opportunity for the pupils after they leave the school. Any interested person in the area may attend.

Auxiliary Group Christmas Tea Is Slated by Hospital

A meeting of the Benedictine Hospital Auxiliary was held Wednesday, Nov. 3rd in the auditorium of the nurses residence.

After the acceptance of the secretary's and treasurer's reports, standing committee reports were made.

Chairman of the Volunteers, Mrs. Charles Turck reported that volunteers in all services are needed, particularly in the Gift Shop for the next six weeks. All those wishing to assist may contact Mrs. Turck. Chairman of Ways and Means, Mrs. William Cranston, reported that the rummage sale was very successful. Mrs. James McCordie, president expressed thanks to Mrs. Angeline Carpuso and Mrs. Sue Benicase and their workers for a job well done.

Miss Margaret Finn will run a bus trip to New York City Nov. 6 with proceeds being donated to the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Joseph Matey, retiring refreshment chairman, was given a word of thanks for her cooperation during the past two years.

Mrs. McCordie reported that the Regional meetings of hospital auxiliaries was a decided success thanks to the efforts of chairman and co-chairman Mrs. George Elnterz and Mrs. J. Schuyler Schonger.

The following committees were announced: Nominating, Mrs. Martin Golden, Mrs. William Powers Jr., Mrs. J. C. Robertson and Mrs. Edward Flick; Auditing, Mrs. Ignazio Bosco and Mrs. Frank Casciaro; Decorating committee for the hospital Christmas decorations, will be announced.

President Mrs. McCordie announced that the annual Christmas tea will be held Wednesday, Dec. 1 at 2 p. m. in the auditorium of the Nurses Residence.

Awards will be presented at the tea and chairman of this event is Mrs. John A. Cooke. The Junior Volunteers will be entertained at a party in the auditorium that same evening.

Sister Mary Charles, co-administrator of the hospital, announced that plans for the new addition to the hospital will be completed in January.

The meeting was adjourned after which members and friends assisted hospital chairman, Mrs. Richard Larson in making Thanksgiving and Christmas favors for the patients' trays.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Matey.

Dr. Heinz Meng Will Address Red Hook Businessmen's Group

The Red Hook Businessmen's Association will hold a dinner meeting on November 17th at 7 p. m. The meeting will be held at Matty's Restaurant, one mile north of the village of Red Hook, on Route 9.

Dr. Heinz Meng, professor of Biology at State University College, New Paltz, will be the speaker. Dr. Meng is a member of such organizations as the American Ornithological Union and the National Audubon Society. He is also former president of the John Burroughs' Natural History Society.

Dr. Meng will show his motion picture called "Birds of Prey." This movie represents years of his photo-taking, much of it done near Ithaca. It will illustrate such things as nest building, hatching, territorial defense, and hunting techniques of these birds. Dr. Meng will bring with him much personal experience in the field, both as observer and photographer.

An extra note of interest is that Dr. Meng is planning to bring along some live birds of prey to the meeting.

MRS. FREDERICK W. REINHARDT
(Lakeside photo)

Miss Jean Mary Czapracki, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Czapracki of 28 Parkside Drive, Halcyon Park, Lake Katrine, N. Y., exchanged marriage vows with Frederick William Reinhardt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Reinhardt of Greenville, N. Y., on November 6, 1965 at 11:30 a. m. The double ring wedding ceremony took place in St. Catherine Labouré Church, Lake Katrine with the Rev. James LaBarr, assistant pastor, officiating. Mr. and Mrs. James Sweeney provided traditional wedding music.

Two altar vases of white gladioli decorated the church for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin brocade with a lace mantilla. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses.

The bride's cousin Mary Margaret Kashatus of Glen Lyon, Pa., served as maid of honor in a royal blue velvet gown. She carried a nosegay of yellow gladioli and white roses.

Serving as flower girl was the bride's sister Elaine Theresa Czapracki who was attired in royal blue velvet. Her nosegay consisted of yellow gladioli and white roses.

Charles Blenis of Greenville, N. Y., was best man. Ushers were Charles Draper of Wilmington, and Edward White of Manhasset.

A reception for 70 guests was given at The Capri in Port Jervis. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt left on a wedding trip to Bermuda. The bride wore a black watch plaid suit for traveling.

Mrs. Reinhardt was graduated from Greenville Central School and has attended Harpur College in Binghamton. Her husband is an alumnus of Greenville Central School and has a BA from St. Lawrence University. He is a past president of Tau Kappa Alpha, a Forensic honorary fraternity, and was graduated from Syracuse College of Law. Mr. Reinhardt did graduate work at the Maxwell Graduate School of Public Administration of Syracuse University also. He is a lawyer in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt will be at home at Red Mill Road, Greenville.

Personals

Miss Cheryl Ann Riggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Riggins of Codwise Street, Sunset Park, is a patient at Kingston Hospital.

Marie E. Burger, Robert Anderson Take Marriage Vows

Miss Marie Elena Burger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Burger, Route 4, Box 369, Kingston, married Robert Anderson of High Falls on Saturday, Oct. 16, 1965.

The ceremony took place in the High Falls Reformed Church with the Rev. Mr. Lake officiating. Mrs. Gladys Sutton was organist and Mrs. Mary Jackson was soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full length gown of imported lace and tulle. Her fingertip veil of French illusion with lace trim was held by a pearl studded crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and pompons.

Mrs. Warren Belmore Jr., of New Paltz, was maid of honor. She wore a gold sheath gown in crepe brocade. A matching househair crown was outlined with pearls and she carried a nosegay of yellow, white and gold mums.

Other attendants were Donna Burger, sister of the bride, and Pat Sanok of Goshen. Their gowns were identical to that worn by the honor attendant and they carried nosegays of yellow, gold and white mums.

Best man was Watler Bush of Tillson. Ushers were Donald Anderson, brother of the bridegroom, and Jeffrey Rask of High Falls.

A reception for approximately 100 guests was given at Harmony Inn on Route 32, New Paltz.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of Kingston High School and is employed in the operating room at the Benedictine Hospital. Mr. Anderson is a graduate of New Paltz High and is in the Perma-Stone business with his father and brother.

After a vacation trip south, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will reside in Lakewood Estates, High Falls, N. Y.

Mothers' Club, Immaculate Conception Parish Makes Plans

At a regular meeting of the Mothers' Club of Immaculate Conception School, plans were made for a December 9th Christmas party. The festivities will begin at 7:30 p. m. in Rainbow Inn. Reservations should be made by December 2nd with Helen Shultis. Everyone will exchange gifts.

The children's Christmas party will be held the last day of school. Mrs. L. Margioli is chairman with Ann Witkowski and Frances Scafoi assisting.

A bus trip to Yonkers Shopping Plaza with dinner at Patricia Murphy's will take place November 27.

Judith Frishberg Is Betrothed; Will Wed Attorney

Mr. and Mrs. David Frishberg of Chichester, N. Y., announce the engagement of their daughter Judith Sandra, to Yoine Goldstein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goldstein, of Montreal, Canada.

Miss Frishberg attended the Ontario Central School and was Valedictorian of the Class of 1959. She obtained her BA in Psychology from the University of Rochester in 1963, where she was on the Dean's List. She did graduate work at Simmons College, receiving a MS in Psychiatric Social Work in 1965. While at Simmons, she was awarded a scholarship. She is currently on the staff of the Mystic Valley Children's Clinic, Lexington, Mass.

Mr. Goldstein did his undergraduate work at McGill University, where he obtained his BA in Philosophy and Political Science in 1955. He was admitted to the Law Faculty of Mc-

SIDELINE VIEWS

By ED PALLADINO

Despite the fact that football news takes most of the headlines in the sports pages, the Kingston High school cross country team has been winning, without fanfare, for the past five seasons. This year has been no exception.

When the Maroon harriers swept aside Section 9 competition last week, it marked the fifth consecutive sectional championship. The team has also captured five straight DUSO titles and if they aren't records, we have yet to find any better feats.

LATEST IN A LONG LINE

John Tweedy, the Section Nine champion for two straight years, is just one of several individual Maroon stars during the past few years. He follows the likes of Jim Sims, Ray (Rusty) Peterson and Dave (Chip) Ennis.

Like his predecessors, Tweedy has had help from his teammates. Cross country championships are not won by an individual but by a team and this year's Kingston squad has the necessary balance to go with Tweedy's great individual brilliance.

Of the five championships, three came while the venerable G. Warren Kias was the coach and the last two have come under John J. Gilligan. The KHS squad, along with seven other Section 9 runners will compete in the State Meet this Saturday at Bear Mountain.

If you want to spend a pleasant morning and watch a sports event at the same time, take a ride to Bear Mountain. It's quite a thrill to see more than 150 of the best runners in the state run over a rugged 2.5 mile course.

WHY NOT SOCCER?

If Kingston High director of athletics Bill Burke has been asked the question once, it's been asked several dozen times. Burke endorses soccer at Kingston. After all, this is a fast developing sport and the school is more than big enough, enrollment wise, to handle both football and soccer.

But, where do the soccer candidates play? Where do they dress? With Dietz Stadium being used by freshman, javayee and varsity football teams as well as the cross country team, there isn't room there to play soccer.

The Athletic Field, though just a little better than adequate, will no longer be used by the high school. In fact, Burke is still trying to find a baseball field for the javayee baseball team to use.

FACILITIES ARE LIMITED

Which brings us back to the original question. Why no soccer? The reason is obvious. There is a field big enough to accommodate a soccer team. The J. F. Kennedy School field has been mentioned. That's the former Lower Hasbrouck Park. However, it isn't big enough for soccer and it's not level enough.

If anyone has suggestions to offer, we're sure that Mr. Burke will gladly listen to them. He wants soccer as much as anyone else. Just find him the facilities. He'll supply the boys.

SOME ODDS 'N ENDS

Dr. John F. Bateman, who coached Rutgers University to its first unbeaten football season in 93 years in 1961, will speak at the annual Gridiron M-Club dinner Nov. 29 for the Middletown High football team. Dr. Bateman coached at Middletown from 1940-42. . . . Since Charles Neff of Suffern resigned as secretary of Section 9, obtaining information for news releases has been like pulling eye teeth. This is just another example of the progressive growth of the section. . . . Bill Doon, Robert Spadoni and Joe Facioli of State University have been named to the Oswego State 1965 All-Opponent team. Strangely, Eugene Ventriglia was left off. That's like leaving Willie Mays off the National League all-star team. . . . Frank Fusick, former Saugerties High football ace, made the Times-Union (Albany) All-Collegiate squad. He plays at Union College. . . . Despite rumors to the contrary, Cardinal Early Military Academy will not apply for admission to the DUSO. Instead, the school will reapply to the Central section of the DCSL.

Unbeaten Shamrocks Pose Problem for KSC

The Kingston Sport Club will be on the road minus the two Big Als—Roberts and Miller—Sunday against the unbeaten Shamrocks of New York City.

The German-American League soccer contest will be played at Van Cortlandt Park, West 242nd Street in New York.

Shamrocks have won five straight matches in the League Division of the G-A and have shown a strong defense to date—only 7 goals in five contests.

Kingston boasts a 5-2 record, having scored 20 goals while yielding 13. The locals are locked in a 5-way tie for second place with 10 points.

Roberts and Miller, two of the club stalwarts, will have to miss the game because of previous commitments. Manager Hans Ulfiz and club president Kurt Schoch have been trying to come up with a couple of replacements.

In other matches this weekend, league leading College Point hosts the Lithuanians; Stamford is at West New York; White Plains at American Czechs; Spring Valley at Bavarians and Bridgeport at Kollmans.

This may or not be good for the crucial test ahead Sunday—the KSC boys are having their annual club dinner-dance Saturday night at Oehler's Lodge in Morgan Hill.

No Danger

COLOGNE, Germany (AP) — Dr. Josef Noecker, one of West Germany's leading sports physicians, said today he sees no danger to athletes in the 12-mile altitude of Mexico City, site of the 1968 Olympic Games.

Unbeaten Maine Is Closing Gap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Unbeaten Maine has closed the gap in its bid to replace North Dakota State as the nation's small-college football leader.

The Black Bears trail North Dakota State by only 18 points in the latest balloting by a special panel of 14 regional experts in the weekly Associated Press poll. Maine was 41 points behind a week ago.

In the most recent vote based on games through last Saturday, North Dakota State collected six votes for first place and 103 points. Maine polled 83 points followed by Los Angeles State 64, Middle Tennessee 59 and Long Beach State, 55. Points were awarded on a basis of 10 for a first-place vote, nine for second etc.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses, seasons and records and points:

1. N.D. State (6) 94-0 103
2. Maine 84-0 83
3. L.A. State (1) 61-0 64
4. Middle Tenn. (1) 8-0 59
5. Long Beach (1) 8-0 55
6. E. Carolina (1) 6-1 52
7. Tenn. State 6-0 50
8. Northern Ill. 8-0 41
9. North Dakota 8-1 40
10. Colo. Western 7-1 34

Phillies Name Two New Scouts

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Art Lilly, 49, Inglewood, Calif., and Wilbur Johnson, 36, Denver, Colo., have been named scouts for the Philadelphia Phillies.

Paul Owens, Phillies' farm director, said Lilly, who has been beating the bushes for nine years, the last six for the Kansas City A's will comb southern California and Arizona. Johnson, who turned to scouting after six years in the Phillies' system as a manager, will handle Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and New Mexico, Owens said.

Bridge Winners

Miss Dorothy Maroon and Mrs. John Olivet of Kingston won first place in the Saugerties Bridge Club tournament. Mrs. R. Mericle and Mrs. G. Stillphen placed second, with Mr. and Mrs. W. Welton, third. The next game is scheduled Nov. 22.

BOSTON (AP)—Willie Mays, the San Francisco Giants' great center fielder won the National League's Most Valuable Player Award for the second time Wednesday, outdistancing Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax and Maury Wills.

The 34-year-old Mays, who first won the MVP Award in 1954, was the only player named on 20 ballots cast by two members of the Baseball Writers Association of America in each of the 10 National League cities.

The former "Say, Hey" kid received nine first place votes, 10 seconds and one third in the balloting based on 14 for first, 9 for second, etc.

Ken Boyer of the St. Louis Cardinals received 243 points with 14 first place votes in winning the honor in 1964 but didn't receive a point this year.

Koufax Polls 177

Koufax, who captured the Cy Young Memorial Award as baseball's top pitcher after a 26-8 record this year, polled 177 points, while Wills, the Dodgers' speedy shortstop, drew 164.

Deron Johnson, the Cincinnati Reds' slugging third baseman, was fourth with 108 points, followed by Los Angeles right-hander Don Drysdale with 77 and Cincinnati second baseman Pete Rose with 67.

Mays became only the fifth player since 1931 to win the coveted MVP Award more than once. Stan Musial captured the honor in 1943, '46 and '48; Roy Campanella in '51, '53 and '55; Carl Hubbell in '33 and '36, and Ernie Banks in 1958 and 1959.

Rapped 52 Homers

Appearing in 157 games in a vain bid to lead the Giants to the pennant, Mays led the major leagues with 52 homers and 359 total bases. He topped the National League in runs scored with 118. He drove in 112 runs while compiling a .317 batting average.

"I think it's wonderful to be chosen with so many good ball players around," Mays said when notified of his selection by BBWAA Secretary-Treasurer Hurwitz by telephone.

"It's especially good because we didn't win the pennant although we tried very hard," he said from San Francisco. "Beating Koufax is a great thrill."

"I thought I'd be a candidate for the MVP because this was one of my best years. I didn't think I'd be left out. It's a special pleasure because the award is one every player likes to win."

Koufax and Wills, who sparked the Dodgers to the pennant and then to a seven-game World Series victory over Minnesota, each was left off two ballots. Koufax, who won the MVP Award in 1963, polled six first place votes, five seconds, five thirds, one sixth and one eighth.

Wills Won in 1962

Wills, voted the MVP Award in 1962 when he set a major league record by stealing 104 bases, received five first place votes, three seconds, seven thirds, one fifth and one seventh. Johnson, polled the two other second place votes as Mays, Koufax and Wills battled it out in the top two positions.

Johnson missed being named to two ballots, Drysdale five and Rose six. Hank Aaron, another former MVP winner, was seventh with 58 points, failing to earn a vote on seven ballots, while National League batting champion Roberto Clemente of the Pittsburgh Pirates was eighth with 56 points, missing eight ballots.

Marichal Gets 26

San Francisco right-hander Juan Marichal was ninth with 26 points, followed by teammate Willie McCovey with 25.

Philadelphia outfielder John Callison, runner-up to Boyer in 1964, finished 24th with a mere six points as 31 players were named on the 20 ballots.

Wills appeared in 158 games for the Dodgers this year, batting .286 with 186 hits, 92 runs scored, 33 RBI and 94 stolen bases. He hit only 14 doubles and seven triples—failing to connect for a homer—but was the big gun in the weak Los Angeles attack.

Mays moved into fifth place among baseball's all-time home-run sluggers. He has hit 505 during his career and trails only Babe Ruth with 714, Jimmy Fox with 534, Ted Williams with 521 and Mel Ott with 511. He broke in with the Giants, then in New York in 1951, spent two years in the Army and then returned to win the MVP honor for the first time.

Hawks Stop Hull But Lose Contest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Detroit's struggling Red Wings won the battle but lost the war.

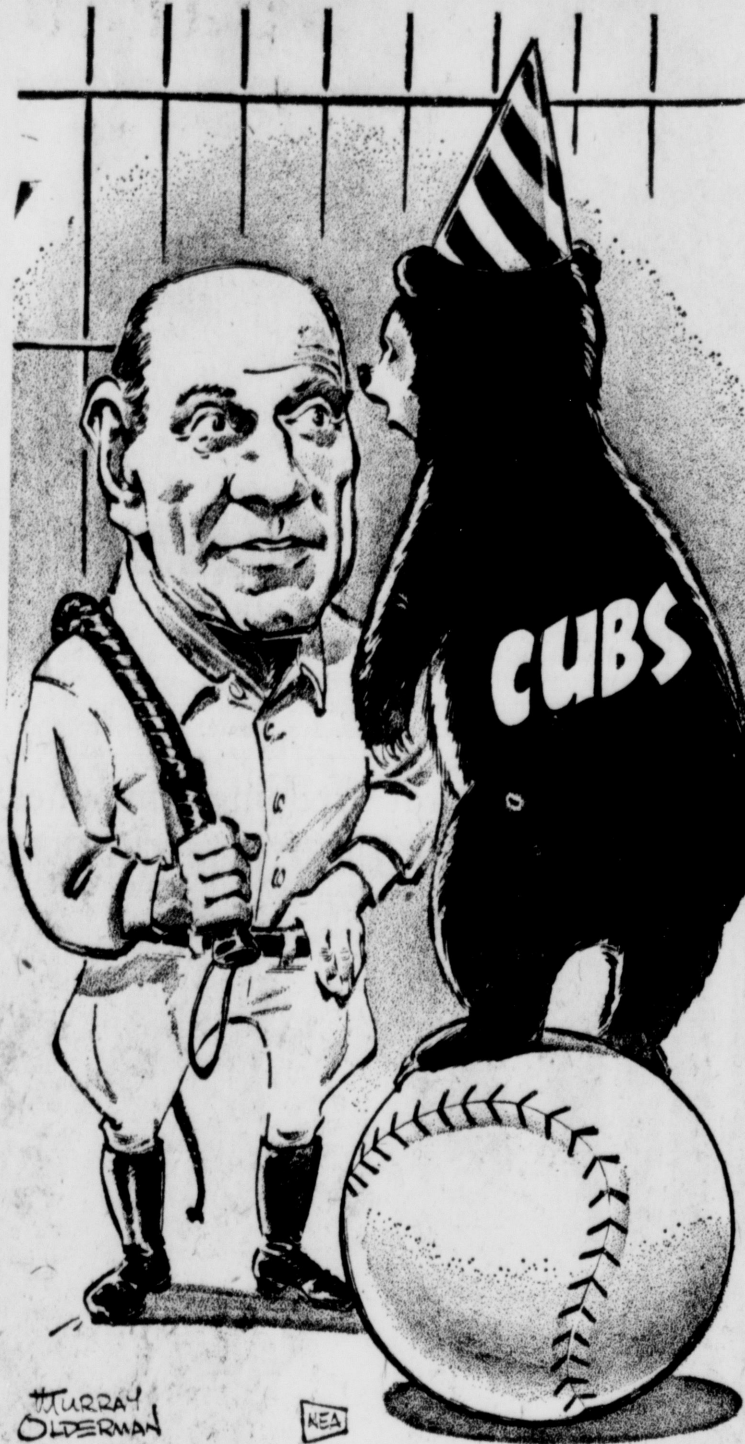

The National Hockey League's defending champions, mired in fifth place, ran smack into unbeaten Chicago red-hot superstar Bobby Hull, who had scored 11 goals in his first six games, Wednesday night.

So the Red Wings held Bobby without a point—no goals and no assists—but the Black Hawks got their firepower from scoring champion Stan Mikita and romped, 5-2.

The victory gave the Hawks six victories and a tie in seven starts and moved Chicago one point ahead of Montreal which played a 3-3 tie with Toronto. Boston and New York tied 2-2 in the other NHL game Wednesday night.

Mikita was the big gun for the Hawks, scoring two goals, one while Chicago was short-handed.

BREAKING IN A NEW ACT

Archer by Mile

Robinson Loses Bout But Wins the Applause

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson is near the end of the road but the roar of the crowd still makes sweet music in his ears. The fight with young Joey Archer Wednesday night may have been his last stop. The Harlem dandy wants to think it over for a day or two before he makes up his mind.

The Sugar Man retired way back in 1952 and stayed away for two years. After he came back he won and lost the world middleweight title three times. But the skills that earned him the reputation of the best fighter pound-for-pound in all ring history have faded.

His dream of winning the championship for the sixth time must have vanished in thin air after his game effort but decisive defeat by the 27-year old New York Irishman.

It is Archer's time to scream "We want Dick Tiger." Chances are he'll get that shot at the middleweight crown. Teddy Brenner, the Madison Square Garden matchmaker, wants to make it for March in New York. Archer knocked down Robinson for a nine-count in the fourth round to the surprise of the Civic Arena crowd of 9,023 that paid a gross take of $40,913. He rocked the tired body of the faded ex-champion time after time and almost put him away in the 10th round.

All three officials voted for him — referee Buck McTierman 48-41, judge Emile Sesto 49-40 and judge George Lupinacci 50-39. The AP card was 48-41.

When the final bell rang the cheers were for Sugar Ray, who claims to be 44 although the record books carry his age at 45. They weren't applauding because they thought Robinson had won.

They were paying a tribute to a gallant stand by an old man who was still trying to knock out the kid with one big punch. He had only one big round, the third.

The truth of the matter is that Robinson's once potent punch has lost its zip. He poked Archer with left hooks and combinations as if he punished Randy Turpin, Gene Fulmer, Jake Lamont, Gene Graziano, Carmen Basilio and all the others in the good old days.

Nothing happened. Archer shook off the bombs and pecked away with that stiff jab that forced the old boy to apply ice

Tulsa's Twilley Is Running Wild

NEW YORK (AP) — Howard Twilley, Tulsa's pass-catching whiz, continues to pull away in record-breaking fashion from his major college football opposition in scoring and pass receiving.

The 5-foot-10 end caught 15 passes and scored 36 points on five touchdowns, a two-point conversion and four conversion kicks against Louisville Saturday.

This makes him first in scoring with 110 points and tops in pass receiving with 106 grabs and 14 touchdowns and 1,486 yards. In scoring, his runner-up is Roy Shivers of Utah State with 90. In pass catching, his closest rival is John Love of North Texas State with 64.

Twilley's 106 catches shattered his own all-time high of 95 set in 1964 and extended his career marks for total receptions to 223, touchdown catches to 30 and receiving yards to 3,050. He still has two games to go.

Ray Robinson

packs to his cheeks in his dressing room.

"I tried from the first punch to knock him out," said Robinson, a forlorn figure on a bench. "The knockdown was the difference. He caught me off balance with a right hand."

Is this the end?

"You'll have to ask my manager," said Robinson pointing to George Gairford.

"We'll decide in a couple of days," said the sweaty Emperor. Later, in a dark corridor, Gairford nodded his head and said, "Age catches up to everybody."

Around the corner and down the hall, the Archer boys, Joey and his brother, Jimmy, who acts as his manager, were yelling for Tiger. But first, Joey had a kind word for Ray.

"He's still a great champion," said Joey. "He went out like a champ. I can see why they said he was so great. I learned something fighting him."

It was Robinson's 14th fight of the year and his fifth defeat.

Upstate Briefs

HAMILTON, N.Y. (AP) — Colgate is putting special emphasis on its passing attack in preparation for Saturday's football game with Buffalo.

Coach Hal Lahar of Colgate, anticipating going on the ground against Buffalo, sent quarterback Buff Platt and Bob Mark through a long passing drill Wednesday.

Orange Ready

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Syracuse University, hoping to rebound from last Saturday's football loss to Oregon State, is looking for a strong defensive effort to frustrate West Virginia this weekend.

Coach Ben Schwartzwalder sent his charges through a lengthy defensive drill Wednesday in preparation for the running of West Virginia's Garrett Ford and Dick Leffridge and the passing of Allen McCune.

McCune's two-touchdown effort against Syracuse last year helped carry West Virginia to a 28-27 victory over the Orange-men.

To Start Sophs

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Coach Tom Harp of Cornell says four sophomores will be in his starting lineup Saturday when the Big Red takes on the Dartmouth football team at Hanover, N.H.

Saugerties Five Rallies for 2nd Straight Victory

Winless in their first two games, the Saugerties Pharmacy cagers nipped Lincoln Park, 65-63, Wednesday night for their second straight win in the YMCA "B" basketball league.

Trailing 32-30 at the half, the Sawyers ground out an 18-14 edge in the third period and held the Presidents even (17-17) in the last quarter.

Barbers Win

Jack's Barbers moved into second place with a 62-56 victory over Corner Rest Tavern. The Barbers outscored the Tavern, 36-30, after a 26-26 halftime deadlock.

Jim Massa bucketed 22 points and Gary Greiner hit 16 for Jack's. Tom Fiore (20) and Jack Niles (13) paced Corner Rest.

For Sawyer Banquet

Robert Moser, principal of the Saugerties Junior High School, will be the toastmaster for Saugerties Jaycees' Saugerties High School football banquet Nov. 16 at the Flamingo Restaurant.

Principal speaker will be Jim Patton, New York Giants defensive star. The banquet is held annually to honor the Sawyer football squad. Tickets may be obtained at the Saugerties Pharmacy, Michael's Barber Shop, Smith Hardware or by contacting Joseph DiDomenico.

Crack Field Set In Mexican Open

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Top golf players from 11 countries, including rookie of the year Homero Blancas of Houston, Tex., launch the Mexican National Open championship for the Seagram Cup today.

The 72-hole tourney will be played on the 6,800-yard, par 72 Bellavista Club course, hosting the national championship for the first time.

Blancas, recovering from a tonsil operation, set the pattern for the international field with a practice five-under-par 67 Wednesday.

Blancas has $30,000 in winnings to his credit already in the first year in professional ranks. The 27-year-old newcomer shot a brilliant 32 on the front nine, despite the fact he has been sidelined for the last two weeks because of his operation.

Sports experts claim competition in the National Open is the fiercest in the 21-year history of the contest.

Among the leaders are Art Wall Jr., who won the Seagram Cup last year and set a tournament record; Gene Littler, fourth highest money winner of all time; Spain's Ramon Sota, who added the Brazilian Open title to the French and Spanish titles this year; Canada's PGA champion Wif Homenuik; 1965 Caracas Open winner Al Besselink, and many others.

6th Straight for Ambro Flight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ambro Flight recorded her sixth straight victory in winning the $81,386 Dexter Cup at Roosevelt Raceway Wednesday night. The victor, the only filly in the field, went off the 1-2 favorite and paid $3.00. Her time for the mile was 2:03 3-5.

In second place, 2 1/4 lengths back, was Egyptian Candor. Short Stop finished third.

In other feature New York State harness races:

At Batavia Downs, Miss Hansom, a 10-1 shot, took the $1,000 trotting highlight and paid $22.60. Laird Winsome placed and Some Breeze showed. The winning time was 2:08 2-5.

At Saratoga Raceway, Knight Play won the $1,200 pace event, beating Stone Chief, second, and Meadow Stacey, third. The winner, clocked in 2:07 2-5, returned $4.40.

Driver Ken Heaney brought home three winners in the 10-race program.

Paulson Makes Jets Big Plays Despite Injury

Dainard Paulson still plays with a cast on his right arm to protect a hairline fracture of the wrist suffered in early season, but the New York Jets' strong safety continues to make the big plays.

Paulson, a 28-year-old Oregon State product, made two important interceptions, helped Willie West block a field goal, and contributed seven tackles. He also knocked down a pass and protected well against three bombs in a 13-10 victory over Kansas City Sunday.

His performance earned him recognition as The Associated Press' defensive Player of the Week in the American Football League.

"He's our most consistent player on defense," Coach Weeb Ewbank commented. "He does a very fine job every week."

Picked Off Pass

Paulson picked off one pass at the goal line while Verlon Biggs and Jim Harris were rushing the passer. "I saw Dawson start to roll out in my direction," said Paulson, "and I figured he would be throwing over there. Give the credit to the men up front. They really were all over Dawson."

Bobby Bell of the losing Chiefs also had another outstanding game with 11 tackles, several on key plays, and knocked down a pass.

Tom Sestak of the Buffalo Bills, a weekly candidate for the award that he has won once, led the Bills' line that allowed Boston only 28 yards on the ground. Sestak was credited with six unassisted tackles and kept applying the heat to the Pats' offense.

NEW YORK (AP) — Ismael Laguna, the world lightweight boxing champion from Panama, was rated an 8-5 favorite here today to repeat his victory over former champion Carlos Ortiz of New York in their 15-round title bout at San Juan, P.R., Saturday night.

Jerry Lucas helped the Big O, scoring 28 points and pulling down 21 rebounds. Dick Barnett led New York with 35.

Jerry West and Elgin Baylor combined for 70 points between them as Los Angeles ripped Detroit 133-125 and Baltimore stood off a late St. Louis surge and beat the Hawks 124-117 in the only other NBA games played Wednesday.

Guarantee Clay-Patterson 250Gs for Terrell Bout

Keith Lincoln OPW in the AFL

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It's a good thing for the rest of the league that Keith Lincoln still has a sore right foot. The San Diego Chargers' fullback only scored three touchdowns and passed for another last week. Imagine what he would have done if he had been healthy?

For this fine performance against the Denver Broncos in a 35-21 victory, Lincoln was named today The Associated Press' Offensive Player of the Week in the American Football League.

Lincoln has been troubled all year by pulled tendons in his foot. He played in only four of the Chargers' nine games so far. He expected to start last Sunday, but the foot acted up while he was running pass patterns so he sat out the first period.

When Lincoln did get in, he took a seven-yard TD pass from John Hadl and a 44-yarder from Hadl before the half was over. With the score tied at 14-14 in the third period, Lincoln threw a 33-yard TD pass to Lance Alworth. Lincoln finished the day's work by plunging over from the one in the final period.

CHICAGO (AP) — A $250,000 guarantee was posted Wednesday for Ernie Terrell, World Boxing Association heavyweight champion, to face the winner of the pending Cassius Clay-Floyd Patterson bout in a Chicago title fight before July 1.

The guarantee was contained in a contract submitted to the Illinois State Athletic Commission by promoter Irv Schoenwald, who said he might "go up to a half-million dollars" as guarantee for Clay or Patterson to face Terrell.

The WBA which previously stripped Clay of its version of the heavyweight title has approved the Clay-Patterson match at Las Vegas, Nev., Nov. 22 with a proviso the winner faces Terrell.

Schoenwald pledged Terrell, who recently outpointed Terrell's George Chuvalo in his only title defense to date, $250,000 or 30 per cent of gross receipts including possible ancillary rights.

Schoenwald was accompanied by Terrell, his left eye still bloodshot from the Chuvalo battle.

Schoenwald said the proposed bout would be held at White Sox Park or McCormick Place which is air conditioned and could accommodate 25,000 fight fans.

Schoenwald will go to Las Vegas Saturday to negotiate with handlers of Clay and Patterson.

Early AFL Draft Draws Protests From NCAA-NFL

NEW YORK (AP) — Seeking to solve what it calls a baby-sitting problem, the American Football League has set Nov. 20 for its college draft and once again has incurred the wrath of college officials.

As a result of the AFL move Wednesday, the National League says it may be forced to change its mind and follow the younger league in holding an early draft.

The AFL action, announced by Commissioner Joe Foss, ignited the college-pro controversy all over again. The dispute raged last year over alleged secret drafts, player-hiding, early signings and double signings.

Following that extended battle, both pro leagues told the National Collegiate Athletic Association they would refrain from signing players before their eligibility had ended. The NCAA also asked that the drafts be held no earlier than Nov. 27, the last big Saturday of college football.

Explains Reasons

Foss said Nov. 20 was selected for two reasons. "First, it is the day on which a majority of college teams complete their schedules," he said. "And, further, I personally feel that drafting on the 20th will go a long way toward eliminating so-called baby-sitting practices which have sprung up the last two years."

"A number of unsavory situations came to light from the practice of players being hidden away for several days prior to the last two drafts. I think it's in the best interest of all that we do our best to try and eliminate an increasingly unhealthy situation."

But James Corbett of Louisiana State, chairman of the NCAA committee on pro relations, didn't take that view. "The AFL action," he said, "makes a mockery of that league's agreement with the NCAA and its member colleges. A draft as early as Nov. 20 can only be a completely negative morale factor since there will be increased pressure on the drafted player, on his team and on his college, — at exactly the wrong time."

No Violations

Foss, however, said the AFL would not violate the NCAA's primary concern over early signings.

"We just want a chance to contact the players and make our sales pitch," he added. "We understand the NFL has made elaborate plans again for baby-sitting with prospects and we want to get the chance to talk with these prospects."

Commissioner Pete Rozell of the NFL didn't say anything about the baby-sitting charges but he did say the league tentatively is planning its draft for Nov. 27, "in accordance with the wishes of colleges and universities."

"However, we may be forced to draft much sooner if others fail to honor requests."

OCT. 4, 1955 — Nobody who studied the law of probabilities gave the Brooklyn Dodgers much hope in the World Series with New York. After all, in seven previous attempts the Bums had lost each while the Yankees had a seven Series win skein going for them.

Even when the Dodgers won games three, four and five to set up a deciding seventh tussle, the smart money was on the Bombers. And, in the wrap-up ruckus, when Billy Martin walked in the sixth, Gil McDougald beat out a bunt and Yogi Berra's big bat approached the plate, the 62,465 in Yankee Stadium were nodding their heads knowingly.

Berra, sure enough, belted one. Down the left field line. But before you could say Damn Yankees, Sandy Amoros came racing over from left-center like he was going to, of all things, try to catch it.

Amoros, a sub and never a glove wizard, got to the ball a wink before it struck the ground, lunged at it with his right hand, snagged it somehow, wheeled and threw into a relay which executed a game-saving double play.

The Bums went on to win, 2-0. Flatbush was flabbergasted.

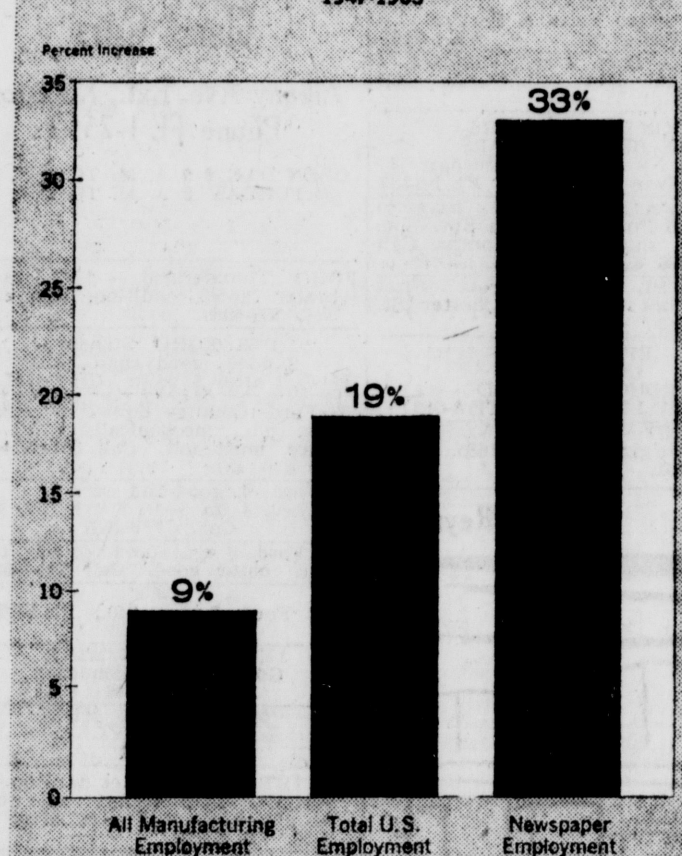

"So was I," Amoros was later to admit.

DAILY NEWSPAPERS are a GROWTH BUSINESS

It takes more people to publish today's newspapers

Any growing business needs more people...
Newspapers are one of the fastest growing businesses in the U. S. today!

GROWTH OF EMPLOYMENT IN THE NEWSPAPER BUSINESS, ALL MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES, AND THE TOTAL ECONOMY 1947-1963

An average of 20,000 men and women now enter America's burgeoning labor force each week. From 1947 through 1963 the nation's economy absorbed 11 million additional workers. Total employment increased 19% in 16 years.

During the same years employment in the daily newspaper business increased by 33%...to more than 329,000. By comparison, employment in all manufacturing industries rose by 9%, in retail and wholesale trade, 29%. Employment in the transportation industries dropped by 5% and in mining by 33%.

Increase in staff is but one reflection of the overall growth of daily newspapers since the end of World War Two. This growth is also reflected by marked increases in every other significant index—circulation, news content, advertising, newsprint consumption... and all are still growing.

Newspapers are growing for one reason: Only the newspaper covers the news fully and in depth. There is no substitute for the daily newspaper.

For more information on why daily newspapers are a growth business, write for a free copy of the new booklet, "The Growth of the American Daily Newspaper," an economic analysis published by the University of Wisconsin.

EMPLOYMENT

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS
The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept Help Wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Fair Labor Standards Act if they offer less than legal minimum wages or pay discriminations based on sex. Most employees engaged in interstate commerce or in the production of goods for commerce must be paid at least $1.25 an hour and time and one-half for hours worked over 40 in a week.
Beginning September 1, 1965, most employees in certain large retail service, construction and other enterprises engaged in or producing goods for commerce must be paid at least than $1.15 an hour and time and one-half for hours worked over 42 in a week. The Act also requires equal pay for equal work for men and women. If you are offered less than minimum wages, or if you have questions concerning the Fair Labor Standards Act, call or write the U. S. Labor Department's local office at 881 Grand Ave., Bronx,
N. Y. 10452, WYandotte 2-1235.

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The New York State Labor Law Against Discrimination and the Federal Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibit discrimination in employment because of sex unless based on bona fide occupational qualification. Help Wanted and Situation Wanted advertisements are arranged in columns captioned
"Male" and "Female" for the convenience of readers and are not included as an unlawful limitation or discrimination based on sex.

Ellenville Salesman

Hurt in Ohio Mishap
A 41-year-old Ellenville salesman was injured critically Wednesday in a two-car collision on Route 42 near Medina, Ohio.
Emanuel Kossar of Ellenville, was taken to a Medina hospital, suffering multiple injuries, it was reported. The other car was operated by Charles Calli-han of Medina.
An Ohio State Highway patrolman was credited with saving the life of the Ellenville man, by removing a piece of steering wheel from his jugular vein and stopping excessive bleeding.

Some leave footprints on the sands of time — others leave beer cans.

A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance. — Proverbs XV, 13.

A teacher said to her class, Teacher — Words ending in 'ous' means 'full of,' as joyous means full of joy, and vigorous means full of vigor. Now give an example of such a word. One young fellow piped up. One Young Fellow — Pious.

Mr. Brown — I'm going to fire that chauffeur. This is the third time this week he nearly killed me.

Mrs. Brown — Now, now, dear. Give the poor man another chance.

The 1st grader was losing her baby teeth. One tooth was loose and she had already lost three.

"Pretty soon I'll be running on the rim," she remarked.

Friend — Dead men tell no tales.

Turning green with envy has a way of making you ripe for trouble.

The rich may not live longer, but it certainly seems like it to their poor relations.

Children seldom misquote. However, they often repeat word for word what you shouldn't have said.

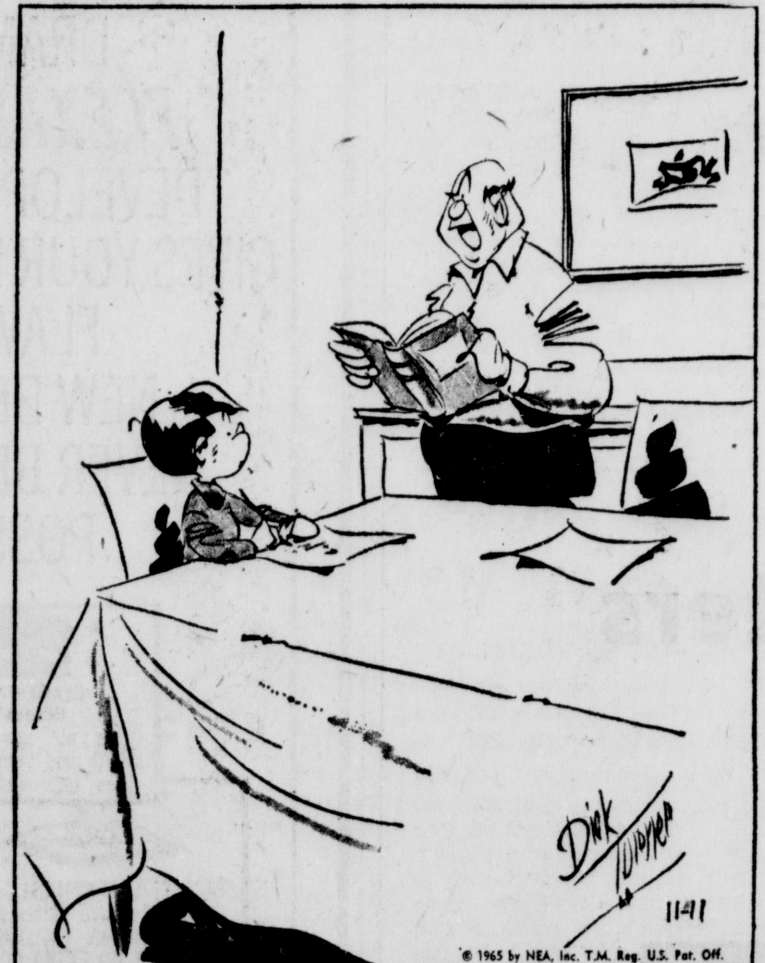

Joan — Yes, she's married to a real-estate agent and a good honest fellow, too.

June — My gracious! Bigamy?

You tell 'em Church Bell, I told you.

Veterans' Day

Charles L. Culver, state veteran counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and John B. Tyler, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, submit the following in observance of Veterans' Day:

They are lonely.
They who have passed the span of sacred years allotted man.
Who fought—and lived—in bloody war.

That you and I might evermore be free to go our varied ways.
To count the blessing of our days.

They are lonely.
Most for the gentle touch
Of a friendly hand that means so much.

For a friendly ear that will listen well
To the many tales they have to tell.
To the memories that crowd the mind
Of the days of youth that are far behind.

They are lonely.
Not useless, as some would tell.
Who would cast them down to the bitter hell
Of loneliness, and dark despair.
There is no place for the old men there.

Take up for them, the banner then,
And bring their youth alive again.

They are lonely.
Most for a kindly word
From the voice of a friend, so long unheard.

So let us stop and think a while;
Make light their load on the last long mile.
For you and I'll grow old some day
And wish to be treated in a better way.

They are lonely.
So cast them not aside;
They have their honor, they have their pride.
If their voice is weak and short their stride.
Be patient then, and more beside.
Were it not for men like them, I pray,
Where, oh where, would we be to-day?

Cool Period Is Outlook

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Extended forecasts for Upstate New York, prepared by the U. S. Weather Bureau, from Thursday through Monday:

Rather cool most of the period, but average just above normal for early November. Chance of a few light showers or brief period of rain late Thursday and Thursday night. Colder and generally fair Friday. A period of showers or rain over the weekend, with moderating temperatures and then colder early next week.

Highs in the 40s or low 50s most days and lows in the 20s and low 30s most nights.

Airmen Defect, Fly Red Chinese Plane to Formosa

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Three Chinese Communist airmen defected to Nationalist China today and flew their Ilyushin 28 jet bomber to Formosa, the Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry announced.

Two of the crewmen were injured, one seriously, in landing the plane at an air force base in north Formosa, the ministry said.

The three were identified as pilot Lee Hsien Ping, a native of Shantung Province; navigator Lee Tsai Wang, of Szechwan Province, and radio operator Lien Pao Sheng, of Hopei. The navigator and the radio operator were injured, the ministry said.

The plane skidded off the runway during the landing because of bad weather and the crew's lack of familiarity with the terrain, an official said.

Cong Ambush

Vietnamese fighting unit.

No major ground action was reported elsewhere in the country.

A new U.S. tactical fighter squadron arrived in Viet Nam to bolster the air war against the Viet Cong. U.S. planes kept up the daily pressure on targets in North Viet Nam, and Vietnamese planes joined them in attacks in the South.

The new squadron of F100 Super Sabre jets had been based in the Philippines and at Da Nang.

In a heavy strike in North Viet Nam, 21 U.S. Navy planes pounded a military storage area 65 miles south of Hanoi.

U.S. Air Force jets dropped 340,000 propaganda leaflets 180 miles west of Hanoi on Dien Bien Phu, site of the decisive French defeat in the Indochinese War.

Marine units on patrol in the northern coastal provinces reported they killed two Viet Cong. One patrol suffered light casualties when a booby trap exploded near Da Nang, 380 miles north of Saigon, a spokesman said.

Find Arms Cache

Vietnamese troops said they uncovered a huge arms cache 40 miles west of Saigon. The haul included 1,200 rounds of sub-machine gun ammunition. Another government unit in the same area reported it found a grenade workshop.

Supports Claim

Anne Stine Ingstad in August 1964 in L'Anse au Meadow, Newfoundland, found a piece of carved soapstone which served as a flywheel on a wool-spinning spindle. The find supports the claim that Norsemen colonized the New World long before Columbus.

ADDITIONAL PARKING AREA—Work is progressing on the razing of the former Ulster County Health Department office building at 15-17 Main Street, opposite the new County Office Building. After the two-story brick building is demolished the lot will be blacktopped and used for metered parking. Originally a two-family residence property, the building was renovated several years ago and housed the Ulster County Health Department offices until their removal to the new County Building. Since then it has been occupied briefly by the New York State Division of Lands and Forest as a temporary office. (Freeman photo by Wagenfohr)

Note Weekend Activities of Local Drum Corps

Toronto Optimists Drum and Bugle Corps Director Donald Daber and Drum Major David John were guests of the Troop 12 B.S.A. Indians of Kingston last weekend, and the executive director of the Madison (Wis.) Scouts, Clarence Beebe spent Monday and Tuesday with the Indians as their guest.

Daber and John of the Canadian National! Champion Optimists arrived Friday evening and a reception dinner was held for them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Nekos. Other members of the Indians executive staff on hand to greet them were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Kelman, Mr. Alfred Townsend and Director Ralph Shapiro. After a short conference Saturday morning, a luncheon was given by Mrs. Florence Wells at her home in Ulster Park. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Wells were on hand to assist.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Daber, John, Townsend, Nekos, Sampson and Shapiro drove to Newark, N. J. to attend the testimonial dinner in honor of William J. Kemmerer Sr., former director of the Garfield Cadets. Directors and managing personnel from corps throughout the United States and Canada attended this festive yet distinguished occasion held at Robert Treat Hotel. Among those that have corresponded with the Indians in the past were the guest of honor, Mr. Kemmerer, Edward Kwasnik, director of the Garfield Cadets, James Kropid, manager of the Chicago Cavaliers, Ed Rooney, director of Dorchester's St. Kevin's, the Rev. Robert Garner, moderator of the Blessed Sacrament Golden Knights, Stetson Richmond of Richmond Records and C. H. Beebe, director of the Madison Scouts. Beebe mentioned that he would like to hear the Kingston Indians rehearsing and was immediately invited.

Beebe spent most of the day discussing Scouting and corps with Shapiro, the rest of the day talking to Troop 12 Commitmen and Scoutmaster Emeritus Floyd L. Spencer who organized the Troop 12 Corps in 1939. Beebe was the organizer of the Madison Scouts Corps.

Beebe was the guest of the Shapiros for dinner, after which he attended the Indians rehearsal where he had discussions with Manager James Dugan, committeemen, instructors and many of the boys. Everyone heard the recording of Beebe's Drum Corps Hall of Fame presentation in addition to the recordings of many of the Midwestern Corps, including the Madison Scouts, Shapiro and Nekos drove Beebe back to Kemmerer's in Garfield on Tuesday. Kemmerer is also a recipient of the Drum Corps Hall of Fame.

The Indians will appear in the Schenectady Veteran's Day parade tonight supplying the marching music for the Scout division. Any young man interested in joining the Indians Drum and Bugle Corps should attend rehearsals on Monday evenings between 6:30 and 9 p. m. at Old Dutch Church and ask for Director Shapiro.

3 Persons Hurt In City Mishaps; Driver Is Cited

Three persons were injured in two city traffic mishaps Wednesday and a driver was cited after one of them for a stop-sign violation.

Sarah Zates, 57, of 71 Flatbush Avenue, suffered knee, hip and eye injuries in a car-pedestrian mishap on Foxhall Avenue near Downs Street reported at 5:10 p. m. She was taken to the Benedictine Hospital by Fatum ambulance and was reported in fair condition today.

Police said the car was driven by LeRoy Lasher, 22, of Glasco and the woman was injured as she stepped from a curb. Officers Anthony Turck and Duncan Greene investigated.

Jennie Lindsley, 52, o. Box 185, White Sulphur Springs, Sullivan County, reported arm, shoulder and knee injuries, and Janice M. Benicase, 25, of 224 Foxhall Avenue, a head injury, after a two-car collision at Elmendorf Street and Tremper Avenue, reported at 7:20 p. m.

Police said the one car was driven by Feldon E. Lindsley, 56, of Box 185, White Sulphur Springs, and the other by Janice Benicase.

A summons charging the stop-sign violation was issued to Feldon Lindsley and he is due in city court later this week. Officers Turck and Greene investigated.

Beatrice Nuptials Assured

THE HAGUE (AP)—Crown Princess Beatrix's marriage to West German commoner Claus von Arnsberg was assured of parliamentary approval Wednesday night.

The lower house approved in match 132-9 in the first parliamentary vote on a royal marriage in modern Dutch history. A second vote to make Von Arnsberg a Dutch citizen was approved 155-60.

The bills now go to the Senate, where approval is certain. The wedding will take place in March in Amsterdam.

Enamel Is Best
Kitchens and bathrooms are subject to more punishment from moisture than any of the other rooms in your home. So, it's a good idea to paint them with a moisture resistant paint. One of the best is a semi-gloss enamel. Not only will it stand up under the wear and tear of the moisture normally produced in these rooms, but it can also be easily cleaned with a soap and water scrubbing.
